No reason has yet been published for believing Jefferson Davis to be implicated in the assasination of Mr. Lincoln.

The Boston Courier says, so far as Jefferson Davis is declared to be implicated in the assassimution, it may be said without hesitation that the charge will take the great body of the peojie with surprise amounting to amazement.
Whatever his relations may have been to the government of this country, he has accurated a position in the eyes of the world, which should strengt him from any accusation of this horrible character, without the existence of textimony so sure and clear, that escape from its damning effect is impossible. In any other event, the recoil of such an accusation would be be of a force which no power could resist.

The Brind's Washington despites says the evidence in possession of the Gavernment of the comprisity of Jeff. Davis and fits associated is such that no foreign government will healtate a moment in giving them up. President Johnson's proclamation for their arrest has been sent through the South on the rebel telegraph lines.

1 00 The N. Y. Advocate and Journal gives the 2 00 following as a plan for the recognition of the 3 00 South:—Recognize the existence of the states as described and guaranteed by national laws, secsion. Recognize no caste or class distinctions among the people, but call a convention of all the toyod people of the state to form a state government agreeable to the requirements of the Constitution of the United States. stable, and highly beneficent government, with-3 00 niary expense.

The Buffale Commercial Advertiser, the leading Republican paper of Western New York, takes the following view of the requirements of the situation:

We begin to appreciate the utter impossibility of visiting the full measure of our first nursuage of revence upon the Southern our first purposes of revenge upon the Southern people. We see that it is undesirable and inpeople. We see that it is undesirable and in-human, as well as impossible. But, any some, an example must be made. It will not do to permit so gross a crime to go entirely unpun-punished. We must hang the leaders.' To what sud? Is not the South already sufficiently devastated and impoverished? Has not their bravest and best blood been spilled in vain, and bas not an ignominious defeat burnt into their souls like hot iron? Is not their darling insti-tution of slavery gone forever? Would it not be a greater punishment to them than martyrbe a greater punishment to them than martyr-dom? We doubt very much the policy of bang-ing or shooting, even the leaders, as a final tonic for rebellion."

The return of peace is bringing about a new state of things. Great reductions are about to be made in the strength of the army and navy.

122.60 Information from New Orleans says Kirby Smith publishes a frantic appeal to his soldiers dated Shreveport, April 21st, denouncing the surrander of Lee in the strongest terms.
