LA BANQUE DU PEUPLE.

ANNUAL MEETING.

At three o'clock yesterday afternoon, the annual general meeting of La Banque du Peuple was held in the bank building, St. James street.

There was a large attendance of stockholders, amongst them, Messrs. A. M. Delisle, C. W. Schneider, A. Prevost, R. Wood, C. R. Geoffrion, L. Armstrong, Samuel Moss, Adams, W. Ross, Jean Leclaire, W. Francis, James Halden, James Croil, Rev. Dr. Wilkes, Brousseau, Bond, G. R. Fabre, and several others.

Mr. TROTTER, Cashier of the Bank, informed the meeting that the President, Mr. John Pratt, was sick and unable to be present.

Mr. SAMUEL MOSS suggested that Mr. Delisle take the chair.

Mr. DELISLE—I would be most happy to do so, but I have another meeting to attend to at half-past three.

SEVERAL STOCKHOLDERS—It will be very short. Mr. DELISLE (to Rev. Dr. Wilkes)—Won't you take the chair?

Rev. Dr. WILKES—I, too, have another meeting to attend.

Mr. DELISLE was unanimously voted to the chair.

Mr. TROTTER remarked that the first duty of the meeting was to read the Bank Statement.

Mr. DELISLE—I wish to explain that I take the chair in the absence of Mr. Pratt, the President of the Bank, and that I am as unacquainted with what is going to be placed before us as you yourselves, and therefore you will understand why I am not able to speak to the documents going to be submitted to you. But of course, as some one has to fill the chair, I am willing to take it, provided you get through your business as quick as possible.

Mr. TROTTER read the following:—
