AUSTRIANS HAD TOTAL OF ABOUT MILLION MEN

BELLOC SAYS THE AUSTRIANS COULD HAVE RETIRED EASILY

Much Depended Upon Condition of Enemy's Bridges—About Seventy Thousand Austrians Crossed Piave in Forward Thrust, So That a Vast Army Still Remains Intact.

Special Cable to New York Tribune and St. John Standard.

(By Hilaire Belloc.)

London, June 25.—The military news today is so simple in its importance that it defies analysis and we can only wait further details to appreciate the result. The allied aircraft have observed the retirement of the Austrian columns over the temporary bridges on the Piave. This retirement included the abandonment of Montello. The central crossings between those two points are of less importance and their abandonment follows as a matter of course. While awaiting further details we may note the following points which I will explain when the news reaches us later.

The total of the Austrian forces actively engaged in the efforts which now have broken down, and of these again, about 70,000 are estimated by our allies to have crossed the Piave between and including the Montello and St.
Dona bridges.

The Congestion.

The congestion of the retreat will depend materially upon the provision of bridges. 70,000 men is, roughly for the distance involved, counting all the bends of the river, a man to a yard.
There has been no heavy artillery reported on the west bank, though it is just possible that there are some pieces over at St. Dona. There should not therefore be anything especially difficult in the retiring of such a force, always provided that the number of bridges is sufficient.

It has gone nowhere far from the stream, save in front of the bridges at St. Dona, where the maximum advance was rather over 7,000 yards. Still more important than the confession of military failure is its political effect, considering the present state of the civilian population in Austria-Hungary.

But of that, unfortunately, we cannot have direct news.

It will probably be found that the events which precipitated the retirement was the success of our allies in crossing the Piave below the bridge which the enemy established west of St. Dona. It will be remembered that a combined force of Italian soldiers and sailors seized positions east of the river near its mouth as early as last Friday and the threat of a further advance eastward of such a force may have been sufficient to compel the Austrian retirement at the only point where they seriously threatened to turn the Italian line.

The Unknown Individual Evidently Well Possessed of This World's Goods.

New York, June 25.—Some one made a federal income tax payment of $14,000,000 here today, the last day of payment of the taxes before a five per cent penalty is imposed. Collector Edwards announced the receipt of such sum from an individual but declined to disclose his identity. He is obviously one of the richest men in the United States.

TERRIFIC TEMPEST

San Salvador, June 25.—Great damage has been caused in Zacatecoatlaca and San Vicente by a tempest.
Many houses were razed and a large area of the country at the foot of San Vicente volcano were devastated by bodies of people caught in the mudslide had been swept down the Lempa river.

Whitmore Porter was killed in an auto accident at Andover this afternoon. The car was driven by a 12 year old boy, and coiffed Mr. Porter and two ladies. As it drew near the river bank the wheels skidded and as the lad was too small to put on the brakes, the car and occupants went over the bank. Mr. Porter was killed, the lad broke his arms, but the women were but slightly injured.

LIZZIE RIDES ROOF

Family Alarmed When Auto Tries Airplane Stunt and Rides Down Roof—No One Hurt.

Bellevue Falls, Vt., June 25.—The only automobile accident of the kind that ever happened occurred here.
Clarence Bodine, 20 year old son of W. H. Bodine was driving a small "Tin Lizzie" at night on a street where the roadway is higher than the houses on a parallel street below. He was steering with one hand, adjusting the wind shield with the other when he lost control. The car crashed through the railing and landed on the roof of L. F. Taylor's house. It tore up some of the shingles, broke a portion of the eaves, slid down the clapboards and landed on the ground top-side up, with Bodine still sitting at the steering wheel. It dropped 30 feet.
Bodine was not hurt.
The Taylor family when they heard the tremendous commotion on the roof thought Lucifer was coming.

Report of Submarine Seen in Bay of Fundy, But There Seems To Be Little Basis For Story.

Lubec, Me., June 25.—The sighting of a submarine two miles southeast of Quoddyhead was reported here by U. D. Wilcox and Percy Monroe, of South Lubec. They stated that she was about a hundred feet long and was cruising slowly westward. After three minutes the craft submerged.
An officer from the Machias naval station arrived to investigate the report.

Eastport, Me., June 24.—A report as circulated here that the periscope of a submarine had been seen during the day in the Bay of Fundy a few miles off West Quoddy Head at South Lubec. Two men, U. D. Wilcox and Percy Monroe, of Lubec, were credited with having seen the strange object and watched it submerge. A correspondent telephoned the government coastguard station at West Quoddy Head and was informed that they had not seen the periscope or anything unusual, but had heard the report from men at Lubec.

There was no sign of life aboard and further inquiry established that the schooner had been abandoned.

Special to The Standard.

Moncton, June 25.—The Ocean Limited from Montreal this afternoon was nine or ten hours late in reaching Moncton on account of a freight wreck at St. Pacome, Quebec, in which fireman J. B. Darbous, of Fraserville, Que., was killed. The accident was due to a fast freight from Montreal running into an open switch and colliding with the rear of a train in the siding.

The engine of the fast freight turned over in the ditch and eight cars of the freight were badly smashed up.
The accident occurred about one o'clock this morning.

HARD TO KEEP THE TEACHERS IN N. B.

Many Resign Positions in Chatham, Woodstock and Elsewhere — Something Wrong.

Special to The Standard.

Chatham, June 25.—At the meeting of the school board last evening five of the Grammar School teachers resigned. They are Mr. Manser, Manual Training; Misses Tessie Gallivan, Lilian Filieger, Anna Hilderbrand and Vera Wilson, Domestic Science.

Two of the young ladies are going west to teach. Manser has been called to the colors and is only completing the term. The board regrets the resignations of the young ladies and would like very much to retain their services.

Many of the school teachers in Woodstock have also resigned their positions, and there have been numerous resignations elsewhere.

THE FAMOUS GLOVER
CASE IS RECALLED

Litigation Over Property of Murdered Waltham Laundryman Before Court.

Boston, June 25.—The old Glover murder case, which stirred the State a few years ago, is again in the limelight.

Clarence F. Glover, manager of the Waltham Laundry Company, was fatally shot as he was leaving the laundry on the night of November 20, 1909, and ever since that time the title of the laundry has been in dispute.
The former wife of Glover, Lillian M.
Glover, now Delamare—formerly Miss Le Blanc of Arichat, C. B., claims that the business was purchased with her money, while on the other hand the heirs of Glover contend that the property belonged to him and that they are entitled to the money realized from it.

The case was sent to a master to find the facts and both sides object to certain portions of his report. The matter came before Judge De Courcy of the Supreme Court on motion of counsel for Mrs. Delamare that the report be recommended to the master for revision. After argument the judge reserved his decision.

THE DILLONITE
PARTY DYING

Such Is View of Belfast—Sinn Fein Victory in East Cavan Blow To Nationalists.

Toronto, June 25.—The Belfast correspondent of the Evening Telegram cables today: "Opinion generally in Ireland is that the Dillonite party has practically ceased to exist. At Tralee the Sinn Feiners, despite police warning, insisted on celebrating the East Cavan victory. A crowd stormed the police who, after many had been hurt, cleared the streets after repeated charges. Practically every town and village in the south and west celebrated.

The Dublin Constabulary raided a grain store in Smith Field Market, Dublin, and seized 40,000 rounds of ammunition, which were concealed in 122 corn sacks, representing part of a consignment said to have been run into a remote port a few days ago.
No attempt was made to interfere with the seizure. At Limerick Bishop Fogarty denounced conscription as a most oppressive form of slavery and most dangerous to the Catholic Church.
Father O'Flanagan, of Sligo, yesterday said Irishmen must elect men who understood the Irish question.
John Dillon, Lloyd George and their successors would probably settle it in 2,000 years.

Cocoon Oil Fine
For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.
Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain unsalted cocoon oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.
Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoon-fuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silkly, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.
You can get unsalted cocoon oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.
