Guideboard Corner's

Sugar making time is here again. Mr. Jas. Sheldon, so far as we know, is the first to have syrup. It goes without saying that it is of a first class quality.

Miss Bertha Besley, Hard Island, made a pleasant call at "The Lilacs" on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Mackenzie, a resident of the neighborhood during the past year, has moved to Toronto.

Will Mr. Crawford Slack write us a poem, or tell a story in his own inimitable style, of the sugar making times of the long ago? All Reporter readers would be delighted with either.

We would hope too, that the voice of Spring may call to "The poet of the Rocky Isle."

We found much cheer in the last week's notes from the pen of the Elodia correspondent.

Charleston

The snow is fast disappearing and wagons and buggies are taking the place of cutters and sleighs.

The influenza patients are all able to get about again and no new cases.
