Mrs. Edwin Milton Royle, nee Miss Selma Fetter, will be recalled by many Canadian people, and especially the members of the Toronto Wanderers, as the leading lady in the "Friends" Company, which appeared in Toronto during the latter part of September. Mrs. Royle, who presonted the prizes at the Grand Opera House to the successful competitors at the Wanderers, flas sent to the club on the occasion of her marriage a very handsome banner of white satin, in the center of which appears the photo of the little lady, surrounded by the club colors and emblem, worked in silk. Accompanying the banner was card from Mrs. Royle wishing the Wanderers Bicycle Club all success. The Wanderers appreciate very highly the handsome token of Mrs. Boyle's remembrance.
