THE SHIRTS THAT FIT BETTER

Because a Regatta shirt is tailored to the shape of the body, it is not merely laundered into shape, like most shirts. It conforms to every part of a man's figure, as well as to each.

exacting demand of his taste. Made of better fabrics, in a better way, so it wears better, and fits as no ordinary shirt will. It costs no more—but it pays best—when you demand this brand.

ARISTOCRAT STABBED TO DEATH BY ACTRESS

Told He is Going to Forsake Her, She Plunges Knife Into His Body

PARIS, Sept. 18.—The number of crimes of violence shows no signs of decrease in France. A particularly bad one occurred at Avignon yesterday. M. Raoul Dreyon de Perry, a young aristocrat, aged 26, well known in local society, was killed by Marie Thulle, a music hall artist, with whom he was living at a villa near Avignon. After having spent most of his fortune on the woman, the young man yesterday told the actress that he would not live with her any more. Blind with fury, she took up a knife from the table and plunged it into her lover's heart, killing him outright. She has been arrested.

Two murders occurred in one day at Terolaga, a little village near Brest. A woman, the wife of a bricklayer, was found beside her bed with her skull smashed in, while at the bottom of a well the dead body of a young sailor was discovered. The sailor had been seen drinking heavily the previous day in company with several bad characters. It is believed that he quarreled with them and was knocked in the head in the dark. No clue was discovered of the murderer of the woman.

Near Paris two more mysterious murders of the kind becoming so unpleasantly frequent now were discovered. Yesterday the body of an unknown woman with her throat cut was discovered in a quarry near Cherbourg. It is believed that she is the victim of "apaches."

This afternoon at Levallois-Perret, on the outskirts of Paris, a woman named Alice Lefort was found dead in her bedroom with a knife sticking in her breast.

BERLIN, Sept. 18.—Frau von Rotenberg, a young girl living at Bonn, was fined $5 at Mitley yesterday for trying to smuggle her pet dog ashore at Parkenton on a long travelling cloak, and was also ordered to pay for the keep of the dog during its six months' quarantine. She declared at first that she would return to Germany with the dog.

BOARD OF INQUIRY GIVES ITS FINDING

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 18.—Port Myer, the scene of yesterday's aeroplane disaster, which resulted in the death of Lieutenant Thomas E. Selfridge of the signal corps and serious injury to Orville Wright, presented a shattering aspect today.

The finding of the board of inquiry was given out by Major Squier, as follows:

"The board finds that the accident which occurred in an official flight made at Port Myer, Va., at about 3:15 p. m., on September 17, 1908, was due to the accidental breaking of a propeller blade and a consequent unavoidable loss of control, which resulted in the machine falling to the ground from a height of about 75 feet.

"The board finds that first, Lieutenant Thomas Selfridge, First Field Artillery (attached to the signal corps by war department orders, and assigned to aeronautical duty), accompanied by Mr. Wright, by authority, on the aeroplane, for the purpose of officially receiving instruction, and received injury by the falling of the machine which resulted in his death."

ANIMALS THAT SEE BEHIND.

Nature has enabled some animals to see objects behind them as well as in front without turning round. The hare has this power in a marked degree. Its eyes are large, prominent, and placed laterally. Its powers of seeing things in the rear are very noticeable in greyhound coursing, for though the dog is mute while running, the hare is able to judge to a nicety the exact moment at which it will be best for it to double back. Horses are another instance. It is only necessary to watch a horse, driven invariably without blinders, to notice this.

The giraffe, which is a very timid animal, is approached with the utmost difficulty on account of its eyes being so placed that it can see as well behind as in front. When approached this same faculty enables it to direct with great precision the rapid storm of kicks with which it defends itself.

The St. John Exhibition Association will entertain the newspaper men of the city at a dinner this evening. The dinner will be given in the restaurant at the Exhibition Buildings. It will begin at about ten o'clock, after the close of the exhibition.

JUDGE TAFT TO MAKE 3 TOURS

Starts for the West September 23. IN SOUTH LATER

Last Trip Will be in East With a Speech in New York

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept. 18.—Judge W. H. Taft will make three campaign tours. His first will begin here Sept. 23 and end Oct. 7 at Galesburg, Ill. The trip will take him through Wisconsin, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Iowa, Nebraska, Colorado, Kansas and Missouri. He will make one or more speeches in each of these states and will in with numerous short addresses from the rear platform of his special train.

The second trip, which will be arranged in detail later, will take him into Kentucky, Tennessee and possibly North Carolina.

The last trip will be in the East. New York city will be visited and a speech will be made in the northern part of the Empire State. It has been decided that New England will not be included in this trip, but speeches will be made in Maryland, Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio, which will bring the candidate back to his native city for the election.

Judge Taft will travel in a special train, and with him will be two other speakers of national reputation. While it has not been determined definitely who these will be, it was stated here today by Senator Dolliver of Iowa, would likely be one, and Senator Foraker another.

ROYAL GOLFER.

King James II. was a fine golfer in the sense of fondness for the game, and in other senses too. He was as Duke of York, who, when challenged by two English noblemen at the Scottish court to a match, the duke to take any partner who he could find, took to his side an Edinburgh shoemaker named John Paterson. The duke and Paterson won, and the latter, being given half the stake, built for himself a house, which is to be distinguished by the record upon it in Canongate to this day.

EASIER.

"That house I have taken from you," said the dispossessed tenant, "is a horrible draft. When I am sitting in the middle of the room my hair blows all over my head. Can't you do something to stop that?"

"Don't you think, sir," replied the house agent suavely, "it would be easier and cheaper for you to get your hair cut?"—London Telegraph.

BURGLARS VISIT MARK TWAIN'S HOME

And He Posts a Notice for the Next Gang.

Interrupted as They Were Packing Up Dining Room Silver, Chased and Caught.

REDDING, Conn., Sept. 18.—Two burglars, who broke into the residence of Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain), in Redding late Thursday night, were captured Friday on a N. Y. N. H. & H. R. train between Bethel and Redding after a desperate fight in which Deputy Sheriff Banks of Redding was shot in the leg. The prisoners, who are believed to be professional crooks, who came from New York for the express purpose of entering the Twain villa refused to talk.

Miss Lyon, the humorist's secretary, was aroused about midnight by the sound of breaking glass in the lower part of the house. She went softly down the stairs to find a flood of light in the dining room and that the sideboard with its rich load of solid silver was missing from its customary place in the room. Cautiously slipping along in the shadows to a point where she should have a view of the garden, which they had carried out apparently in the hope that they would not be interrupted in their work. Without giving the burglars any cause for alarm, Miss Lyon summoned Mr. Clemens and the butler and then telephoned for Sheriff Banks and several neighbors. Before any of them reached the scene the burglars had fled with their booty, but the hurriedly formed posse started on the trail, followed them down the railroad and overtook them just as they boarded the train at Bethel.

The two men were captured on a train at this point after a fierce fight in which the sheriff was wounded twice and one of the men shot himself seriously in the head.

Following the awakening of Miss Lyon and her discovery that burglars had been at work, word was telephoned to Harry Lounsbury, a neighbor, and to Deputy Sheriff Banks, both of whom came to the Clemens place. Search was at once made by them and neighbors who had been notified, of the premises and on the lawn some distance from the house was found the empty drawer. Continued search showed that the men had taken the main road for the railroad and then went on to Bethel and the sheriff remained at the Redding station.

The giraffe, a passenger train, bound south came into the Bethel station. Mr. Lounsbury boarded it and passing into the smoking car saw there the empty drawer. He was not alone. He attempted to engage them in conversation and asked them in they were Danbury. The men replied vaguely. Mr. Lounsbury said he noticed that both men's shoes had rubber heels which it was said would correspond with the tracks in the roadway.

When the train arrived at Redding Lounsbury got off and notified Sheriff Banks that he believed the men they were after were the two who had been taken to the Bethel station. Sheriff Banks boarded the train and attempted to arrest the men, but they at once showed fight, one of them drawing a revolver. In the struggle which followed the sheriff was shot in the leg and in the hand and the man managed to attempt to assist the officer. At the same time Mr. Wark, who was at the Clemens home, appeared with a shot gun and the two men then gave in and suffered themselves to be handcuffed, and were taken off the train and to the house of Mr. Lounsbury.

A physician was called and the wounds of the sheriff and of the injured robber attended. Later in the morning the men were taken before Justice Dickerson for a hearing. Mr. Clemens, his daughter, Miss Clara, and Mr. Wark appeared at the hearing. The men had taken only the solid silverware and this was all recovered. The plated ware they had evidently discarded somewhere.

NOTICE TO NEXT BURGLAR.

REDDING, Conn., Sept. 18.—Mr. Clemens today posted this notice on the door of his house:

"Notice—To the next burglar—There is nothing but plated ware in this house now and henceforth. You will find it in that brass thing in the dining room over the corner by the basket of kittens. If you want the basket put the kittens in the brass thing. Do not disturb the family. You will find rubbers in the front hall by that thing which has the umbrellas in it. I chaffered, I think they call it, or porgies or something like that. Please close the door."

"Yours truly," "S. L. CLEMENS."

CURTAIN MADE FROM CORKE.

One of the most fashionable clubs in Berlin has in its upper room a curtain made of champagne corks. Four thousand corks, with their silver or gilt covering, have been threaded on thin rods decorated with colored ribbons and embellished with small copper balls. The curtain has the appearance of a Japanese panel. Each cork is from a bottle of champagne costing about $5, and the whole curtain represents an expenditure of something like $200.

NEW MACHINERY FOR COLONIZING

Ontario Ministers Now in England Will Urge Radical Changes

Good Laborers for Farmers of Older Ontario—Offices in England, Ireland and Scotland

LONDON, Eng. Sept. 17.—An important and somewhat radical measure, dealing with the whole question of provincial immigration and colonization, will be introduced by the Government at the next session of the Ontario Legislature. If the Cabinet, as a whole, approves of the recommendations to be submitted by the Ministers now in the city.

In addition to the proposal, which has been already made, to establish the United Kingdom a Provincial colonization headquarters, Hon. Nelson Monteith, who has direct supervision of the work, will submit recommendations calling for changes in the present act dealing with settlement. Under these it is proposed to modify the existing three years. It is not unlikely that the time may be reduced to one year on condition that the settler undertake to put a proportionately large acreage under cultivation within that period.

MORE THAN ONE HOMESTEAD.

The question of permitting one settler to take up more than the regulation 160 acres may also be considered subject to enactments which protect against land speculation.

These concessions, if made, will be the result of the investigations of the Minister of Agriculture, and in view of the likely settlement of certain agricultural tracts of Northern Ontario by Irish and Scottish immigrants of some kind who are ready to open up the land and build homes promptly. To avail themselves of the proposed concessions of the new Act, the settlers will have to satisfy Ontario's London office of their bona fides and of their financial ability and readiness to start a home and the development of the land immediately.

The operations of the contemplated colonization offices are to be restricted exclusively to supplying the best obtainable in farm laborers to the agriculturists of Ontario, and to the settlement and opening up of the new northern portions of the Province. City dwellers, laborers and mechanics will not be encouraged to emigrate under the Provincial policy, the ground being taken that the urban centres of Ontario are well supplied.

AN ENTIRELY NEW SYSTEM.

The system upon which the colonization offices in London will be operated has not yet been determined. Mr. Monteith is conferring with Sir James Munro, the Canadian Minister of Agriculture, and with the representatives of the various provinces in the Australian Commonwealth and that of British Columbia in Canada. It is understood that the Prime Minister will be slavishly followed. The probabilities are that Ontario will strike out on a system of her own. An Agent General will probably be appointed, and branch offices established in Edinburgh and Dublin or Belfast. The present Liverpool branch will be reduced in size, and possibly transferred in its entirety to the London central office, leaving a "branching office" to operate at that port under instructions from headquarters.

The plans of the investigating Ministers are, however, only problematical. No definite decisions will be reached until their report has been passed upon by the Cabinet as a whole on their return. It is understood that the Prime Minister, Sir James Whitney, will confer with Lord Strathcona, the Canadian Commissioner, and members of the Imperial Government on the colonization proposals.

BATH AS BALLROOM; WALTZES IN WATER

Society Folk in Swiss Town Do Curious Stunts for Local Charity

GENEVA, Sept. 18.—A fancy dress ball in which the dances took place in water was held on Wednesday night at Louche-le-Bains.

The ballroom was the "Grand Bain," which was full of heated water, and was decorated with electric lights, Chinese lanterns, flags, plants and flowers. All the available seats at the sides of the bath were sold. The proceeds going to charity.

At an early hour the spectators' seats were crowded with women and men in evening dress, and at 8.30 p. m. there was great excitement, as the dancers and singers—all amateurs, and dressed in expensive costumes and some wearing jewelry—entered the water. Many of the women wore slits and saffia, which were ruined in a few seconds but all stepped gaily into the water.

Some of the most striking costumes represented reigning queens and kings, Chinese mandarins, Mephistophiles, terminators, English policemen, etc. The evening commenced with a concert, all the bathers, up in their chests in water, singing past songs and choruses.

Afterward dancing commenced in the water. First of all there was a quadrille, which had been studied before the bath had been so filled.

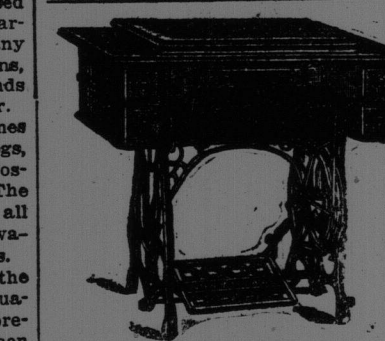

Then followed very slow waltzes, and finally two-steps. Not till the early hours did the aquatic ball come to an end. The spectators remained to the last, and congratulated the dancers, most of whom were Americans and English.

TO FORM BIG TRADE UNION IN CANADA

Trades and Labor Congress Takes First Steps Toward Big Canadian Organization.

QUEBEC, Sept. 18.—The National Trades and Labor Congress got down to business yesterday afternoon, and listened to reports from the various committees, followed by speeches made in the interest of labor.

Resolutions from a special committee dealing with proposed amendments to the constitution, suggestive of a more concrete basis of the congress, in keeping with its general policy of a national or altogether Canadian organization, were presented and read. These resolutions, which admit an affiliation of trades unions with the congress, will be acted on today.

In answer to Delegate Patterson, President Marois said the executive officers had opened negotiations with the Provincial Workmen's Association of Nova Scotia, with a view to affiliation. He then called upon Secretary Griffiths to give details to the negotiations in question. The latter explained what the fat had no success with women."

THE TOO FAT.

Fat hens, being wretched layers, are always sold off by farmers.

The early Romans banished all useless persons, including the fat in this category.

Ovid, in his "Art of Love," says, "Keep ever slender and supple, for the fat have no success with women."

SPINACH OMELET.

Make a sauce of spinach in the usual way—that is to say, after having boiled it till tender chop it very fine and rub it through a coarse wire sieve, season with salt and pepper, stir over the fire and add two ounces of butter and a little cream. Take two tablespoonfuls of the spinach and stir it into four eggs which have been previously beaten, yokes and whites separately. Add a little piece of shallot which has been rubbed through the sieve, and salt and pepper to taste. When thoroughly mixed put the whole into an omelet pan with two ounces of butter and fry a pale brown. Serve very hot.—Bystander.
