

- with the English, 216; treaties with, in N. S., 164, 176; treatment of, 27, 146; unsuccessful campaigns against, 224; warfare against the Five Nations, 236; wretched condition of, and suggestions for their relief, N. B., 191. See also liquor traffic.
- Inglis, bishop Charles, account of the state of religion in his diocese, 178; appointment as bishop, 104; charge to the clergy, 181; papers of, 6; proposals respecting new prayers, 109.
- Insane, provisions for, 219, 251. See also asylums.
- Insolvency, legal points in connection with cases of, 244.
- Instructions, to various governors, 7.
- Insurance, acts to establish mutual companies, 26, 50.
- Intemperance, memorials against, 16, 134.
- Intendants, ordinances of, 6; powers of, 213.
- Internal navigation, 40, 44, 64, 105, 121, 123, 125, 126, 130, 140, 142, 143, 147, 148, 150, 152, 154, 159, 160; improvement of, 22, 25, 65, 120, 122, 137; laws affecting, 149; regulation of, B. C., 61; reports on, 31, 106, 118.
- Ireland, emigration to Canada, 28, 125.
- Irish, designs of, 37.
- Iron castings, duty on, 32.
- Iron mines, 219, 221, 223, 224, 225, 232, 233, 251, 252.
- Iron works in Canada, production of, 252.
- Iroquois, 215, 227, 257; correspondence of the French with Gov. Bellomont respecting, 228; councils with the French, 251; Denonville's campaigns against, 228, 249, 250; English negotiations with, 236; hostilities against the English, 236; make peace with the French, 229, 251; means taken by the French to secure their aid, 236; memorial on rights of the French over, 214; missions among, 241; of Sault St. Louis, their claims, 13; proposals for an alliance of French and English against, 238; relations with the French, 215, 216, 217, 227, 228, 231, 236, 259, 262; rights of the French over, 250, 259; a settlement proposed for, 235; warfare with the French, 212, 213, 214, 228, 231, 250, 263.
- Irving, Paulus, correspondence with the Colonial Office, 101.
- Isinglass, manufacture of, 252.
- Jackson, John, political actions of, 145.
- Jackson, Sir Richard, correspondence with the British minister at Washington, 42; correspondence with the Colonial Office, 19, 29, 63, 139, 141; correspondence with Sydenham, 45; letters of, 87.
- Jacobinism, 43, 75, 194; activities of sympathizers in the U. S., 109; rumours of, 20.
- Jail Act, 115.
- Jamaica, plan to secure labourers for, 35.
- Jay, John, negotiations at London, 109.
- Jay's treaty, 109, 142, 179; Dorchester's remarks on, 110; execution of, 110; explanatory article to, 20.
- Jersey, island of, French Protestants in, 168; proposed emigration from, 110.
- Jesuits, 101; charges against, 229, 246, 254; declaration of land possessed by them in New France, 1663, 255; disputes with the Mm. des Missions Etrangères, 215; grants to, 241; land held by, 246; lands held in Canada in 1667, 241; missions of, 216; petition for a Jesuit college at Montreal, 231; political and religious activities of, 212; state of, 101, 104.
- Jesuit estates, 112, 124, 129; accounts of, 130; administration of, 126; Amherst's claims to, 112, 113; employment of revenue, 116; management of, 125; papers relating to, 106; proceeding of commissioners, 114; proposed grant to Amherst, 104; report on, 127; revenues of, 128.
- Jews, civil disabilities of, 14, 131; legislation for the relief of, 13, 128, 129.
- Johnson, Col. Guy, accounts of, 103; correspondence with the Colonial Office, 103; correspondence with Haldimand, 205.
- Johnson, Sir John, commissions and instructions to, 205; correspondence with Haldimand, 205; journey to the upper country, 111; success of troops under, 103.
- Johnson, Sir William, correspondence with Haldimand, 200.
- Johnstone, Col., correspondence with the Colonial Office, 189.
- Joseph, brig, alleged plunder of, 12.
- Joncaire, 215; expedition to Sonnotouan, 230; influence among the Indians, 247.
- Judges, attitude of the Assembly of L. C. toward, 130; commissions of, 13; decree on establishment of, 227; presence of in the executive and legislative councils, 13; reasons for disallowing a bill to secure their independence, 14.
- Judicial matters (in French Canada): 230, 231; difficulty in inducing persons of good family to study law, 224; encouragement for the young men of New France to enter the legal profession, 223; list of officers and others engaged in the administration of justice, 237, 238; search of religious houses for criminals, 232; (in Lower Canada): 115, 118, 119, 120, 127, 200, 202; abolishment of the offices of chairmen of quarter sessions at Quebec, 129; amendment of the judicature acts, 38; behaviour of the magistrates, 135; change in the judicial system, 140; judicial appointments, 15, 64; jurisdiction of magistrates, 39; memorial asking that judicial commissions might be held during good behaviour, 124; plans for a new code of laws, 138; remarks on an act respecting qualifications and summons of jurors, 14; salaries of judicial officers, 10, 13, 16, 114, 125, 128, 129, 133; summoning of jurors, 131; tenure of judicial offices, 13; (in New Brunswick): need of a court having competent authority to try offences committed at sea; judicial salaries, 189, 191; (in Nova Scotia): 163, 173, 174, 175; crown records of the general court of N. S., 169;