that one day in December on January, just past, I had occasion to visit the court life fully on some business and I met Walter Hayden, Hayden counsel in that case against you, and trusted him about all the most ill-advised laws suits and injuries. Heburn and Koch had started some assessing office, with no results except injury to themselves and their government.

I referred particularly to the action just then disposed of against you and magazine, and he
