GATES ACADIAN LINIMENT. Joyful News for the Afflicted. Hampton, Granville, February 2nd, 1877.

Messrs. CALED GATES & Co.

Gentlemen—This is to certify that my wife was taken sick in Feby, 1875 with Liver complaint and what the Doctors call General Debility her stomach had become so weak that she could not retain any food on it but would be in awful distress and would throw it all up. I had three Doctors to see her she was under the treatment of two of them for about six months and did not seem to be much better and one of them told me not to flatter myself for she could not stand it long and that they had done all they could for her. We heard of your medicine and she wanted to try them. I saw the Doctor and told him that she wanted to try Gate's Medicines and he told me by all means to get it for her, he said if it did her no good it would do her no hurt, I got 2 bottles one of No. 1 Bitters and one of No. 2 Syrup she had not taken it but a few times when she stopped vomiting and began to get better she continued taken the medicine and in three or four weeks was up and about the house and is now able to attend to her household affairs. You can use this as you please for the benefit of the suffering. Yours very respectfully, HARRIS M. FOSTER, J.P.

MUSIC BOOKS!

FOR SUNDAY SCHOOLS THE SHINING RIVER, By H. S. and W. O. Perkins. GOOD NEWS, By R. M. McIntosh. The Publishers respectfully request an examination of these their newest two books, by schools about to purchase. They will bear comparison with any others. THE SHINING RIVER has a pure sweet title quite appropriate to the character of the hymns, which are well chosen, and skillfully set to music. Representative songs are: "Whiter than snow," page 98. "Shall we meet with the Loved," page 106. "Sweeping through the gates," page 130. Good News is a most cheerful companion to the other equally good book, differing only as the hymns of the two composers, and perhaps the requirements of the singers in each vicinity may differ. Representative songs are: "The King in the Mangie," page 8. "Sweet Bye and Bye," page 96. "Hear Him calling," page 120. Specimen copies sent for retail price, or 35 cts each.
