T. Lloyd Jones & Sons, Burford, Ont., write:—"We were well satisfied with the result of our advertisement in the ADVOCATE last autumn. We sold everything we cared to, and all who bought lambs from us wrote that they were well pleased with them. Our yearling ewes from our imported ram are a fine lot, and this season's lambs, fifty-five so far, are an excellent, strong lot, showing the type of their grand sire, with broad, straight backs, good length, lots of bone, with two good ends, and small ears, and they will be well covered. Our herd of about forty Galloways and Galloway grades of cattle are all in healthy condition; they were all tested by our veterinary and pronounced free from disease. Our stock bull, College Gambler, is proving a good sire as well as a show bull, having not yet been beaten in his class. The yearling bulls are neat and compact, and with grand coats. The cows with their calves are in fine healthy condition. We have one lamb, white, weighed at twenty-four days 27 lbs. One ewe gave birth to four fine live lambs which weighed 20 lbs. A few words regarding the two-year-old half-bred Galloway steer, Pride of the Oaks, which won 2nd prize at the Fat Stock Show at London. He weighed before killing 1,510 lbs., and dressed 1,005 lbs. of beef, 70 lbs. of tallow, and 91 lbs. of hide. This report was kindly sent us by the firm who purchased him from us. His age when killed was two years and three months. We regret that there was no block test; it will not be till then that the merits of the Galloways and their crosses will be realized. We should like to see the report of the dressed carcass of the white steer and the Angus which won first in their classes.

A GOOD SALE OF JERSEYS.

At the dispersion sale of Ayer & McKinney's big herd of Jerseys at Oneonta, N. Y., April 11th and 12th, the 130 animals sold made an average of a little over $500 each. The highest price of the sale was $500 for the 7-year-old cow, St. Lambert's Riotress by St. Lambert Boy, bought by W. H. Gifford, Syracuse, N. Y. Four other cows brought from $300 to $380 each. Sixty-eight cows averaged $122, and 4 bulls $155 each. The cattle were driven 14 miles the day before the sale, and the weather being cold, they were not looking well in their hair, nor well filled out, which doubtless detracted very much from the success of the sale. "There's no place like home" for a stock sale.

A REMARKABLE SHORTHORN SALE.

A remarkable auction sale of Shorthorns was that of D. L. Doughty & Co., made at Kansas City, Mo., April 11th and 12th, at which a herd of 90 head of practically pure Bates cattle made an average of $225 each, the 9-year-old pure Duke bull, 33rd Duke of Airdrie, selling for $605, and the pure Duchess heifer, 2nd Duchess of Airdrie, for $800. Both of these, together with a dozen others of slight disposition, were bought by Mr. W. R. Nelson, proprietor of "The Kansas City Daily Star." The highest-priced bull in the sale was the 9-months Scotch-bred calf, Knight of Meadow Farm 3rd, which sold for $750 to Jas. Duncan, Osborn, Mo. A round dozen animals sold at prices ranging from $400 to $800.

JERSEY SHOW BULLS.

Mr. W. G. Laidlaw, Wilton Grove, Ont., 6 miles from London, in his advertisement in this issue, offers for sale the high-class show bull, Prince Frank's Son, which has stood at the head of the Elrick herd of Jerseys the last two years, and is only offered because of close relationship to many of the females in the herd. He is the best son of his sire, Prince Frank, three times the champion bull at the Western Fair at London, while his dam, Zola of Glen Rouge, a pure St. Lambert, is an elegant cow, with a model shaped udder, a deep milker and very rich. The son is a chip of the old block, winning 1st honors each time he has been shown, 1st as a calf in 1897 and 1st as a yearling in 1898 at London, beating Miller & Sibley's 2nd prize bull at Toronto the previous week. He is lengthy and level, has a handsome head and crest, rich, yellow skin, well-sprung ribs, long, level quarters, and a quiet disposition. It is indeed doubtful if there is a better show bull of the breed in the Dominion. The younger bulls advertised are also very fine, the yearling being richly bred and of fine appearance, while the bull calf is exceedingly handsome and promising. The Elrick herd includes some over 25 head of registered females now, and the young St. Lambert bull, King of Bechlands, grandson of Adelaide of St. Lambert (record 821 lbs. milk in one day, and 2,005 in 30 days), has been purchased from Mr. Sweet, of Rochester, N. Y., to succeed Prince Frank's Son as the stock bull.

A Record-Breaking Sale of Herefords.

The dispersion sale at Chicago, April 17th, of the herd of Hereford cattle belonging to Mr. F. A. Nave, Attica, Indiana, scores a record in American auctions of the breed, and quite eclipses the highest prices and the highest averages made by any other breed on this continent in recent years. The entire herd of 96 head brought an average of $671 each. The champion show bull, Dale 66181, made the record price for a Hereford bull in America of $7,300, being purchased by Mr. J. C. Graves, Bunker Hill, Indiana, who bred him and sold him some two or three years ago for $1,000. Perfection, a yearling son of Dale, sold for $1,300 to Mr. Tom Clark, Beecher, Ill. The imported 3-year-old bull, Viscount Rupert, brought $3,100, Mr. Wm. Humphrey, Ashland, Neb., being the buyer. Another Bruce, a 2-year-old bull, fell to O. Harris, Harris, Mo., at $1,400. The cows Theresa and Russet went to the same buyer at $3,000 each; Mr. Graves took the 4-year-old cow, Dolly 5th, at $2,100, and the Imp. Lady Help at $2,600. The two yearling heifers, English Lady, by Diplomat, and Unceadler, by Ranker, came to Canada at $415 and $300 respectively, the purchasers being Messrs. O'Neil Bros., Southgate, Ont. This is certainly a very remarkable sale, and demonstrates that the whitefaces are more than holding their own and are exceedingly popular with the graziers and feeders of the Western States and Territories.
