Leebrugge' Phenomenal Triumph at Nickel

ne Of The Truly Wonderful Motion Picture Successes.

The showing of that remarkable aval epic "Zeebrugge," is now drawg to a close. There are just two note days to see this wonderful film the Nickel. To-morrow afternoon children will have their oppority of witnessing the picture which | not only an entertainment but is an lucation that will linger long in their mory. Don't let the young people niss "Zeebrugge."

This picture also holds the unique distinction of being the only film so which has been patronized by Their Majesties the King and Queen, who, it will be remembered, paid their first visit to any cinema when they saw the first public presentation of "Zeebrugge," in London.

In the making of the film the Admiralty not only gave the use of official films, taken at the time before the Zeebrugge Fleet set out, but also films taken on the morning after he raid, and in addition lent a specofficer, Commander Bruce, D.S.O., who acted as adviser to the producers. verything has therefore been done make "Zeebrugge" an accurate reord of one of the most glorious episodes in the history of any Navy, and inspiring entertainment, of which the British people have every reason be proud.
