In the Chicago Grain Pit

In the Chicago Grain Pit.

[Reported by Drummond & Goldingham.]

Chicago, Oct. 22.—Wheat—During the holidays outside markets declined is to be and Chicago has merely got into line.

Sometime of the considering the pronounced weakness here. Primary market receipts during the pronounced weakness here. Primary market receipts during the pest three days have fallen soft, while exports have increased. Estimates for Monday indicate a continued lighter movement. Some short lines were partly covered to-day that were sold several days ago, bus side. Com and Cat. Till lower, and the market has had a heavy tone all day.

Oats have done rather better, the demand from short having sustained prices.

Provisions—The big holders have added somewhat to their lines at the expose of room traders whose short lines have been thereby linerased. Manipulation is still the controlling influence in the market.
