A Disorderly Volunteer

This morning we were informed by an eye-witness of a brutal act perpetrated by a volunteer on a six year old boy yesterday afternoon. It appears that about 4 o'clock a crowd of children were playing and shouting on Military Road, opposite the Colonial Building, when the volunteer, who appeared to be very much under the influence, was passing by and became irritated by the shouts of the children, he grabbing a little boy named Shepherd by the neck and throat, he dashed him against a house and the wonder is that he did not inflict serious injury to the little fellow. As it was he appeared to be lifeless, his face was discolored and blood flowed from both ears, the result of the soldier's tight grip on the youth's throat. Several women near screamed for assistance and Sergeant Long, of Government House, and Mr. George Scott rescued the innocent victim from the "giant" one, who then sailed into Sgt. Long, but found the volunteer, who too many guns for him, as a few blows from the Sgt's stick, coupled with giving him a close acquaintance with a "bunch of bright" quickly put his assailant hors de combat.

A UNIQUE IDEA.—If the Government does not hurry up and do something to the wharf at Portugal Cove, several of the leading people of the place intend inviting one of our leading photographers to visit the Cove and take several pictures of the fragments that remain of the one time famous landing place; fearing that a heavy sea might at any moment carry away what is left, it was thought it would be a good idea to have a photograph of the same to hand down to future generations. Some of the people proposed having post cards printed and sold at a reasonable price, the profits to be devoted to the building of a new wharf.

St. Joseph's Bazaar Formally Opened.

Precisely at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the C.C.C. Hall, the Grand Bazaar, promoted by the ladies of St. Joseph's Parish and assisted by the parishioners generally, in aid of the new church building fund, was opened, and if the success on the opening day is to be regarded as any criterion, the entire proceeds of the affair will exceed the most sanguine expectations. The hall was artistically decorated and brilliantly illuminated in vari-colored lights presenting an attractive scene, and the colors of the Allies and the trophies of the C.C.C. being conspicuously shown. Strikingly attractive and pretty also were the booths and stalls, etc., erected around the hall and containing in profusion goods of all kinds and descriptions in plain and fancy work. The arrangements on the whole were a credit to the ladies in charge and bore eloquent testimony to their energy and untiring zeal.

The Bazaar is under the distinguished patronage of His Grace Archbishop Roche, but owing to the unavoidable absence, through illness, of that prelate, the Rt. Rev. Mgr. McDermott, V.C., declared the sale formally opened, after wishing the well-merited patronage and success it deserved. Amongst those present were Rev. Dr. Kitchin, Pastor of St. Joseph's, Rev. Frs. Renouf, Pippy, Greene and Carter, many of the Christian Brothers, Mr. J. L. Slatery, Hon. P. T. McGrath and many other citizens interested in the project. The sale then began. The booths and stalls were visited by patrons and those in charge did a brisk business, as they disposed of an abundance of goods readily and at remunerative prices. The tea tables were well patronized and those in charge kept going constantly. Those in charge of the various stalls and tea tables were Messrs. Brophy (2), Fitzpatrick, Denief, Bush, Cole, Malone, Quigley, Manning, Taaffe, Cotter, Collins, MacKey, Cloney, Moore, Foley, Jackman and Smith; Misses English, Fitzpatrick, Howlett, Murphy, Walsh, Dwyer, Moore, Carroll, Carew, Denief, Brophy and Malone. Much amusement was afforded by the Fish Pond, Grab-barrel and Guessing Competition booth. The sale was continued up to 11 p.m., the C.C.C. Band being present, discoursing patriotic and lively airs. The sale will be continued this afternoon and night.

The Brothers Collection

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—As the time is fast approaching to give us once more the opportunity, and I may say the pleasure, of contributing to the Christian Brothers Collection, I would like, with your permission, space in your paper to help bring the matter strongly before a certain section of the community—the ex-pupils. When I say ex-pupils, I mean all ex-pupils, and refer particularly at this time to the boys (now men) of other denominations, many of whom are now in good positions, or business for themselves, as the result of the good training and teaching they derived from those good Brothers.
I am one of those ex-pupils to whom I refer, and I call upon all others to contribute their share, be it big or little, in memory of the many happy moments spent at St. Patrick's.
Truly yours,
Nov. 28th, 1916. E. D. S.

Another Motor Accident.

Motor car accidents seem to be getting quite common. In all cases children are the victims and strange to say are themselves responsible. Yesterday afternoon a little girl named Mabel Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kelly of the King's Bridge, had a narrow escape from serious injury. A motor car was going up the "Pinch," which is a fairly steep incline leading to the King's Bridge, when the little girl, who was going in the same direction, attempted to get from one side of the street to the other and crossed directly in front of the car. She was struck by the dashboard and thrown down. The car was brought to a halt and the driver picked up the little girl, who escaped practically unharmed, though she was badly frightened.

GREAT RECRUITING SONGS AND NEW PICTURES.

At Rossley's British Theatre there will be a complete change of pictures and recruiting songs to-night. Patrons are loud in their praise of the new service of films now shown. A dainty little singer who has delighted thousands of people with her great English recruiting songs, will sing to-night. On Friday night there will be the usual Friday night contest, and several names are already in. As patrons know those contests are conducted on first class principles for laughing purposes only. The Havelock contest will drive away the blues. Children under fourteen cannot compete. The rehearsals for Christmas are going ahead and will be a great novelty, something very unique and original. Elegant costumes and music from England, all new. Doors open Friday night at 6.45.

THE WHITE FEATHER.—The young ladies or others who are sending through the mails, white feathers to young men who they believe are "slackers" should be very careful that the young men in question are justly entitled to receive them, as we know of a number of cases where quite an injustice has been done. The victims in some cases are so deformed that it is apparent to the average person that they would not be permitted an examination let alone the privilege of wearing a "rejected" badge.

There is no better way of removing soiled places from rugs than with ammonia, and if it fades the color, rub with chloroform.

Worse Confounded.

Greece has loomed large in the newspapers of late, which reminds us somehow of a story I once heard concerning Mr. Asquith.
No one listening to the Prime Minister's polished diction and easy flow of words would imagine that, as a boy at the City of London School, he was timid and halting of speech and easily flustered.

One day (so the story goes) he was reciting in class, and the lines at which he had arrived ran:

"The Turk was dreaming of the hour
When Greece her knee in suppliance bent."
Young Asquith stuck in the middle of the second line, "Greece her knee," he repeated twice, and then stopped.

His form-master smiled grimly. "Go on, Asquith," he said, "grasp her knee once more and perhaps you'll get through next time."
