FROM DIANA'S DIARY.

As an Amateur Hawkshaw, Miss Dillpickles Gets on the Trail of a Kidnapped Chee-Id.

By FRED SCHAEFER.

It isn't terrible. Little Chesterton Quibby Dubarry, and only six years old, has been kidnapped, and everybody is frantic. He was looking at a circus billboard when an unknown dark man, with false whiskers and red and blue striped cuffs lured him away with an ice cream sandwich. He was not mislead till he was gone. They have found clues before, but none that will turn up Chesterton Quibby Dubarry. He was seen riding west with four men in a plane box buggy. He seemed contented, for they were feeding him with chocolate eclairs. When snatched from in front of the board he wore his hair cropped short and had on gingerbread shirt-waist and ribbed stockings. They may disguise him, though, by putting a Buster Brown wig on him, making him go barefoot, in which case he can be recognized by having six toes on his left foot. The Villians have sent a letter demanding $50,000 by the end of the week, or else they'll cut his ears off, mail them to the parents. However, if they do that, it will be a violation of the postal laws, punishable with a $5 fine. Therefore, they may fail. The wealthy parents will either pay the ransom or give a reward of $5,000 for the return of the child. How I would LOVE to find him. I'm awfully sorry for the parents and I could use $5,000. 'Deed I could. The hunt is on. Watch my smokes! (Continued.)

BRANDENBURG LOCKED UP ON ABDUCTION CHARGE

NEW YORK, June 29.—Although Broughton Brandenburg was acquitted today of the charge of grand larceny in connection with the sale of an alleged spurious letter of Grover Cleveland to the New York Times, he had only a few minutes of freedom. Before leaving the court-room he was re-arrested and will be taken to St. Louis next week for trial on a charge of fraudulently entering the country of the United States. The author was taken back to the Tomb in default of $5,000 bail to await the arrival of the Missouri officials.

OVER 100 SUFFRAGETTES ARRESTED AS RESULT OF EFFORT TO SEE ASQUITH

LONDON, June 29.—The thirteenth train attempt of the militant suffragettes to obtain access to Premier Asquith by deputation resulted in exciting scenes in Parliament square to-night and the arrest of more than one hundred women. The plan of campaign followed the lines previously employed by the suffragettes. The "woman's parliament" assembled in Carlton Hall at 6 o'clock in the evening and sent a deputation, headed by Mrs. Pankhurst, to endeavor to see the prime minister, who had previously declined not to receive the deputation. An enormous crowd of on-lookers assembled in the vicinity of parliament. The first noteworthy incident was the arrest, after a great deal of trouble, of a woman suffragette who tried to penetrate the police cordon to take a message to the premier. Next appeared the deputation under command of Mrs. Pankhurst, and it was received by the crowd with wild cheers. Escorted by the police, the deputation arrived at the St. Stephen's entrance to parliament, where it was met by Mrs. Pankhurst's letter from the premier, regretting his inability to receive the deputation. Angrily showing the letter on the ground, Mrs. Pankhurst exclaimed: "I stand on my rights as the King's subject to enter the House of Commons," and she endeavored to force an entrance. The police tried to induce the women to disperse quickly and then began to take the members of the deputation by the arms to lead them away. To the surprise of the spectators, who were massed around the entrance, Mrs. Pankhurst slipped Inspector Jarvis in the face, knocking his cap in the mud. A moment later another member of the deputation, Mrs. Saul Solomon, knocked off the inspector's cap a second time, while others made determined attempts to rush the cordon of police. Eventually the entire deputation was placed under arrest. By this time a second deputation had left Carlton Hall, accompanied by some hundreds of suffragettes and others, and an attempt was made to reach the house of commons through the underground passage leading from Westminster bridge. This too was unsuccessful. The windows of many of the government buildings were smashed with stones thrown in paper. Altogether 112 women were arrested.

COLD FACTS ABOUT REMARKABLE INCIDENTS OF PREVAILING HOT WAVE

Patent Fridge Slugs Alay That Terrible Feeling—Visitor From Polar Region Revolts in Sizzling Weather—Restaurant in Ice Cave is Popular.

FRIGID TABLETS HEAT ANTI-DOTES. SIZZLING, Pa., June 29.—Price's Patent Fridge Slugs are all the rage during these warm days, and T. A. Price, who devised these dainty little antidotes against heat, is being acclaimed as a benefactor of his race. The Fridge Slugs consist of liquefied air compressed into buttons. One of them dropped into a cup of water will convert it instantly into ice. Two of them deposited in the boiler of a steam heating plant will send currents of cold air through the pipes and maintain a temperature of forty degrees during the hottest summer day. Workmen in the factory are constantly having their fingers frost-bitten while handling the slugs, and they are compelled to wear fur overcoats and heavy woolen mittens during the working hours. The temperature in the air for 50 feet around the factory is so chilly that all the vegetation is destroyed. Several days ago the 6-year-old daughter of B. K. Bradley swallowed a slug, less than ten seconds after she was frozen stiff, while huge icicles hung from her clothing. For a time her condition was serious. She was soaked into a barrel of water and being kept there ten hours was thawed out sufficiently to move around. Doctors are of the opinion that her disposition has been destroyed. BLIZZARD SWEEPS PENNA. TOWN. SCORCHTOWN, Pa., June 29.—For the days a cold wave held Scorchtown in the grasp of pitiless winter. All the crops have been destroyed, and hundreds of head of cattle have been frozen to death, the streams are closed and suffering is intense. The blizzard came at a time when the wheat was ripening, the potatoes blossoming and the cherries and the blackberries coming into shape for pickles. Following a slight frost on Wednesday night, a bitter north wind swept down upon the community. Blast soon changed to driving snow, and in a few hours the ground was white. The fierce wind piled up huge drifts, impeding traffic on the trolley lines and making travel by teams almost impossible. Farmers who had not laid in their supply of coal were forced to collect all the wood they could find, but it was inadequate. Food ran short and whole families were forced to subsist upon frozen turnips and frozen cherries. Relief parties could bring in provisions. None of the churches held services today. ICE CAVE IS DOING RUSHING BUSINESS. HOTSPUR, Pa., June 29.—So great has been the crush at the famous ice cave, just on the outskirts of this village, that a waiting line has been formed at the entrance, and the guides have orders not to permit visitors to remain in the cave more than half an hour. The walls of this wonderful work of nature are masses of clear ice, which glisten like diamonds under the electric lights. The floor is a carpet of soft snow, intensely cold, and it crunches under foot with peculiar sound only heard on the coldest days of winter. The ceiling is hung with gigantic icicles, from which the cool and sweetest of water drops. In one part of the cave is a huge chamber hollowed out of the solid ice. Here is a cozy restaurant where jingling clinking dishes are served to the suffering, panting public. It is such a delightful spot that no one wants to leave it. One red-faced, perspiring man refused to obey the order to leave after he had been in the cave half an hour. He fought desperately to remain, and he had to be dragged out by five waiters.

FAITH HEALING CAMP.

Remarkable Scenes at Alliance, Ohio. PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 29.—From Alliance, Ohio, where the "Rev." John Lupton has established a faith-healing camp, singular scenes are reported daily. Lupton, who is called the "Appelle," claims the "gift of tongues," a gift which the faithful are said to likewise receive. Hundreds of people flock to the camp. Some extraordinary "cures" have been reported, and the Rev. W. E. Harrison, who is visiting in that vicinity, went to the camp yesterday, accompanied by his little daughter. During the day the girl fell and fractured her arm. The child was anointed and declared healed. Dr. C. S. Hoover later attended the child, setting the bones back in place. One of the congregation claimed the child suffered great pain after the doctor's operation and the bandage was removed. Another anointment and exorcism followed, and the child was free from pain and entirely healed. Her father is not a follower of this faith.

NEW HONORS FOR MR. KING

OTTAWA, June 29.—Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King has been named to the post of minister of the interior in the new government. He will receive tomorrow from Harvard University the degree of Ph. D. Mr. King passed the final examination for the degree some weeks ago after submitting thesis along the line of his three years' post-graduate course in economics and history at Harvard before he became Deputy Minister of Labor in 1901.

MALES TO TEACH IN FUTURE

OTTAWA, June 29.—At the meeting of representatives of all the Anglican churches of the city last night it was decided that hereafter all Chinese in local Anglican Sunday schools shall be taught by men instead of by lady teachers. The decision is in a large measure the outcome of the recent atrocity in New York in connection with the murder of Miss Seigel.

TO EXTEND THE PLANT.

SYDNEY, N. S., June 29.—Before a meeting of the executive of Sydney Century Club, P. B. Jones, General Manager of Dominion Iron and Steel Co., said he had today received authority to proceed immediately with the outfit of $2,000,000 in the expansion of the plant. The immediate new construction will involve the erection of one blast furnace, a full complement of coke ovens and a Merchant mill. Extensions within the next twelve months. Representatives of a large New York grounds and construction operations upon an extensive scale will be commenced. The new blast furnace of the steel company will be known as No. 8, indicating that at a later date it is the intention to add three additional furnaces.

CASTAWAYS BACK AS FROM THE DEAD

Five Men and Boy, Reported Lost Off Whaling Brig, are Landed.

No Food and Spoonful of Water a Day Each Until German Steamship Picked Them Up.

NEW YORK, June 29.—Six hardy Portuguese whalers came back from the dead yesterday when they arrived on the Celtic, of the White Star Line, from Liverpool. They and their boat were reported lost from the Sullivan whaling brig hailing from New Bedford, when they could not be found on the morning of March 11. Their families have long been wearing mourning and services for their souls have been held in the little Portuguese church in the whaling city.

Antone Thina, third mate of the Sullivan, John Almeida, boat steersman and chum of Thina's for twenty years; Narciso Degross, Alfreda, Cabral, Antone Francisco and Justin Fortes, sixteen years old, were the bronzed crew of the third mate's boat, who were sent here by the American consul in Liverpool. Thina told how for six days and seven nights without food and with but a spoonful of water each day, he and the crew of the boat suffered agony until they were picked up by a German steamship.

Taken to German Southwest Africa, they were made to work in the boiling sun until they could earn a sum sufficient for a captain of another liner to accept as part payment for their passage to the Canary Islands. There Pina first saw a representative of the American consul, Solomon Berlin, who sent the men on to Liverpool.

That Captain William Haggerty practically left the men to the mercy of a gathering storm by failing to set a light in the forewinding of the brig after nightfall is the contention of Pina and his mates.

DEAD MAN SUED FOR BREACH OF PROMISE

But Doubt Exists as to Whether Action Against Him Will Lie—$10,000 Is Demanded.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 29.—One of the strangest suits ever brought in the Superior Court of New Haven county was that heard today before Judge Shumway. It is an action brought by Adelaide Cumming (Davies) against Rudolph F. Davies, the question to be decided is whether or not a breach of promise suit can be maintained after the person sued is dead.

Miss Cumming, in February, 1908, brought suit against Mr. F. Davies for $10,000 for breach of promise, and at that time the defendant died a bond of $1,000. In August last Mr. F. Davies died, and now the plaintiff seeks to recover the full amount from his estate. It was stated in court today that while Mr. F. Davies left an estate in New York the suit might be maintained here, where it was brought.

After a recital of the facts Judge Shumway decided that the only issue to be decided was whether the estate had been granted here. The matter therefore has gone over until the second Tuesday in September, and in the meantime the necessary letters of administration will be taken out.

Mr. F. Davies at the time the action was brought was playing with David Ward and Miss Cumming also was in the stage.

APPEAL COURT FOR BRITISH COLUMBIA

Names of Many Prominent Lawyers Have Been Mentioned for Judgeships

VICTORIA, B. C., June 29.—The decision of the Government of British Columbia to bring into operation in August the act establishing an Appeal Court for this province—formal notification of which has been given to the Dominion Government, with whom rests all judicial appointments—is received with general satisfaction throughout the province, the inconveniences and loan to litigants under the present system having been great. Many names are mentioned in connection with the appointments to be made by the Dominion, rumor being divided as to whether Chief Justice Hunter will be transferred to the new court in that capacity, or Mr. J. A. Macdonald, K. C., of Rossland, the leader of the Liberal Opposition in the Provincial Legislature, obtain the new Chief Justiceship.

In the event of Mr. Macdonald's appointment to the bench, which appears conceded as a foregone conclusion, it is both possible and probable that Mr. William Sloan will contest the vacant constituency, with aspirations to succeed Mr. Macdonald not only in the seat, but in the provincial leadership of the party.

Among others whose names have been mentioned in connection with judgeships in the new court are: Messrs. W. W. Melness (on promotion from county judgeship), J. H. Senkler, F. C. Wade, D. G. Macdonell, E. P. Davis, and Charles Wilson—all King's Counsel, of Vancouver. Hon. D. M. Eberts, K. C. and Col. F. B. Gregory, of this city.
