

3201
for the Atlantic Monthly and lived much in the Orient. I hope I have got his representative colonies correctly as so far I have had most of my talks interpreted with dinner in Newport Miss, but you may be able to get the idea. He is rather young and puts in a personal appeal. He is now giving a course of six lectures in Boston. It just occurred to me to mention it showing the advantage of having "attractions" in residence - so please don't consider that my feelings

W. L. Mackenzie King Papers

Volume 3