SPEECH ANXIETY WORKSHOPS

Do you become anxious when you have to address an audience, dread having to give a class talk or seminar, avoid asking questions during class because it makes you tense? Do you become confused, stumble over words, perspire, tremble or feel your heart race in these situations?

The SPEECH ANXIETY WORKSHOPS are designed to help you reduce your anxiety when speaking in public. These workshops will be offered during the winter term as part of a project being conducted by a graduate student in Clinical Psychology at U.N.B. on this occasion, only a limited number of people will be able to participate. If you are interested and would like more information on these workshops, please phone the Psychology department at UNB at any one of these following numbers during office hours:

453-4708 453-4709

Please leave your name and number for the attention of Gary Fecteau OR you may contact Gary Fecteau in Keirstead Hall, room 16X.
