

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

This week's numerous gaieties have proved exclusively that society is in the city again and that the season has begun. At present informal festivities are holding first place, but it is realized that these are merely in preparation for the formal entertainments that will follow later on. Also hostesses are engaged in making arrangements for the winter club work which almost every social entertainer is interested in, a work which while it is not as conspicuous as her social duties, entails much time and exercise of forethought.

On Friday evening of last week, at her residence in Germain street, Mrs. James Harding entertained at a ladies' bridge of eight tables for her young guests, Miss Dowdell, of Halifax. The occasion was one greatly enjoyed by those present. The prize winners were Mrs. T. Scott Ryder, Miss Nora Robinson, Mr. Harold Schofield, Mr. P. Fraser.
