

Canada has her G. O. M. as well as England—Great O. Mowat.

Four pillars (not feather)—Gladstone, Bismark, Blake and THE OLIO.

A bright lad who saw a white crow said:—
"Oh see the crow with its night gown on."

The new presses for the OLIO office went down with the Oregon, as also did a three years' subscription from the Shah of Persia.

It has been ascertained that there was a mistake in the late Mr. Vanderbilt's will. Thus the reason of our not coming into our anticipated fortune.

Town Councillor—"Town lively, eh?"
Ratepayer—"You bet!" T. C., "Anything happened?" R. P., "Yes. THE OLIO has broken its halter and is scattering around like a bald-headed organ grinder."

THE OLIO man was heard to remark that the reason he wasn't clever was because he had lent his brains to Gladstone who had forgotten to return them. We also believe that the classical man lent his to Bob Burdette; hence the reason of his writings being so long and dry.

A fair Whitby girl daubed a plaque
With paint that was crimson and blackque,
And put its remains in a sacque,
Which she carelessly flung o'er her bacque;
She then carefully stepped on a tacque,
And came to the ground with a whacque;
But a dude who sat on a racque,
Whom she knew as "Darling old Jacque,"
In his gallantry then did not lacque,
But picked her up with a smacque,
That would show how perfectly slacque
Were the brains in a dudish young quacque.
