

A New Canadian Story.

"Bright, Original, Witty."

CLIPPED WINGS

By one of our own White Ribboners—LOTTIE McALLISTER.

What
the Reviews
Say!!

Onward

It is a tremendous indictment of the liquor traffic, and, sets forth the mission and power of woman to enoble and bless society. . . . Some of the character sketching is as strong as anything we know.

Montreal Witness

The arguments for woman's suffrage which form a part of the motive of the story are well presented. Canadian farmers who treat their wives and daughters with thoughtless unkindness have their doings here brought to light.

Mrs. Jean Blewett, Author of "Heart Songs."

It is a human story—a natural wholesome picture of the every-day life of people whom we seem to know. I like it much.

Chicago Christian Endeavor World

Clever sketches of country life in Canada, with touches of tragic pathos. A heartsome, wholesome temperance book.

Galt Reporter

It treats uniquely in its 186 pages of several questions before Anglo-Saxon countries for years. . . . Written with wit, strength, vivacity and literary skill.

Toronto Mail and Empire

Witty and clever. Gives a fair insight into the difficulties and achievements of womanhood. . . . The book is strong in many ways.

Paper, 40 cents; Cloth, 60 cents, post paid.

FOR SALE BY EVERY BOOKSELLER.

We trust Ontario White Ribboners will all avail themselves of the privilege of reading this book. Procure one for your home. A most suitable gift for your growing daughter and son.