The Lost Gardener.

It is a little for what you get, almost solidly, the shuffling tread firm and quick, hastening to meet a welcome task. He stopped a little girl who was pushing a baby before her in the carriage, stooped over the baby, whisked to it and poked a finger in its cheek—with the result of awakening a terrified shriek and arousing the indignation of the father elder. Dismayed at such a failure of the only fatherly art he knew, he made overtures of peace to the baby's guardian with a hand that dipped into his pocket. The child accepted the proffered wafer indifferently with smiling satisfaction, and trundled the baby away. The young man's eyes followed her until she turned a corner, then wheeled about stamped a foot emphatically, thrust his hands into his pockets, and threw back his head in a big, happy, boyish laugh.

The mist that dimmed the nurse's eyes for a moment was dispelled by a flash of defiance.

'I'd do it again,' she whispered, 'in spite of the Stone and her wrath.'—

SKIN ERUPTIONS
AND PIMPLES

Disappear with a Treatment With Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

There can be health and vigor only when the blood is rich and red. There are thousands of young men just approaching manhood who need the rich, red blood that only Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can make. They have no energy, tire out at the least exertion, and who feel by the time they have done their day's work, as though the day was a week long. In some cases there is a further sign of danger in the pimples and disfiguring eruptions which break out on the face.

These are certain signs that the blood is out of order and that a complete breakdown may result. In this emergency Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is the medicine these young men should take.
These pills actually make rich red blood. They clear the skin of pimples and eruptions and bring health, strength and energy.

Here is the experience of Adolphe Belland, of St. Jerome, Que., a young man of years of age, who says: 'For more than a year I suffered from general weakness, and I gradually grew so weak that I was forced to abandon my work as a clerk. My appetite failed me. I had occasional violent headaches and I began to suffer from indigestion. I was falling so rapidly that I began to fear that consumption was fastening itself upon me. Our family doctor treated me but I did not gain under his care. I was in a very discouraged state when a friend from Montreal came to see me. He strongly advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I did so and inside of three weeks I began to feel better; my appetite began to improve and I began to have a feeling of new courage.
I continued the pills till I had taken ten boxes and I am now enjoying the best health I ever had. My cure surprised many of my friends who began to regard me as incurable, and I strongly advise other young men who are weak to follow my example and give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial. Bad blood is the cause of all common diseases like anaemia, headaches, neuralgia, rheumatism, sciatica, indigestion, all nervous troubles, general weakness and the special ailments that only women folk know.
Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the one cure, because they go right to the root of the trouble in the blood. They change the bad blood into good blood, and thus bring health, strength and energy. You can get these pills from any medicine dealer, or by mail at $4 a box, or six boxes for $24 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brookville, Ont.

'Some day,' said a Montreal physician, whose practice is largely among children, 'parents, teachers and people generally will reach such a high state of civilized comprehension that this one important truth will be universally accepted and acted upon, namely: No healthy child is ever ill-tempered. No sick child is good-natured. Bad temper is due to some physical ailment, invariably.'

57-62 The Critical Age.

Height of vigor is past—nature's power slowing down—stability obscured—endurance decreasing. Stop the progress of decay, tone up the weakened nerve centres, impart vigor to the tired body—prepare for the crisis. Best means for rebuilding is found in Ferron's. It brightens up the whole being, imparts power, strength, vigor. Old age is pushed back twenty years, the reflexes of youth is restored, vigor, vim and new life established. You'll try Ferron's, too, at all dealers.

Sudden changes in the cow's rations usually decrease the milk yield, even when the new ration is better than the old. When it is necessary to make a change in the ration the change should be made gradually, taking at least two weeks to make any radical change.

In the Babies' Ward.

BY CAROLINE K. HERRICK.

In the line of anxious inquiring friends waiting in the hospital corridor was seated a young man, very young, loutish, manifestly Irish, and carrying the marks of his trade in the plaster that caked his shoes and apparently his trousers, suggesting a similarity to the image 'with feet of clay' in the Asyrrian king's vision. The superintendent of nurses looked disapprovingly at the patch of gray dust that surrounded the big, shuffling feet.

'You should have wiped your shoes on the mat at the door,' she said.

'I beg your pardon, mum,' he said humblily; 'I forgot it through being that disturbed in my mind. I am countless in my wife doing well—' Mrs. Della Gaffney, 'I'm him.'

'You are her husband?'

'I am that, mum.'

'She is doing well.'

'Has she—is it—' He gazed dumbly in her face, with parted lips.

'She has a boy.'

The flushed ruddy lip to the sandy hair that hung in his brow.
He pushed the hair back with an unsteady hand as he stammered:

'Is he—is he—a good want?'

'Just like all of them,' she answered indifferently.

'There is never another man of him all that's mine, mum,' he replied, with a sort of ungainly dignity.

'Might I have speech of me wife?
Might I see him?' He choked on the word.

'No; not before Sunday,' the superintendent answered stiffly.

The nurse at her elbow ventured to suggest:

'There is no one else in the maternity ward at present, Miss Stone, and the young woman is very well.'

'I can make no exception to the rule,' retorted the superintendent, and passed into the office.

'If we held an autopsy on that woman,' said the junior intern, 'I suppose we should find a heart; it is the only way she'll ever obtain evidence of its existence.'

'I wonder if I dare,' the nurse sussured her; 'she's safe for twenty minutes in the office.'

'I will tell you about your baby,' she smiled on the young man, who was shambling dejectedly toward the door; 'you shall see your wife on Sunday.' They were at the door now, and out of hearing of the others. 'Go around to the back of the building, to the small door near the corner, and I will take you up to have a peep at the baby,' she whispered.

He almost betrayed her by the exclamation that escaped him. She pushed him through the door. 'Be quiet—be quick,' she said; 'there is very little time.'

When he reached the small door at the corner, she was already turning the key. The door, seldom used, refused to open. 'Push, push,' she don't make a noise.' She led the way along the pavement corridor, warning him to be as quiet as possible.

'I will make no noise at all, mum,' he assured her, as he followed, crouching with great hands sweeping the wall to steady his lurching steps.
While his shoes creaked horribly, she said to find it out. 'But the baby can tell so late, and you shall see him—just for a minute.'

'I am sure you see very good, and I am much beholden to you,' he entered in a smothered voice like the rumble of wind in the chimney. Thus, drawing his head out of his pocket, 'Take it—' he said, 'take it, now,' he urged, as she struck protesting from the proffered-quarter dol-
