

Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine ; and which, by Six Acts made in the Twentieth, Twenty-third, Twenty-eighth, Thirty-third, Thirty-eighth, and Forty-second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, was further continued until the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and eight, shall be and the same is hereby made perpetual.

4 G. 3. c. 19.
for importing
Salt into Quebec, made perpetual.

II. And be it further enacted, That an Act made in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for importing Salt from Europe into the Province of Quebec in America, for a limited Time, which was to continue in force from the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and sixty-four, for the Term of One Year, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament ; and which by several subsequent Acts was further continued until the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and eight, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, shall be and the same is hereby made perpetual.

6 G. 3. c. 28.
so far as prohibits the Importation of Foreign
Wrought
Silks and Vel-
vets, made perpetual.

III. And whereas an Act was made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act to prohibit the Importation of Foreign wrought Silks and Velvets for a limited Time, and for preventing unlawful Combinations of Workmen employed in the Silk Manufacture, which was to continue in force for the Term of Five Years from the Fourteenth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and sixty-six, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament ; and which by several subsequent Acts made in the Eleventh and Seventeenth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty was further continued until the Fourteenth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament ; and which Acts, so far as relate to the prohibiting the Importation of Foreign-wrought Silks and Velvets, was, by three Acts made in the Twenty-second, Twenty-ninth, and Thirty-fifth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, further continued until the Fourteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament ; and amended and further continued by an Act of the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, until the Fourteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and eight, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament : And whereas the said Act, so far as relates to the prohibiting the Importation of Foreign-wrought Silks and Velvets, hath been found useful and beneficial, and it is expedient that the same should be made perpetual ; be it therefore enacted, That the said Act, so far as relates to the prohibiting the Importation of Foreign-wrought Silks and Velvets, shall (except so far as the same is repugnant to an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to repeal the Duties of Customs payable in Great Britain, and to grant other Duties in lieu thereof), be, and the same is hereby made perpetual.
