(1) Alpine Club in Yoho Park. (2) Around the Camp Fire. (3) Chinese Cooks on the Job. (4) Tents in Yoho Park.

Without finger bowls or napkins. Could a cannibal be greater than we are, as the bacon and the bread and the prunes disappear and the black old tea pot never runs dry. Then the camp fire! What witchery in the erratic flames with which the mountain winds are playing, what thrills of physical well-being as we fire-worship. Men pour like well-fed cats and are unashamed. Then the camp fire again, the tales, true and less true, the singing, classic and otherwise, and such good fellowship as is rare!

So to bed. Three in a row. The centre sleeper in his sleeping bag looks like a stuffed giant, the rest of us are content with the warm Hudson's Bay blankets of ample folds. No, we didn't sleep much the first night, but the change of life and environment had been too sudden, but

With a guide, a pack and a saddle pony, a supply of food and a tent or two, we leave Banff or Field and face the alluring trail and the untrodden tracks. Miles and years behind are the cities and streets and trains and ferries and sky scrapers and even lawns. After hours of trail journeying,

TWO OVERTIME GAMES; LEAFS WIN AND LOSE

Toronto, May 22.—Twenty-three innings of brilliant baseball was the reward of the five thousand fans who attended the Richmond-Toronto double header at the Island Stadium on Saturday. The Leafs won the first game in eleven innings by 4 to 3, and lost the second contest by 5 to 4 in twelve rounds. Pitcher Urban Shocker won the first game with a base hit in the eleventh, after Graham had opened that frame with a two-bagger. Burch's muff of a fly ball off Bankston's bat allowed Hendrix, who had walked, to score the winning run of the second game. It was a difficult chance, and Hendrix, who was on first base at the time, was able to get all the way to the plate ahead of the ball.

The Leafs scored two in the third, but Richmond came back with one in the sixth. In the Toronto half another credit was marked up, and the two-run lead maintained. In the ninth the Virginians scored a pair, and tied the count at 3 to 3.

Fred Herbert was reminded of the persistent jinx that followed him last season when he lost the second game after twelve innings of pitching against the best that Ross and Humphrey could offer.

The Leafs kicked Ross, who is the former Ottawa Canadian League left-hander, for a run in the second, and another in the third, but the Virginians collected four in the fourth on four hits and two errors, one each by Blackburne and Burch.

Toronto kept pecking away at Ross until the sixth inning when he was succeeded by Humphrey. The Leafs tied the score with two runs in this inning. Hendrix's walk and Bankston's long wallop to Burch in the twelfth accounted for the winning run. Score:

Richmond and Newark Tie for the Leadership

Montreal, May 22.—The Royals gave Newark another bump yesterday, when they took a double-header from the league leaders, winning the first game 7 to 4, chiefly through poor fielding on the part of the visitors, and batting out a 6 to 5 victory in the second game. Richmond and Newark are now tied for first place.

215TH CONCERT WAS ENJOYABLE

Programme Presented Saturday Night Was the Best Yet.

Highly pleasing vocal numbers by a number of young ladies, all of whom won great favor with their renditions, formed the greater portion of the programme presented at the Saturday evening concert of the 215th battalion, which proved equally successful with any held in the past. The audience was large and enthusiastic, the program excellent, and a most enjoyable time was passed by all present.

The opening remarks by Capt. Duff Slemin, chairman of the evening, were followed by an admirably rendered vocal duet, "Larboard Watch" by Miss Hilda Oldham and Sergt. Oldham, and a delightful piano solo by Mr. Clifford Higgin, who gave but one more instance of the undeserving of his enviable reputation in circles musical. Miss Richards delighted all with a recitation, while a mouth organ solo by Sergt. Monkman made a great hit with all. Miss Hilda Hurley rendered exquisitely a vocal solo, and a recitation, "Canada Born," by Miss E. McKeay, won loud applause. A vocal solo by Miss Louise Jones left nothing to be desired. Rev. Capt. McKegay also spoke briefly and eloquently toward the close of the entertainment.

Two reels of exceptionally pleasing moving pictures were shown, and a clever boxing bout was staged between Messrs. Betts and Bury. The accompanists of the evening were Mr. Clifford Higgin and Pte. Smith.

CELEBRATING EMPIRE DAY

Hon. Dr. Pyne Thanks the Teachers for Work in This Connection.

Dr. R. A. Pyne, Minister of Education, has issued the following letter regarding Empire Day:

"I desire to take the present opportunity of thanking the educational authorities of the schools throughout the Province for the way in which the Province for the way in which Empire Day has been celebrated in the past, and to express the hope that for the present year these exercises may be made a still more efficient means of inspiring national and imperial sentiment. I believe that the glorious share which the Province of Ontario has had in the struggle for liberty and the freedom of humanity is due in some measure to the early impressions made by such exercises as these. It is not long since that a handful of Canadians, less than forty thousand in all, were the only barriers that stood between the German barons and the sea, and history will tell to all succeeding generations the story of how nobly they performed their task upon that dreadful day.

In some of the schools it has been the practice in the past to use contributions by the children for the purchase of flowers for decorative purposes; where this has been the practice I would recommend that these funds whether large or small, be devoted to supplying comforts for the soldiers at the front. The contributions, of whatever kind, may either be shipped directly to the front or may be handed over to the local Red Cross Society.

This is the day of sacrifice, and I am firmly convinced that our present sacrifices must be a source of moral purification, and must contribute materially to the building of a sound, serious and noble national sentiment."

AMBASSADOR TO

Most of the St...
dition of Arm...
People in A...
the Awful V...
These People

The following interview with Mr. Morganthau, United States Ambassador to Turkey, has been by the American Committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief, J. Dawson, Chairman, 70 Fifth New York.

In view of the fact that about 500,000 Armenians and native Christians in Turkey, Persia, Syria and time, are destitute and starving, the Committee appeals for the aid of the newspapers in assisting in the raising of funds for relief and explain the conditions in Turkey and to make in a tactful way to the Turkish authorities the thoughts of the American people on the conditions.

New York, May 19.—United States Ambassador Henry Morgenthau, in an interview to-day, gave as the main reasons for his resignation, Ambassador Morgenthau's desire to make known to the people of the United States some conditions in the Turkish Empire, especially as they affect the Armenians, and the fact that the Committee is raising funds for relief and explain the conditions in Turkey and to make in a tactful way to the Turkish authorities the thoughts of the American people on the conditions.

Referring to the tragic situation of the Armenians and of the Greeks in Turkey, Ambassador Morgenthau said it is difficult for him to discuss the subject, which appeals strongly to his sympathy. His resignation as ambassador has been definitely accepted; but he is in a guarded way making following statement:

FOUNDED ON FACTS
"In my childhood I cried Uncle Tom's Cabin, and wept over the scenes depicted therein. Later on I read Evangelicalism and my heart went out to the poor man and his lover; but all these things are nothing compared to what I have seen in Turkey under my eyes. I do not want to give to harrowing pictures and it will cure for me to go much into it. I will say that I have been requested to state that most stories that have reached the States are founded on facts.

The Armenians were living in quietness and peacefully in their friendship and close contact with their Turkish associates, who deny they were picked out to be deported. It was then that my mind for them, has been the privilege of dispensing charity, out of and with full authority on behalf of the English, French and Italian nations. The Serbians had sent me money and I had permitted me to go to the poor Montenegrians in my country. Suddenly, without available funds, I was confronted with the problem of the destitute Armenians. Can you conceive how I felt? Then that I sent an appeal to the Secretary of State for help a response came promptly.

MERE SKELETONS OF

"If the people of the United States could only see the distress as I see it. If they could see the little figures of children, the little faces brought to Constantinople by Turkish officials, the prompt aid would be fully received."

ROLL

Several thousand officers of the Railway Company enlisted for Expeditionary Forces, and bravely battling for Canada.

As participants of Army A, those who have given up their lives in action are necessarily included in the extent to which they participated in the great struggle.
