MACK MAY SEND COOMBS BACK TO MOUND IN 3RD BATTLE WITH CUBS FOR WORLD'S TITLE TODAY

Boss of Athletics Believes John Wesley Can Return and Win Own Game—Talk of Replacing Kling With Archer to Change Luck—Police Keep Crowd Back in Philadelphia, But There Is No Joyous Throng in the Windy City—Rain Today?

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Cornelius McGillicuddy and his Athletics, Frank Chance and his Cubs, National Commission, four umpires, dozens of newspaper men and two mascots, arrived in this city this afternoon, coming from Philadelphia on two special trains, said to be the best wreck-proof affairs in the employ of conveyance companies who do business on rail.

The journey was made in remarkably fast time. The trains did not hesitate much on the way, cut through the bush leagues like a Vanderbilt cup winner, and safely delivered their charges in the city. They are to renew the conflict for the world's baseball championship on Thursday.

When the two trains left the Broad street station in Philadelphia on Tuesday night nearly half of the police force of Philadelphia was on hand to see that the crowd did not prevent the programmed passengers from reaching the trains.

The Difference.

There was a great crowd of cheering men and women and juveniles at the Philadelphia station, but the mayor of this delightful lake city did not find it necessary to take any officers to guard this afternoon to prevent a panic in honor of the athletes.

The Cubs, heroes of other world series, cheered year after year, did not get the welcome they thought last Monday must surely be coming to them this afternoon. The work of two days has settled thousands of throats that would have cheered, and kept thousands away.

There was no demonstration at the depot. There was no demonstration, no one cheered. Finally Bill Donovan's Cobb, George Mullin and a few others came through the exit at the station. The crowd recognized them, turned the Detroit stars, and followed them a block.

Rain Threatened.

The weather here this afternoon was warm, sultry, and the skies clear. After 6 o'clock the skies showed gathering clouds and tonight rain is threatened any second.

The weather man feels sure it will rain tomorrow, and there will be a change of temperature, meaning that it will be such colder.

The only thing to cause a sensation heard in the rival camps tonight was the statement that Cornelius McGillicuddy would work Jack Coombs this afternoon. Chance has selected Reulbach to do the twirling for his Cubs.

Will Coombs Return?

The pitching of Coombs on Tuesday was miserable. A poorer exhibition of twirling has never been recorded in a world's series. Wonderful support kept Coombs from defeat. Mack figures that durable John Wesley will be in fine fettle tomorrow. Coombs has the faculty of coming back strong on the second day, and Mack takes his lunch from that.

Betting on tomorrow's game is even money. There are few Cub followers who care to risk any coin at that game, and there is practically no betting on the series. Many are of the opinion that well all be home for Sunday dinner unless it rains tomorrow or Friday. These Cubs certainly have received an awful body blow. All their supporters concede the title to the White Elephants.

It is not unfair to presume that Frank Chance knows he is beaten. Other members of Chance's team know it. One evening paper tonight declares in flaring headlines, four inches in depth, the members are, and glaringly red—"Well win, says Chance."

John Wesley said that the Cubs would win, but Johnny also has a line of talk about "Don't you think I'm a quitter," and that sort of dope. There are reasons why Evers and Chance should cry "We'll win," and there are reasons why these cries sound absurd.

Put Archer In.
Evers tonight suggested to Chance that he take John Kling out of the game and put Jimmy Archer, former Tiger catcher, in back of the plate.

Johnny said that it might change the Athletics' luck. A lot of others would like to see the quick-armed Archer doing the pitching to second, to check the work Mr. Collins did between the initial sack and the pivot station yesterday afternoon. Many Cub supporters are sure that Chicago will win a couple of games. Maybe the two games scheduled for tomorrow and Friday.

Doping It Out.
The reasons most of them have for believing this is that the Athletics, according to Chicago verdicts, are a strong team at home and a weak club on the road. They say that if the Cubs play them to a tie it is all off.

There seems to be no way of stopping it. The police have tried many means and have not succeeded. It is the same old story.

Members of the two contesting teams, club owners and the other followers of the Athletics gathered in the playhouse tonight. It was a pleasant evening for Athletic followers and a tough night for the Cub routers.

THE UMPIRES ARE APPRECIATED
Methodist Athletic Association Honor Men Who Handled Big Series.

At a meeting of the Methodist Athletic Association held recently, a very interesting event took place in the shape of a double presentation.

In the three final league games of baseball which were played off between Askin Street, for the western section, and Dundas Centre, for the eastern section, two umpires officiated—Messrs. Roy Shannon and Howard Crummer. Each was presented with a handsome gold locket, suitably engraved.

Mr. Mel Morrow, president of the association, made the presentation to Mr. Shannon, while Mr. Bert Childs, secretary, handed the gift to Mr. Crummer. In words which betokened appreciation, the gentlemen thanked the association.

BASKETBALL TEAMS ARE WORKING HARD
Another Strong Practice Held Last Night—Preparing for the Championship Match.

Another basketball practice was held in the Jubilee Rink last night, and, from the ginger displayed by two teams, the game next Wednesday night promises to be the fastest ever played in this city. The teams are fast running into shape, and the team that wins the game, and incidentally the championship of the city, will have to travel every inch of the way.

Hearselessness in a child subject to cough is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given at once or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Contains no poison. Sold by all dealers.

World Series Stars—No. 18

Foxen became a member of the Chicago team late in July, this year, in trade for Fred Luderus. He is a left hander, and when traded by Philadelphia was one of that club's best leavers. He has not had much chance to work since joining the Cubs.

MERCHANTS' LEAGUE PLAYERS' BANQUET
Street Railway and Water Commissioners Will Be Asked For More.

HOCKEY LEAGUE PLANNED
Steps Will Be Taken to Organize Immediately—Large Number Attend.

The first banquet of the Merchants' Baseball League was held last evening in the London House, and was attended by about 50 players and their friends.

The occasion was a most enjoyable one, and it is more than likely the function will become an annual affair.

After the dinner a toast list was presented by the chairman, J. H. Fowler. When the King's health had been drunk, Mr. Fred Stewart responded to the toast of "Our League." He spoke of the success of the league last summer, and expressed the belief that it would be better than ever in the coming year.

Mr. Stewart did not think that the street railway company had given them encouragement at all.

Mr. F. W. Pann replied to the toast of "The Winners." The manager of the Grocers, explained how a winning team could be developed.

"The Other Teams" brought responses from Messrs. George Cook, A. Bridle, L. Beachy, Charles Legg, W. Legg and J. Anderson.

A Hockey League.
Mr. C. Legg suggested a Merchants' Hockey League for the coming winter, and the suggestion was very favorably received. No steps were taken last night to organize it, but a meeting will be held in the near future.

The toast to "Other Sports" was responded to by Ed. J. Ryan, R. Donaghy, Harry Ranahan, Thomas Shaw, James H. Haskett, D. Cushing and Norval Wanless.

It was suggested that the water commissioners be asked to build a grand stand at Springbank to accommodate visitors to the park. This will likely be done at once.

A fine programme of music was provided by the Elvatt brothers and Benham. Mr. Charles Elvatt also sang some comic songs in excellent style.

Good Crowd Present.
Among those present were: Thomas Shaw, Harry Fowler, Ed. J. Ryan, Frank Paul, R. Donaghy, J. H. Haskett, Fred Stewart, G. Gill, J. Webb, A. Bridle, H. Ranahan, W. Bradley, E. Brady, E. Shaw, F. Brill, T. Donaghy, L. Perkins, O. Falkner, J. Coates, L. Beechy, H. Legg, J. Gleeson, A. Taschereau, G. Cook, W. Dowdell, P. Craig, E. Emery, J. White, N. Wanless, J. Bear, George Eccleston, T. Vincent, B. Mitchell, A. Kenny, C. Mitchell, H. Anderson, W. Legg, J. Murray and others.

GIANTS HOLD THE LEAD

Have Won Three to Highlanders' Two and One Was Tied—Second Inning Decided Yesterday.

New York, Oct. 19.—The Highlanders fell upon the Giants' pitchers, Ames and Wilse, and hammered their curves all over the ball yard today, and won the sixth post-season game by a score of 10 to 2. Four doubles, two singles, two bases on balls and an error by Doyle sent eight runs over the plate for the Highlanders in the second inning.

The Giants took to Vaughn's curves kindly in the third inning, driving home two runs. Quinn was called to the pitching mound and stopped further scoring with his spit-ball delivery. The game now stands: Giants three won; Highlanders, two won, and one game tied. The score:

New York, Oct. 19.—The receipts of the sixth game of the championship of Manhattan between the Giants and the Highlanders at American League Park today were $6,041, of which $4,000 was the National Commission will receive $994.45, and the players $5,046.55. The number of paid admissions totaled 1,462.

The clubs will play at the Polo grounds.

WITH THE HORSES
The newspaper dispatches have told with great frequency during the past summer of the victories won on the Grand Circuit by General H., a stallion that has almost invariably won his races, and he has always been referred to as "the Canadian."

It might interest readers of The Advertiser's sports columns to know that this fast horse—his record is 2:04½, made at Lexington, Ky., in a race last week—was owned in Calgary, Alberta, and it is also interesting to note that he is another member of the great Elector family, and is worthy to be classed with Tilton, 1:58½, Walnut Hill, 2:01; Doodle Archdale, 2:05½, and other splendid representatives of that famous family which has achieved peculiar distinction this year, and which has always held such a high place in the esteem of all horse racing devotees.

General H. is a young horse—only six years old. He was sired by Combier, and his dam was General's Queen, by Alandor. Combier, in turn, was by Comander, by Elector, out of Mary Clark, by General Zenton. It is reported that Adolf Schlessinger, of Vienna, Austria, has been endeavoring to buy General H., but it is to be hoped the horse will be returned to the stud in Canada.

Margaret O., 2:05 1-4, by Onward, has a colt at her side by Peter the Great, 2:07 1-4.

Evelyn W., 2:02 3-4, used to be the favorite saddle horse of a Tennessee woman.

There is a weanling by The Harvester, 2:01, down in Tennessee, that is a trotting wonder.

Country Jay, 2:05 1-4, threw out a curb after finishing at Detroit a few weeks ago, ending his racing for 1910.

Claire Point, 2:20, owned by John Vipond, of Altoona, Pa., died at Altoona Driving Park, Oct. 8, of bowel trouble.

Meston, 2:20, sire of Monticola, 2:15 1-4, and Munchausen, 2:19 1-4, died recently at the Riverside Stock Farm, Weston, Va.

May Dillon, 2:10 1-4, a winner at Sedalia, Mo., is 5-year-old chestnut by Baron Dillon, Jun., out of Flora, by Rosebery, 2:15 3-4.

Princess Hal, 2:08 1-4, is a full sister to Prince Hal, 2:06 3-4, both bred by Star Hal, 2:04 3-4, and out of Lady H., by Alcameda, 2:19 3-4.

Lon McDonald thinks he secured the bargain of the recent Kentucky sale in yearling colt by Bob Douglas, 2:04 1-4, out of a mare by Chatterton, 2:18.

J. H. Conklyn, of Mechanicsburg, Ohio, has leased Malcolm Forbes, the brother to Admiral Devoy, 2:04 3-4. He is by Bingen, 2:06 1-4, out of Nancy Hanks, 2:04.

Cleans Silver Quickly.
You can clean more silver with Wonder-Shine in half an hour than with pastes or powders in half a day, and clean it better. In the yellow package—ask your druggist.

Never heard much about Claude Derrick, did you? Well, few of the fans around the big league circuits have, either, but he is a youngster who may play an important role in the world's series games all the same.

Derrick is a member of the Mackmen from Greenville, S. C. He is a shortstop, and by men who have watched him perform, among whom are C. Mack, he is said to be a wonderful fielder and thrower. Derrick was "discovered" by Capt. Harry Davis, of the Mackmen, in Greenville last spring.

So impressed was Davis that he begged Mack to tie a string to Derrick. Connie listened, and when he saw Derrick at work, he corralled him. To guard against possible accidents, Mack had the youngster report in time to make him eligible for the world's series. Now should anything happen to his infield, Mack is well fortified with capable substitutes for every position.

OFFICER IS CHARGED WITH BEATING PRISONER
Alleged That P. C. Snyder Struck With His Fist An Aged Vagrant.

There will likely be an investigation by the police commissioners into a charge that P. C. Snyder struck with his fist William Brophy, of Petrolia, an aged vagrant, last night about 12:30 p.m., after placing the man under arrest.

A citizen complained to The Advertiser today about the officer's conduct, and the police commissioners were notified by a reporter.

According to the citizen's story, the old man was arrested by the officer at the corner of York and Clarence shortly after midnight. The citizen had just got off the Sarnia train when he noticed the two arguing. Brophy did not want to go to the police station, but he offered no resistance. He kept up a continual fire of conversation, however, when the officer, it is alleged, hit him in the face with his fist.

The citizen remonstrated with the policeman, and was informed that he would be taken in, too, if he did not mind his own business.

"I did not know what the old man was arrested for, but he was going along willingly with the officer," the gentleman stated to The Advertiser. "He was old, and no matter what he said he should not be slapped by a policeman. I remonstrated, but was told to mind my business on pain of being arrested."

"No officer should hit a man, unless he is compelled to do so to defend himself," said P. M. Love. "No matter what the prisoner is arrested for, he should be given decent treatment. No man should be abused. We will make inquiries into the matter."

TOO MUCH RUBBER
Washington, Oct. 20.—Speculation in rubber, which aroused so much interest in London, extended to China, and led to such a financial stringency in Shanghai that several Chinese guild banks were obliged to close and business confidence was seriously impaired.

Mr. Calhoun, the United States minister to China, reports that, at his request the Chinese foreign office authorized the viceroy of Shanghai to effect a loan of $2,047,500 with an American banking corporation, which had the effect of restoring confidence.
