Justice Riddell Holds Such a Bequest Not Good in Law.

Toronto, July 7—The charitable bequest conditional on the "government" waving the succession duties on the rest of the estate, is null and void is the decision of Mr. Justice Riddell, in connection with the question raised by the executors of the late Arthur L. Reeves, of Hamilton, Reeves left a will which after providing legacies to brothers, nephews and neices, disposed of the residue for the benefit of the Aged Women's Home at Hamilton, on the condition that the government waved succession duties on the residue for the benefit of the Aged Women's Home at Hamilton, on the condition that the government waved succession duties on the residue for the benefit of the Aged Women's Home at Hamilton, on the condition that the government waved succession duties of the Ladies' Guild of St. James' church, held their monthly meeting and tea at the home of Mrs. Winn, North Park St. on Wednesday afternoon last. There was a large number present and a very enjoyable time was spent.

It is likely that some change in the Fours of service at St. James' church will be made beginning July 16th. The heat and the city time mitigate against church aftendance.

Considerable Opposition Developing to Pastor-President.

Chicago, July 8 .- The contest over he presidency of the Baptist Young People's Union of America grew warmer when the twenty-fifth annual international convention opened for the morning session at Coliseum here

The opposition to a pastor-presiaent became more pronounced as the advocates of the lay-president plan in the nominating committee declared a growing conviction that the highest steal rowing conviction that the highest steenominal efficiency would be induced only under the executive guidance Bo of the laity.

More than 3,000 delegates to the convention had arrived to-day from virtually every state in the Union and Canada. It is expected that 12,000 delegates will be here to attend the jubilee celebration in the Coliseum Sunday afternoon.
