MY LESSON STORY THIS WEEK.

NCE upon a time there was a little boy called Tommy. Tommy had a loving mother ; but I am sorry to say that Tommy had a very bad temper. He was sorry that he had such a temper, and felt that he would like to get rid of it, so one day he got out of bed saying to himself : " Now, Tommy you are going to try very hard to be a good boy to-day." He ran down stairs and when he saw that his little sister had broken his engine, he tried, oh ! so hard, not to be angry, but his temper was too strong, and in a moment the cross words were out, and he made his sister cry. For the rest of that day he kept on trying, and trying to be good, but he always failed. and at last he went to his little room, fell down by his bedside, and said, " Dear Jesus I have tried to be a good boy all day, but I am not a bit strong, I am very weak. I have been so very naughty, dear Jesus, won't you take away my bad temper and put your Holy Spirit of Love in my heart to make me strong?" Tommy then went out of doors, and when his sister teased him, he didn't answer crossly, but spoke kindly to her, all because he was trusting Jesus to keep him kind and sweet, and he found that day after day as he trusted, that the Holy Spirit of Love made him strong, and it was easy for him to be loving and gentle.
