

FROM ALL OVER NEW BRUNSWICK

ST. ANDREWS.

St. Andrews, April 26—Easter Sunday was observed in the different churches with special music and floral decorations. At All Saints church the chancel presented a very pleasing appearance, being decked with many beautiful potted plants and palms. The music was especially fine, particularly the anthem, Why Seek Ye the Living Among the Dead? and the Te Deum by Simpson. Mr. Henry Town, of Trinity church choir, St. John, assisted. In the evening Rev. R. J. Congdon preached an eloquent discourse, taking for his text the words of the anthem. The Easter offering amounted to about $100. In the Methodist church the special music by the choir was finely rendered. In the anthem special mention might be made of the solo parts taken by Miss F. Hibbard and Miss Town.
