Getealed.

There were several large dinners last week the largest being at government house on Thursday evening; it was the first of the usual sessional din-eve ning; it was the first of the usual sessional din-mora; it was a vezy cheerful party composed en-tirely of jenh mu. There was another dinner by a well knewn hostess at which covers were laid for sixtees guests; the table decorations were remark-ably pretty, even in these days of pretty tables. Mars. Longely gave a large and pleasant ten at her pretty house on Brenton street on Friday after-moon. Everything was, as usual, delightfully ar-ranged and carried out, and people set med to enjoy themselves most thoroughly. There were of course all manner of pretty gowns to be seen, the hostes locking charming in a very pretty and well imag. ined frock.

I hear that there is a large contingent of Halifax youth and beauty going up to Quebec for the caraival there, at d also that several Halifax ladies are going to Ottawa and wil be at the grand fancy dress ball at Rideau hall. They will not, of course be obliged to be in any of the "groups" managed by various ladies, but can go arrayed after the fashion of any period of Canadian hittery which picases them, and I hear that the dress of one Halifax lady is quite levely and most of it realiy old and not is quite levely and most of it really old and no nevely new stiff made up in an ancient fas
