SECOND FAILURE TO FLOAT
LAKE SUPERIOR.

An attempt was made yesterday to float the str. Lake Superior, ashore near the Poul Grouse wharf and some of the ship's pumps operated by steam introduced from the tug G. D. Hunter lent good assistance. At 11 o'clock it looked as if the Superior would come off the rocks. The pumps in the foremost part of the ship did what was required of them, but in the after part it was different. The water came in so as to bury the pumps underneath.
At 11:20, an hour before high water, the men in charge of the ship, abandoned all thought of raising her, and the tug alongside were ordered to cast off their lines. Six of the imported pumps were used and two or three of the ship's. The tugs which were alongside were the G. D. Hunter, Neptune, Flushing, W. H. Murray and Digby.
The ship straightened up through the pumping operations and was on her keel an hour before high water.

It is expected another attempt will be made within a few days.

SUDDEN DEATH.
John O'Connell, an aged citizen of St.
John and for many years well known as the proprietor of a tobacco shop near the corner of Mill and Dock streets, died suddenly in his house Tuesday afternoon. He had been in poor health for a considerable time and had not called in any medical assistance. Although feeling poorly he was not confined to bed, but was attending to his ordinary duties until after four o'clock yesterday afternoon.
Then he went upstairs in the house where he lived and lay down for a few minutes to rest. About an hour afterwards one of the inmates of the house, on going over to speak to him, discovered that Mr. O'Connell was dead.

Corner Berryman was at once summoned and after a short examination decided that an inquest was not necessary.

was born at Nelson, Northumberland Co., in 1832, and came to Moncton in 1872, and was for a few years I. C. R. storekeeper, and was then advanced to the position of mechanical accountant. The many bouquets that covered his desk Wednesday morning evince the esteem in which he is held by his many friends who wish him many happy returns of the day.

BOY WITH MATCHES
Causes Loss of House, Barns and Money at Blisville.

FREDERICTON JUNCTION, Sept. 3.
—The house and barns of Alex.
Wooden of Blisville were totally destroyed by fire yesterday. The fire caught in the barn and spread to the dwelling. The fire originated by a young grandson playing with matches.
The contents of the buildings were destroyed, also a sum of money.

AFTER FORTY YEARS.
Henry Berryman, of Minas de Ore, Honduras, Central America, an old St.
John boy, is at present visiting his sister, Mrs. Prescott, of Coburg street. A brother is D. E. Berryman, M. D., of this city.

Ten years less than half a century ago Mr. Berryman left St. John and since that time has lived in many climes.

Twice only has he been in St. John since he first left, and 29 years have elapsed since his last visit.

WEDDING BELLS.

The residence of Alex. Gregory was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Thursday afternoon, when Miss Frances J. Smythe (daughter of Mrs.
Gregory) was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Charles W. Short of H. H. Dryden, hardware merchant, Sussex, and son of the late Fred Short of this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Wellington Camp of the Church Avenue Baptist church, Sussex, in the presence of about 25 of the relatives and immediate friends.
The bride was attired in white or-gandie trimmed with lace on train, Briselle net veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bridal bouquet of smiling and sweet peas. She was given away by her guardian, C. Harry Smyth of Waterbury & Rising's. After the ceremony a beautiful repast was served, and the happy couple left on the C. P.
R. for a short honeymoon in Fredericton. The bride wore a travelling suit of grey cloth trimmed with strappings of like colored silk and a white felt hat. The numerous useful and costly presents bespeak the merit and esteem in which the young couple are held.
The groom's present to the bride was a gold watchman watch from Nappa. It was a gold watchman watch from Nappa.
Mrs. Short will receive after the 15th of September at "The Cedars," Sussex, New Brunswick.

INTERNATIONAL ARGUMENT.
There is one State of Maine Yankee who will hereafter reserve the expression of his opinions of England and the English for the safer climate of home.
He stood in a hotel bar in St. John yesterday morning and made several remarks. They were vigorous, decidedly uncompromising and ungentlemanly. Some of his friends tried soothing words, but the man from Maine was out for blood—British blood.

He didn't get any. There was present at the time a mayor of a New Brunswick town who is not a very big man, while the talker towered up about six feet. But the mayor didn't approve of either the sentiments or the language, so he walked over and said:
"Come here—you're considerably taller than me, but that kind of talk don't go down here. This is where you get poked good and hard." And his fist shot out and landed fair where the talk was coming from.

Friends hailed the mayor off because nothing more was needed. There were no further strictures regarding British policy.

HELD I. C. R. TRAIN FOR WED-DING PARTY.
(Moncton Times, 4th.)
The C. P. R. from the east yesterday was three-quarters of an hour behind time in reaching Moncton, and was held here twenty minutes to allow a newly married couple on the local express from Halifax to catch the train. The bride and groom, it is said, hailed from Nappa. It is something unusual, to say the least, to hold a through train for a wedding party to the inconvenience of hundreds of passengers.

OPERATION SUCCESSFUL.
Dr. Stockton Undergoes Serious Operation and is Doing Well.

The intense anxiety of Dr. A. A.
Stockton's family, who were aware that yesterday was the day set for a critical operation, which was hoped to have radically beneficial results, were relieved early last evening by a despatch received early last evening from Dr. Stockton, announcing that he had passed through a serious operation and was doing as well as could be expected.

WEDDED AT WOODSTOCK.
Woodstock, Rev. Mr. Ross, assisted by Rev. Mr. Barrie, united in marriage Miss Julia Harvey Johnston, organist of the church for two years past, to Rev. John Ives, of Lindsay, Carleton county. The wedding will be celebrated at Woodstock, N. B., on Wednesday, Sept. 10th.

Miss Johnston is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music and for some time was at the head of the music teaching staff at the Ladies Academy in connection with Mount Allison University. The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents.

A FAMILY NECESSITY.
Owing to artificial modern life, almost everybody suffers more or less from constipation, torpid liver and sluggish kidneys, and as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are the most prompt and thorough cure for this derangement they have come to be considered a family necessity. Hosts of families would not think of being without them.

in St. John last night in charge of two prisoners, whom he is taking to Dorchester, where they will spend two years for breaking into the C. P. R. station at Florenceville a short time ago. They were arrested on Saturday last by Sheriff Foster, and received custody at the hands of Magistrate Dibble. Their names are Bards Darnford and Wm. Hopkins. Sheriff Foster lodged his prisoners in the central police station last night and will proceed today.

SILLY DOUKHOBERS
Will Starve or Freeze By Thousands
This Year,
Unless Dominion Government Takes Prompt Steps to Bring Them to Their Right Senses.

(Special to Montreal Star.)
WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 4.—Fully 4,000 Doukhobors, who settled in the Yorkton district, N. W. T., will starve or freeze to death or be on the verge of starvation this year, if the Dominion government does not take active steps to prevent their present religious mania from coming further.

This statement was made to the Star correspondent, who has personally investigated the intense mania of the Doukhobors, by a man, who is prominent in all the leading engagements in the Yorkton district.

The Star correspondent travelled through a wide area settled by the Doukhobors. He found it a religious mania, the like of which has perhaps never been seen in this country, and he found the people and their thoughts completely oblivious to the severe winter ahead of them.

The Doukhobors were living idle, although as a rule they had good harvests; and their winter food was running at large through them, and they say they will wear no other.

"NEW LIGHT FROM GOD."
One of their interpreters whom the Star correspondent spoke to said: "We had been offered money for our cattle, but we will not sell. They belong to God, not to us." Since money and other things are not to be sold, new light. Any work we will have to do he will help us. The lower animals are our servants, and we will not use them or use any product from them."

"Do not fear the winter coming on," he was asked.
"No," was the reply. "God will provide for us."

CLAD IN LIGHT COTTON.
Nearly every one of the Doukhobors seen by the Star correspondent wore light cotton garments. They would afford no protection from an October breeze, to say nothing of a severe winter blast; and they say they will wear no other. In many of the houses visited a bag of flour was the only food visible.
The Doukhobors will eat a few vegetables; but in few instances had they even brought them into their homes. Men, originally strong, were gaunt, hungry wrecks; and I was informed that on a recent trip into Yorkton, for four or five days, men, harnessed like mules to a heavy wagon, almost fell by the roadside from exhaustion and starvation.

WOMEN AS BEASTS OF BURDEN.
The women, so far, have escaped any of the work that must fall on the men since they have declined the use of animals; but, if this year's crop is to be harvested, they will soon have to harness themselves up to the heavy wagons as the men do. I found that they have made absolutely no provision for the future, and what is possibly worse, the religious mania that possesses them is becoming more intense and is spreading.

THE PERILS OF WINTER.
The attempt by the Dominion government to help these people has apparently had no effect. How it will end will probably be told when the intense cold of this winter sets in.

Responsible men in that district interviewed by the Star correspondent said that if the mania does not abate before October handsets will be more physical wrecks before January, on account of lack of clothing and little food.

Some Doukhobor immigration authorities here refuse to discuss the situation, although they confess it is very serious.

She—What was the happiest moment of your life? He—Well, I think it was one evening last week when I entered the drawing-room at my boarding-house and saw a strange notice on the

He—Closed for repairs.
