A Remarkable Novel

CAVIARRE,

By E. Grant Richards.

The author who, by the way, is publisher as well, made a special visit to Monte Carlo to study the inside workings of the extraordinary system of gambling which has been carried on there for so many years, and from it he has written one of the most fascinating novels that has ever been depicted. The scenes and characters are all true to life.

SPENCER LODGE

Affords to girls a comfortable and refined home of education, where they will be subject to "careful" supervision and discipline. It is under the general management of a Committee appointed by the Diocesan Synod. The residence, situated on Church Hill, overlooking the Cathedral grounds, is well appointed and fitted in every way for its purpose. It is heated with hot water, lighted with electricity and the sanitary arrangements are perfect.

Visitors: The Rt. Rev. the Lord Bishop of Newfoundland.

All applications should be made in the first instance to the Principal, Miss Eliza Dawson (of the Church Teachers' Fellowship), Spencer Lodge, Church Hill, St. John's.

FOX FARMING!

A pamphlet giving full and detailed instructions which will enable any one to establish a fox farm on his own account, and giving details as to the management, breeding and raising of Foxes in captivity, has been published by the Game and Inland Fisheries Board. For the purpose of affording information to those of our own people who may desire to take advantage of the great possibilities of this business, a copy will be mailed to any one free of charge upon application to the Secretary Game and Inland Fisheries Board, St. John's. Letters so addressed will require no stamp.
