BUSINESS.

What is a "business man's chief responsibility in life?" Robert Louis Stevenson spoke a searching word when he said: Perpetual devotion to what a man calls his business is only to be sustained by perpetual neglect of many other things. And it is not by any means certain that a man's business is the most important thing he has to do."

or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this company; (n) To sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the undertaking or assets of the company for such consideration as the company may deem fit, including shares debentures and other securities of any other corporation having objects similar wholly or in part to those of the company, and to distribute among its shareholders any cash, securities or other consideration so received; (o) To distribute in cash or kind among its shareholders any assets of the company, and to lend or otherwise invest the surplus funds of the company time to time; (p) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the undertakings, assets, rights or liabilities of the company, or for any other purposes which may seem calculated to benefit the company; (q) The powers of each paragraph herein are in no way to limit or restrict by means of reference to or inference from any other paragraph; (r) To do all and every of the above things as principals, agents or attorneys. The operations of the company to be carried on throughout the Dominion of Canada and elsewhere by the name of "Laurier Park Land & Development Company, Limited," with a capital stock of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, divided into 1,500 shares of one hundred dollars each, and the chief place of business of the said company to be at the City of Montreal, in the Province of Quebec.
