L GREAT WESTERN RATEaccident becurred early on Monday NELLES, ROMAIN & Co., merning between two freight trains on General Commission Merchant the Great Western, close by the Desjardin
Janetion, caused by the magleore of the 34 South Clinton St., Chicago, III. conductor of the train going west, who disobeyed his instructions. No. 21 stock train, going east, came into collision with the westward-bound train, and several cars were thrown off the track. The two engines were considerably damaged, five or six cars booken up, and several cight head of cattle killed. The accident was not important, except as it interferes with the punctually of me trains.

The other evening in a Toronto bar-with the punctually of the trains.

The other evening in a Toronto barber's sliep, a customer waiting for his turn fell asleep with a little favourite-dog upon his lap. A companion put the canine in the stove, and what was the surprise of all in a few moments to hear the animal walking along through the pipes, which had to be taken down in order that he might be released. He had almost reach the chinney.
