BELGIUM IS TO SIGN TREATY WITH DUTCH

PARIS, Jan. 30 .- The Nation Belge prints the text of a treaty between Belgium and Holland which is on the point of being signed, says the Echo de Paris' Brussels correspondent. It is declared in Brussels the correspondent adds that once the text of the treaty is known opinion will be aroused to such an extent as to make its signing impossible.

GOVERNMENT MUM ABOUT RANEY SEAT

TORONTO, Jan. 30 .- It had been expected that an official announcement as to the constituency in which Hon. W. E. Raney, attorney-general, will seek a seat in the Legislature would have been made today, but no anouncement from the Government was forthcoming.
Hon. R. H. Grant, minister of educa-tion, who is chairman of the U. F. O. seat-hunting committee, and who made the official announcements with reference to the by-elections for Premier Drury and Hon. Manning Doherty, minister of agriculture, was out of the city today. The formal announcement as to where Hon. Mr. Raney is to be placed is expected to come from Hon. Mr. Grant.

A striking feature of the Bank's statement was an increase of $6,546,000 in the immediately available assets, the total of these being $70,075,000, a sum equal to 54 per cent of the liabilities to the public. Cash assets alone at $31,903,000 made a gain of $3,405,000 during the year. Total assets $143,500,000 are $10,000,000 greater than a year ago.

An evidence of the Bank's business expansion is to be found in the commercial loans, the total at the end of the cial loans, the total at the end of the year being $66,400,000, which is in ex-cess of that of the corresponding period of 1918 by $2.328,000.

The total note circulation at the en of the year was $9,525,000, or $332,00 less than at December 31, 1918.

In a short time it was realized that the church building was doomed. The flames spread so rapidly that it was a case of everybody grabbing coats wraps and hats and making a hurried exit to escape death in the burning building.

Only the walls were left standing. The loss is estimated at about $75,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Would Export Goods.

In an editorial this morning the Times advocated enabling distressed Europe to start up industries again, so that it can export goods. This could be done, it says, by loans from creditor nations, and the loans preferably should be raised through public subscriptions. The newspaper urges the discouragement, and even the prohibition, of the importation of unnecessary articles.

"If an international agreement could be secured." says the Times, "binding both debtor and creditor countries to take action along these lines a check would be administered to the headlong fall in exchange."
