REMARKS, ETC.

1st.—A Report, by the Head Master, of the Pupils severally, with regard to proficiency in their studies and their general conduct, will be transmitted to their Parents or Guardians at the end of each term.

2nd.—A School Library is provided for the use of the pupils free of charge, and is furnished with such interesting works as are suitable and profitable for a boy's reading.

3rd.—Boys are allowed unrestricted liberty in corresponding with their parents and friends. If letters are sent home badly written or carelessly spelled, the evil might be checked if any glaring examples were forwarded to the Head Master.

4th.—Parents are earnestly requested not to furnish their sons with a large supply of pocket-money, as this practice tends to foster extravagance. Parents would do well to authorise the Treasurer to give a fixed sum for pocket money every week, on a scale graduated to a boy's position in school, with power to increase it in cases of industry and good conduct.
