McTigue Fights Jack Bloomfield

Bout Takes Place in Mount Royal Arena, Montreal, November 11.

Montreal, Nov. 4.—Mike McTigue has returned to Montreal to train for his return bout with Jack Bloomfield at Mount Royal Arena on Thursday night, November 11.

Bloomfield will not reach Montreal until the day previous to the bout. He will hold the opinion that he had the better of McTigue and will try to make his victory more decisive this time, according to a letter from his manager.

There was a marked division of opinion as to the winner of the last bout and both men will have a good following in this meeting.

ACTRESS IS PAID FOR DOING NOTHING

(By London Daily Mail and Cross-Atlantic Newspaper Service.)

London, Nov. 4.—There is a London actress who has had a salary for four years and nothing to do for it. In 1916 Miss Marianne Caldwell was engaged "for the run of the piece" for "Chu Chin Chow" at His Majesty's Theatre. Before this piece was pro-

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 4.—The schooner Esperanto, Capt. "Marty" Welch, winner of the international fishing schooner races, left here this morning at eight-thirty for Gloucester. As the Esperanto left the harbor tags and streamers blew "bon voyage."

Mayor John S. Parker, of Halifax, was invited to be present at the banquet which is to be given in the captain and crew of the Esperanto at Gloucester, but said today that pressure of business would prevent him from attending it. He has received a letter from R. Russell Smith, representing the owners of the Esperanto thanking the citizens of Halifax for their kindness to the crew of the Esperanto.

Basketball Is Booming

Basket ball is booming at the Y. M. C. I. Two teams are to be entered in the City Basketball League, a senior and an intermediate. A number of boys are working hard to make the team and the prospects of a good season's sport are very bright.

All the gym classes are proving more popular than ever. The attendance in the ladies' class as well as in the boys' and men's classes is steadily increasing and much enthusiasm prevails in all departments.

It was found that Miss Caldwell need not be called upon for the part she had rehearsed and her services have never been required since. Every week a check for her salary is sent her, and in acknowledging the receipt of it she says where she may be found if wanted in a hurry. The outstanding feature of the part for which she was cast, is an "infectious" laugh.

Y. M. C. I. School Boys On A Run

Over One Hundred Took Part Yesterday—Two Sections Made Good Showing.

Over a hundred of the Y. M. C. I. school boys took part in a run yesterday afternoon under the direction of Ernie Stirling, the physical instructor, and Mr. Nixon, the Boys' Secretary.

Mr. Nixon's party took a course that led them through Cliff and Garden streets, Paradise Row, Mill, Union and Charlotte streets, ending up at Scribner's Corner, on King Square. Mr. Stirling's boys went down Waterloo, through Edin and St. Patrick's streets, up King street East and also stopped at Scribner's Corner. After the two parties united they ran back to the "Y."

There is no doubt but that a squad of good runners will be developed at the Y. M. C. I. The material is good, and the new instructor is noted as one of the best runners in the Maritime Provinces.

STAGE FRENCHMAN ABOLISHED BY WAR

Exit the stage Frenchman.

"That will be one of the inevitable effects of the world war," says the editor of Fiske O'Hara, the popular actor-singer, now on tour in his latest success, "Springtime in Mayo."

"In the face of what the once fastidious and elegant boulevardier did in the trenches," he says, "I think we have seen the last of the comic Gallic character on the stage. The stage Frenchman has always been a libel on his nation and sex, just as has been the stage Irishman, but with this distinction, we have never really believed the libel on the Irishman, but we have not only believed the worst about the Frenchman, but have compounded the felony by attributing to him all manner of vices of which he never dreamed."

"Thanks to our acquaintance with the Celt, we know that the stage Irishman is just a stage Irishman. Regarding the stage Frenchman, however, we do not all have the advantage of knowing the type caricatured. The point I want to make is that when French playwrights begin to dramatize the heroism of the Puritan bon vivant and fustianard—then the funny Frenchman of theatrical tradition will have lost his 'punch' for the audience. Will you know that this elegant, volatile Frenchman may be fastidious as to his person, a stickler for the elegance of conversation and toilet, that he may even squirt a little can de Cologne upon his coat lapel, and yet be a molly-coddle, that he fought like hell in the trenches and that he died there by the hundreds of thousands."

Business Boys Form League

Schedule in Y.M.C.A. Drawn up—First Game Tuesday—Teams and Schedule.

At a meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Business Men's Volleyball League, yesterday afternoon, it was decided to adopt the international rules governing the game. In the future the net will be stretched across the "gym" instead of lengthways as at present. While the change will make a considerable difference to the local players, it will enable them to meet other teams to advantage and at their own style of playing.

The league numbers forty members, and the vim displayed in their weekly games might well be envied by the younger members of the association.

Mount Allison Lost To St. Dunstons

Moncton, N. B., Nov. 4.—In a rather poor game, St. Dunstons' University football team, of Charlottetown, defeated the Mount Allison team at Sackville this afternoon, the score being 5 to 3. The game was for Western League honors. It was Mount Allison's first defeat of the season.

CANADIAN VETERANS HAVE A GRIEVANCE

Warrant Officers and Non-Coms Who Enlisted With Imperials for Russia, Sore.

By FRANK TEWSON.

(Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic.)

London, Nov. 4.—Canadian warrant officers and non-coms who volunteered for service in Russia have voiced a grievance against the British War Office, which they say has behaved very ungenerously towards them. These men missed repatriation in order to undertake special service for which they were qualified in Russia at the end of last year.

The men, it is said, were re-enlisted and sent to Russia in their respective ranks, and performed the duties of those ranks, but for the technical reason which seems mainly to be based on the idea of shielding a very prominent officer from reproach for acting without adequate authority in taking them with him) the War Office now contends that they went out as private and that instead of being indebted to them to the extent of some hundreds of pounds, they are really in debt to the War Department.

As one of two of the men hold rank in the Canadian Northwest Police as sergeant-majors, and are liable to be questioned as to the reasons for their being deprived of that rank over here, the War Office procedure is complained of as very unfair.

Soldiers will be received up to noon on November 15, for an issue of $5,000,000 Province of Ontario 7 year 6 per cent. bond dated November 15, 1920, and due November 15, 1927. Interest will be paid semi-annually in Toronto, Montreal and New York in gold coin. The bonds are $1,000 denominations.

UNITED STATES AND JAPAN MAY HAVE NEW TREATY

Both Governments Anxious to Avoid Trouble Over California Affair.

JAP RIGHTS WILL BE LOOKED AFTER

Japanese Press Notified Not to Print Defiant Articles About State Action.

(Copyright 1920 by Public Ledger)

Washington, Nov. 4.—An open message to both California and Japan was dispatched today by the state department. The only official and most significant utterance made by officials of this government since the negotiations between the United States and Japan over the California land and laws and Japan's sphere of influence in the far west have been in progress how the plain interpretation to both the Pacific Coast state and the Tokio foreign office that this government stood ready to consider a new treaty, protecting the rights of Japanese nationals already lawfully residents of the United States.

The statement made by Norman H. Davis, under-secretary of state, taken in conjunction with advice received today from Japan reporting a police censorship on defiant articles, is an indication of a desire on the part of both governments to minimize the reaction which is certain to follow the passage of California's extension of the alien exclusion laws.

Japan To Restrict Immigration.

Japanese officials have intimated that Japan stands ready to give assurances that Japanese immigration to the United States will be restricted under the absolute terms of the "Gentlemen's Agreement," and that the negotiations are proceeding with this understanding. The United States on its part having been asked to conclude a new treaty with Japan which will assure to Japanese nationals lawfully in this country equal rights, with the nationals of any other foreign country in the United States.

The proposed new treaty has not been drafted, and it is expected that the drawing up of its exact provisions may be delayed until after the adjournment of the international communications conference in session here which Ambassador Shidehara is attending as a Japanese representative.

Text of Note

The text of Mr. Davis' statement follows:

"The movement in California to restrict the state laws affecting alien land tenure has been receiving since its inception, the close and interested attention of the department of state. The relation of certain treaty provisions to the proposed measure is being discussed clearly and fully in California and will doubtless prove an element in the state's decision as to the adoption or rejection of the proposed measure. In the meantime the department has had numerous discussions of the most friendly and candid nature, with the ambassador of Japan and it is believed he thoroughly realizes as we have sought to make clear, that no outcome of the California movement will be acceptable to the country at large that does not accord with existing and applicable provisions of law and what is equally important, with the national instinct of justice."

Writing For The Cinema And Stage

John Masfield Discusses Reasons Why There Are Not More Successful Plays.

John Masfield, perhaps the greatest living English poet, has given out some interesting views on the present state of the British drama, which is alleged to be suffering from a paucity of sound playwrights and new ideas. Personally, I never knew a time when the same complaint was not just as rife. It is declared that producers cannot get the kind of plays they want, and that the movies are monopolizing all the talent for their scenarios. Any way, this is what Mr. Masfield says.

"The suggestion that the playwright in this country may have found a new outlet for his talent in writing for the cinema is, I fancy, hardly a satisfactory answer. As far as I am aware, playwrights prefer to continue writing for the theatre.

"Nor can I imagine that one way of accounting for this odd fact is that our soldiers, having seen so much of foreign parts during the war, have developed a taste for plays centred in other countries than their own. One result of the war, I think, has been to make people more national in their spirit, heartily disgusted, in fact, with foreign parts."

"The suggestion has been made that the cinema may have trained the public to look for a certain type of production, and that this the British playwright does not produce, vast numbers of reels being produced in America. Even to this suggestion, however, I must take exception. The people who patronize the pictures and those who find their principal pleasure in the theatre are more or less distinct bodies. This being the case, I fail to see how it can be contended that the films have produced any marked effect on the minds of the regular playgoer."

"If we actually know what it was which constituted a successful play we would possibly come nearer a solution of the problem; but this we do not know.

"Perhaps there would be more British playwrights if there were fewer British novelists. It is possible that many authors cling to novel writing who might achieve splendid results if they turned to the drama. To write for the theatre, however, it is necessary to have a working knowledge of the theatre. Everybody knows that the great playwrights have almost all been associated with the stage. Shakespeare, Ben Jonson, Sheridan, Beaumont, and countless others."

Due to expanding revenues, Canada's national debt has been reduced. At the end of September the net debt stood at $2,378,516,163 no credit being taken for non-active assets. At the end of October, the debt was reduced to $2,373,516,160.

It will be acceptable to the country at large that does not accord with existing and applicable provisions of law and what is equally important, with the national instinct of justice."

The police warning which has been issued to the Japanese press reads: "Recently there has been a tendency in the press in consideration of the American question to indulge in defiant utterances and to insert fabrications. As it is feared that this may have undesirable results upon our foreign relations, you are requested to be careful about inserting such items in the future."
