boro, is visiting in London, Ingersoll, and other Western Ontario points. For one who has passed the century mark, Mr. Mantell is particularly active and strong, showing but little sign of his advanced years. He has been in the city before, and is known to a number of Londoners.Biblemen in China and Japan.A most encouraging report of the year's work, done by our native colporteur in Japan, Mr. Yamashita, has just been received. The number of gospels sold by him amounts to the large figure of ten thousand. This is almost phenomenal, for a Bibleman succeeds in selling two thousand in a year it is considered a good average. The large number sold is further proof of the general desire in Japan to know more about our civiliza-tion and religion. The following gentlemen have recently contributed $5 eachto the funds, viz., Rev. G. M. Cox, Messrs.
W. Wright, (W. Wright & Sons), Bert Cottam, Hunt Bros., J. W. Little, T. B.
Scott, John Labatt, J. Munroe (J. Marshall & Co.), S. S. Stewart (E. Adams & Co.), and Messrs. Lawson and Jones. Rev.
Dr. Beaumont will be glad to receive further contributions, which go direct to the Biblemen without charge. Christian communities are everywhere springing up in the path of the Biblemen who are the most efficient and easily supported order of missionaries.The Nudge is Out.Ex-Alderman R. F. Matthews, of London, is now located in Evelyn, where he is conducting a general store and incidentally publishing a monthly paper known as "The Nisouri Nudgeer." After telling what the paper was launched, Mr. Matthews launches into a discussion of many matters, and amongst other things he says: "The Middlesex county council had better be careful before it is led into the hospital business on its own account. It should first realize that a hospital worth the name must be thoroughly modern in construction and equip-ment. To secure this kind of a hospital means a very large outlay and one that we trust will stagger the average county councillor. After the building comes the maintenance, and every year it increases. The city of London knows how now expensive the hospital business is. The genius who is advocating the county hospital at Strathroy had better be taken aside and talked to. In the minds of many the arrangement between the city and county is fair and equitable—perhaps the county has some the best of it—and had better be continued rather than jump into an expense unknown in order to boost someone into notoriety at the public expense. Besides, Strathroy is not a proper place for a hospital."MEMBERS OF COUNCIL*Priests Named by His Lordship the Splendid AdviceYou have not felt much need of coal lately, but we feel quite safe in predicting that we will have at least four months of real winter before May 1st, 1911, so we are taking this means of advising our friends to lay in a good supply of Cross Creek Lehigh Coal now while the price is low. It will certainly pay well to have it for your past continuance thereof, we are, yours

OUR BOOK OFFERIf you purchase a book that WE recommend, and it does not please you, we are perfectly willing to take it back from you, even after you have read it, and exchange it for any other book of equal value in the store. That means, of course, that we are very careful in making recommendations of books. Our knowledge of books, though, ought to be of some value.
By the way, have you read "The from Labrador, met a sudden halt for today, at least. He was arrested on Queen street on a charge of vagrancy, and at present he is in the cells at Court street station. When arrested Hints had on him letters from the mayors of Ottawa, Valleyfield, Hull, Montreal, Brockville, Belleville, Cobourg, Napanee and Cornwall, as well as from the Y. M. C. A. in Brockville, and from medical men in other places. According to Hints' story there was no reason why he should have been arrested and charged with vagrancy. He claims he just went into the Kerby House on Queen street west and offered to distribute cards of the hotel while on his travel. A constable took a different view and ran him in.

ter Hall, paying teller of the Herald Square branch of the Greenwich Bank, who has been missing since July 2, was increased today by the report that $35,000 was missing from the branch bank's vaults. Officers of the bank would neither affirm nor deny the report. Hall, who is 26 years old, has been a trusted employee of the bank for six years. Since his disappearance his wife has been taken ill at her home in Brooklyn. Hall has not communicated in any way with his family. It is stated his wife is prostrated. President Duncan, of the Greenwich Bank, has not called upon the police for aid in finding Hall and refuses to discuss the matter.
