The score of "Dolly Varden," the comic opera success to be seen at the Brisco Opera House on Saturday in 19th, was written by Julian Edwards, the composer of many notable successes. Its originality, and that peculiar quality called "catchy," made the music of "Dolly Varden" extremely popular with all lovers of bright harmony; and the excellent comedy in the book commends it to everyone who likes a clean and refreshing performance. The same claborate production which completed the first triumph of this opera, will be seen in the presentation here, and one of the largest and most powerful singing organizations of the season is promised, headed by the clever prama donna composition of the season is promised, headed by the clever prama donna composition, Elilian Spencer, in the stellar part, surrounded by a cast of general excellence.

The Party Watchword.

"The watchword of the Conservative party should be clean elections and merciless punishment of the briber and ballot forger. It is not enough to cry 'clean elections.' There are two other essentials, viz., to run clean elections and to punish corruption or fraud by every means known to the law, and that law must be made simpler and easier of enforcement. Opportunities for delay and petty technicalities, which accompany and surround the present law, must be abolished.

"It is idle that there should be any question about the service of a petition upon any person, who has been returned as a member of Parliament. The filing of such a petition in the court and a short public advertisement as notice to the constituency should be sufficient.
