GLADNESS OF HEART

By S. JEAN WALKER

I will be glad and look beyond life's mists,
To sun-kissed heights where freshening breezes blow,
Earth still has joys and hopes I fain would keep
All God's love would bestow.

I will be glad, yet think not that I bear
No burden sore o'er life's oft dreary track.
Think not there are no blinding tears to fall
Because I keep them back.

I will be glad, life's dark clouds always pass,
And when the sun-lit azure skies are clear,
One cheerful, hopeful day will balance cast
Against a weary year.

I will be glad and grateful all my days,
Nor e'er bemoan life's ill nor fret nor pine,
But forward go in hope and trust nor be afraid,
A glad some heart be mine.
