

UNCURED!

SCROFULA OR KING'S

My years ago, was afflicted with a skin disease, which was pronounced to be a very bad and incurable one...

J. H. ALDAY, F.M.S. OF FOUR YEARS.

that I write to thank you for the medicine which I received from you...

RE THAN SIXTY YEARS

lice, Dypool, near Hull, had been afflicted with a skin disease...

THE NAME OF THE PATENT

of RINGWORTH, OF SIX YEARS.

of the Capital of Peru had been afflicted with a skin disease...

of RINGWORTH, OF SIX YEARS.

of the Capital of Peru had been afflicted with a skin disease...

of RINGWORTH, OF SIX YEARS.

of the Capital of Peru had been afflicted with a skin disease...

of RINGWORTH, OF SIX YEARS.

of the Capital of Peru had been afflicted with a skin disease...

of RINGWORTH, OF SIX YEARS.

of the Capital of Peru had been afflicted with a skin disease...

of RINGWORTH, OF SIX YEARS.

of the Capital of Peru had been afflicted with a skin disease...

of RINGWORTH, OF SIX YEARS.

of the Capital of Peru had been afflicted with a skin disease...

of RINGWORTH, OF SIX YEARS.

of the Capital of Peru had been afflicted with a skin disease...

of RINGWORTH, OF SIX YEARS.

of the Capital of Peru had been afflicted with a skin disease...

of RINGWORTH, OF SIX YEARS.

Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, Tuesday, November 4, 1861.

VOL. 21. CHARLOTTETOWN, PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1861. NO. 1135.

Army Contract. SEALED TENDERS will be received at this Office, on MONDAY, the 19th November, 1861, until noon, for the undermentioned Supplies, viz:—

FRESH BEEF. Such quantities of Ox or Heifer Beef, of the best marketable quality, as may be required for Her Majesty's forces in Prince Edward Island, for the term of one year, commencing 1st of January, 1862.

The Meat to consist of fore and hind quarters, and to be subject to the inspection and approval of the Commissariat Officer.

The Tenders (printed Forms of which may be had at this Office), to state the price per 100 lbs., in Sterling, in words at length, to be accompanied with a guarantee from two persons of known respectability, in the penal sum of £500 Sterling, for the due performance of the Contract.

BAKING BREAD. For one year, from the 1st January next, for the Troops and Departments, in such quantities as may be required; the Tenders to state the number of pounds of Bread that will be delivered for every 100 pounds of Flour provided by the Commissariat—the Flour to be taken from the Commissariat Magazines, and the Bread to be delivered at the respective Quarters of Officers and Troops, &c., in the Garrison, at the Contractor's expense, he being allowed the empty barrels. Two approved securities will be required in the penal sum of £100 Sterling each, for the due performance of the Contract.

FIREWOOD. For one year, from the 1st January next, in such quantities as may be required, (say 400 cords.) It is to be delivered under such conditions that the Firewood is to consist of Beech, Black and Yellow Birch, Ash, and Rock Maple; and that no cooked or rotten Wood will be received, and a sufficient supply to be kept at all times in the Fuel Yard, towards the necessary issue. Two responsible persons will be required to give security for the due performance of this Contract.

FORAGE. For one year, from the 1st January next, for three Horses, to be issued in detail from the Contractor's stores.—The Tender to state the rate per ration, consisting of 10 lbs. Oats } Of the best quality. 14 " Hay } 6 " Straw }

TRUCKAGE. For one year, for such quantities of Firewood as may be delivered from the Fuel Yard of Troops and Departments, and conveyance of Troops, Baggage, Ordnance and Commissariat Stores, &c., in and from the Garrison's Wharf to the Barracks, &c. The Tender to state the rate per cord, in Sterling, and at per load of not less than 6 cwt.

Printed Forms of Tender and any further particulars can be had at the Commissariat Office. No written Tender to be received. Commissariat Charlottetown, P. E. Island, October 7, 1861.

BAZAAR. IN AID OF FURNISHING THE NEW TEMPERANCE HALL. (Under the Patronage of Lady Bannerman.)

THE New Temperance Hall in this Town being nearly completed, it has become necessary to provide the requisite funds for suitably furnishing the same. A Bazaar will therefore be held, for this purpose, in the said Building, on Wednesday and Thursday, The 10th and 11th days of December next.

The proprietors of this Bazaar deem it essential to the prosperity of the cause in which they are engaged, to render the Hall as comfortable and attractive as possible—to make it at once a rallying point for the Sons and their friends, and a credit to the community. To accomplish this object, however, from the funds of the several Town Divisions, was found to be totally impotent, without causing serious embarrassment thereto. An appeal to the liberality of the public has, therefore, been determined upon; and it is hoped that those friends who feel disposed to further this object, but who have not yet commenced their labors, will do so without delay. Ladies can promote this object, not only by working for it themselves, but also by directing the attention of their friends towards it, and soliciting their aid.

The following is a List of Ladies who have kindly consented to receive contributions:— Mrs. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Young, Mrs. Yates, Mrs. P. Davies, Mrs. Lydell, Mrs. Canfield, Miss P. DeBrimy, Mrs. W. B. Dawson, Mrs. O'Leary, Mrs. Chappell, Mrs. Hazard, Mrs. G. Hazard, Mrs. I. Smith, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. J. J. Pippy, Mrs. W. C. Trowan, Mrs. A. H. Yates, Mrs. B. Moore.

Articles may also be sent to the Rev. Mr. Fitzgerald, Messrs. W. B. Dawson, W. Hazard, J. Rider and B. Moore.

N.B.—Every parcel should be labelled, FOR THE TEMPERANCE BAZAAR, with a list of the Articles, the name of the contributor, and the price set upon each Article. As a guide to those who may wish to contribute, the following is a List of such Articles as are most likely to be useful:—Ornamental needle-work of all kinds, Millinery, Baby Linen, Toys of all sorts, Dolls dressed in the costume of different nations, as the peasants of France, Italy, Wales, Scotland, &c., Miniature Articles of Furniture, as chairs, tables, beds, &c.—Models of Public Buildings, ships, &c.—Basket work, Turner's goods, Engravings, Drawings of all kinds, Paintings, Curious Mineral specimens, Dried Botanical specimens, as Herbs, Mosses, &c.—Shells, Prepared Insects, Choice Plants, Books, Sweetmeats, Cakes, &c.—Materials for Needlework, and Money to Buy Materials.

On the Evening of the 17th, (Immediately after the Bazaar) A Vocal and Instrumental Concert will be given in the Hall by Several talented Vocalists and Musicians, who have kindly volunteered their services for the occasion. Tickets to be had at the Bazaar.

By order of the Committee, W. B. DAWSON, Chairman. October 6, 1861. (1145.)

ALL PERSONS having legal demands against the Estate of ALEXANDER FERGUSON, late of St. Peter's Road, Lot 24, Farmer, deceased, are requested to furnish their Accounts within 6 months, for settlement, and all persons indebted to the said Estate are required to make immediate payment.

JOHN FERGUSON, Executor. St. Peter's Road, Oct. 10, 1861.

ALL persons having legal demands against the Estate of JOHN JOHNSTON, late of Township Number 10, Tyndal, deceased, are requested to furnish their accounts for settlement, and all persons indebted to the said Estate, are required to make immediate payment.

JAMES JOHNSTON, Administrator. Lot 25, Oct. 14, 1861.

Mimac Mission. REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE Mimac Missionary Society, from Oct. 23d, 1860, to Sept. 30, 1861. (Continued from our last.)

But it is high time to direct your attention to Mr. Rand's later operations. Early in June, he paid a visit to the Indians in some parts of Cape Breton, which has not been surpassed in interest by any previous excursion. He took passage from Charlottetown, in H. M. Surveying Schooner Galore, and after a brief stay in Pictou, proceeded to the Strait of Cansuau, expecting to find the Indians encamped there as usual in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"It happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

"I happened very well for me, that Captain Orlebar was to remain here for a week, and that his business led him down to Indian Island, where the Indian Chapel for the settlement of Indians contiguous, about (as I said before), 8 miles from our floating house. This gave me a capital chance of going and returning. At first, there were but few families at home, but as the Sabbath drew on they began to assemble in the distance. Disappointed in this expectation, he returned to the vessel which was sent on to St. Peter's, about eight miles from an Indian settlement. Here he met an old friend, in whose wigwam he had once stayed all night, and was asked to visit him the next day. The interesting narrative which follows, must be given in Mr. Rand's own words, extracted from his letter of date, June 24th, 1861.

Miscellaneous. The Committee feel that they as well as the translator now occupy a responsible position.—They know how desirable it is that these, when issued, should remain for years, if not ages, standard productions. They know, however, that translations into the English and into other languages, which were marred by imperfections which far exceeded knowledge ultimately necessary to the salvation of souls. In these circumstances they have felt constrained to take the preliminary steps towards publishing, and are now in negotiation with the Secretary of the British and Foreign Bible Society for an arrangement of the contemplated measure, so soon as Mr. Rand and the Committee shall have been satisfied that they are fully prepared for such a step.

In the mean time, the Committee think it desirable to state, that the subject on which the greatest difficulty was apprehended, and on which some predilections were hazarded by persons unfriendly to the Mission on its present basis, (the rendering of Baptizo and Baptisms) is likely to be arranged in a way, which, if not perfectly satisfactory to all, will not, it is hoped, prove very grievous to the conscientious scruples of any. By the Constitution of this Society, which was adopted after much deliberation, no part of the funds can be applied to the publishing of any translation not sanctioned by the Committee. It was therefore, and is now evident, that some concession must be made, also on the subject of our union with that of its accomplishment. In these circumstances, Mr. Rand and his Baptist brethren well conscientiously differing from the Committee on the points referred to, have continued their co-operation with the Committee, a majority of whom have resolved on their own responsibility, that these words shall be transferred, after the example of the English authorized version.

The Committee in concluding, would, with increasing confidence and earnestness, recommend the prosecution of the work to the Christian public. The conversion to God of those poor ignorant children of nature is not impossible, it is not impracticable. They need much, but not more than the death of the Saviour can provide for them, and not more than the Great Spirit can do for them. The Saviour lives, and by his life can secure all that is necessary to make the conversion of you Aborigines successful. And the object for which he labours is dear to the Saviour. It is the object for which he poured out his soul to death; and for which he now in his intercession, pours his soul into the bosom of his Father. And what He asks shall be granted. The Holy Ghost will be given. A blessing will descend on means, on such means as have his approval, and such are the circulation of His own word, and the preaching Christ. Union among ourselves in applying these will be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field will be counted for a forest! "Then shall judgment dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field, and the work of righteousness shall be peace, and the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance for ever."

If good men in some instances, decline our union, and prefer other departments of the Master's service, we wish them God-speed; and feel assured, that a sufficient number will remain, who feel it an unspeakable honour to be employed in the effort to save their fellow men, and to be associated with the Redeemer himself in the highest and holiest of enterprises.

Miscellaneous. (From Hamilton's Royal Preacher.) PLEASURE, FAME, AND POWER.

The experience of most mortals has been Solomon's sorrow repeated with the variations incident to altered circumstances, and the diminished intensity to be expected in feeble men—vanity and vexation of spirit all over again. And as we are sometimes more impressed by modern examples than by Bible examples, we could call to mind nearly as many witnesses as there have been hunters of happiness—mighty Nimrods in the chase of pleasure, fame and power.

We might ask the statesman, and as we wish him a "happy new year," Lord Dundas would answer, "I had more to be thankful than the last, for I never knew one happy day in it." We might ask the successful lawyer, and the warlike, luckiest, most self-complacent of them all would answer, as Lord Eldon was wont to be wont to answer, "I had more to be thankful than the last, for I never knew one happy day in it."

"A few weeks will send me to dear Eton, as a short resting-place between vexation and the grave." We might ask the golden millionaire, "You must be a happy man, Mr. Rothschild?" "Happy! I am happy! I will, happy! when just as you are going to dine you have a most pleasant saying, 'If you do not send me £500, I will blow your brains out.' Happy! when you have to sleep with pistols at your pillow!" We might ask the world-famous warrior, and get for another answer the "Bismarck" of the emperor-nook, Charles V., or the right of a broken heart from St. Helena. We might ask the brilliant courtier, and Lord Chesterfield would tell us, "I have enjoyed all the pleasures of the world, and I do not regret their loss. I have been through the scenes. I have seen all the coarse pilules and dirty ruses which nature has given to man, and I have seen the smell of the tallow-candles which illuminate the viceroy's decorations, to the astonishment of an ignorant audience." We might ask the dazzling wit, faint with a glow of glory, yet disgusted with the creature who adored him, Voltaire would condemn the vanity of his existence into one word, "Enant!" And we might ask the world's poet, and we would be answered with an impression by that splendid genius Byron, who

"Drank every cup of joy—heard every tramp of Fame; drank every drop, deeply drank; drank draughts; but common millions might have quashed—the die died Of thirst, because there was no more to drink."

(From the Halifax Aetian Recorder.) EXTRAORDINARY MYSTERY.

Our readers may remember, that not many weeks back, just before the departure of the late Royals home for home, we reported the disclosure which a private belonging to that Regiment, named Thompson, voluntarily made at our Police Office, relating to the murder of a young woman, by himself, at Norwich, England, about 8 years since. Although we were the first to furnish any account of the circumstance, yet contemporaries far and near pined, or assumed the patronage of it, till length, enough to say, the Press of Great Britain at large, credit the New York Express with the authorship of the information. It will be recollected that the confession Thompson made, was that he belonged to Dumfriesshire, Scotland; that the victim was a young woman with whom he had been on terms of intimacy, that the crime was perpetrated by drowning in what he termed a canal. The crime had so preyed on the offender's mind, that he at length determined to give himself up to justice, and allow the law to take its course. Subsequent occurrences have confirmed the truth of the principal circumstances narrated. Thompson, having arrived in England, is now in Winchester goal, and one of the superintendants of that district, Mr. Habberley, late of the Norfolk constabulary, has visited Lyon, for the purpose of instituting inquiry. Thompson gives the name of his victim as Hannah Barber, and both he and the girl were well known to many people still living in Norwich, the crime having been perpetrated so recently as 1848. Thompson himself states, that he was in the month of August of that year, and Mr. Habberley has returned from several sources, that Thompson was at that time a private in the regiment of Carabiniers, being at Ipswich, having just left Norwich, and that a girl named Hannah Barber had shortly before been rejected by one of the best of the same regiment, in consequence of her intimacy with Thompson and other men; that Thompson got a day's leave of absence, and came down to Norwich; saw the girl there again, and walked out with her in the evening.

It appears, also that a Mr. J. Taylor, of Fochthorpe, well remembers, that between 12 and 1 o'clock one night in the same month, while bobbing for cobs in the river, near St. George's bridge he heard some blows struck; and immediately afterwards a splash in the water. He also distinctly heard the footsteps of a person running away. He unmoored his boat as quickly as possible, and hastened to the spot, and succeeded in rescuing a young woman from a watery grave. After she recovered herself a little, he placed her on the steps leading to the house of Mr. Brooks, holder, Mr. Taylor, together with Mr. Rix, a brewer, who came up at the time, attempted to learn from her her name, but she positively refused to tell, or to reveal any of the circumstances connected with the event which had just occurred. She shortly afterwards left the spot, as one knowing who she was, or whether she went. Two or three persons now state, that they have seen Hannah Barber in Norwich within the last 12 months, but have no knowledge as to where she is to be found. She is said to be a country girl, and her visits to Norwich were only occasional. It is very desirable, that she should be found, in order that it may be ascertained whether she is really the girl whom Mr. Taylor rescued. Under any circumstances, however, it appears probable, that Thompson's victim escaped the death to which he was doomed, though he had hurried her—shortly after August, Thompson left the Carabiniers and joined the first Royals, who were lying in New Brunswick, whether he was sent to join them, or he has doubtless been living since that time under great mental suffering.

LAST WORDS OF DISTINGUISHED PRISONERS. "A death-bed is a detector of the heart. Here, tried dissimulation drops her mask, Through life's grimace that mistress of the scene; Here real and apparent are the same."

Head of the Army.—Napoleon. I must sleep now.—Byron. It matters little how the dead lie.—Sir Walter Raleigh. Kiss me, Hardy.—Lord Nelson. Don't give up the ship.—Laurens. Is this your deity?—Vero. Clasp my hand, my dear friend, I die.—Alfred. Give Daryles a chair.—Lord Chesterfield. God preserve the Emperor.—Hayden. Let the light enter.—Gothe. All my possessions for a moment of time.—Queen Elizabeth. What! is there no bribing death!—Cardinal Beaufort. I should love God, my father, and liberty.—Madame de Staël. Be serious.—Gratie. Into thy hands, O Lord.—Tasso. It is small, very small indeed; (clapping her neck.)—Anne Boleyn. I pray you, to see me safe up, and for my coming down, be no shift for myself. (Ascending the scaffold.)—Sir Thomas More. Don't let that awkward squad give over my grave.—Robert Burns. I am as if I were to be myself again.—Sir Walter Scott. I resign my soul to God, and my daughter to my country.—Jefferson. It is well.—Washington. Independence for ever.—Adams. This is the last of Europe.—J. Q. Adams. I wish you to understand the true principles of the government, I wish them carried out. I ask nothing more.—Gen. Harrison. I am prepared; I have endeavored to do my duty.—General Taylor. There is not a single drop of blood on my hands.—Frederick V. of Denmark. A dying man can do nothing else.—Franklin. Let me die to the sounds of delicious music.—Mirabeau. I die for my beloved Cæsar.—Lepus.

REAPING MACHINE. We copy the following from the Morning Chronicle:—An exhibition of Hussey's American Reaping Machine, took place on Thursday, at Huddersfield, Herts, before a very large concourse of agriculturists, many of whom came from a considerable distance to witness this (to us) novel feature in farming operations. The first display was upon a field of barley, which although very much laid, was taken up by the machine