WILL NOT SIGN SCHOOL BILLS

Trustee Edwin Smith Predicts Settlement Collegiate Institute Deal.

Has Given Definite Orders
That Matters Be "Speeded Up."

"I positively refuse to sign any vouchers for the payment of any bills in connection with the construction of the Central Collegiate Institute."

Declaring himself to this effect Friday morning, School Trustee Edwin Smith, chairman of the board of education, gave assurance that the Collegiate Institute deal, involving the Kingston Construction Company, would be "cleaned up" before the end of the month.

This question has been allowed to dangle along in a nonchalant manner for a sufficient period now, the chairman explains, and he has directed, he asserts, that events be speeded up a trifle. "I have been after School Architect L. E. Carrothers to rush things through," he says. "The board has ordered a settlement and we want to see the conclusion of this affair."

Chairman Smith states that the board is still waiting for a detailed statement from the Kingston Construction Company, and assures that not until this is at hand will he sign his name to a voucher of any description.

In the meanwhile there are several sub-contractors who have entered claims for amounts said to be due them, varying from a few hundred to several thousand dollars, and whether the board has withheld an adequate sum for this purpose has yet to be determined.

Architect Carrothers evinced pleasure Friday that the chairman proposed to hasten matters. "They can't move too quick to please me," he commented breezily, declining, however, to shed further light upon the situation.

W. A. Tanner, secretary of the board, is somewhat inclined to discount the seriousness of the question, and holds that he "knows more about what is going on than the other officials, and that the alleged debts do not eclipse the money withheld."

WIDOWS BROUGHT TO ARMY HOSTEL FIND HUSBANDS

Happily Established in Homes After But Three Months in Canada.

"Widows are wonderful?" At any rate, two of the thirteen widows brought out by the Salvation Army to Miffield Lodge here, have already found second husbands and become happily established in comfortable homes within a few months of their landing in Canada.

Adjutant Atkinson performed the first marriage ceremony, held in Mil-field Lodge, Wednesday night, when the second of the two widows was married, the first having been married at Montreal but a short time ago.

Nearly two hundred women have been brought out by the Salvation Army, and through the agency of Miffield Lodge, comfortable homes, in domestic service, found for all.
Of this number thirteen have been widows, nearly all with families.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

And I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me.—Isaiah 6:8.

NO man ever worked his passage anywhere in a dead calm. Let no man was pale, therefore, because of opposition.—John Neale.

JUDGE JUDD will preside at the next session of the Sania Division Court, which will open in that city Tuesday, October 10.

ON TUESDAY NEXT City Clerk Sam Baker goes to Preston to address the "civic association" in that community upon the question of civic taxation.

THE FEAST of the Tabernacles, one of the most solemn ceremonies in the Jewish year, commences Friday night, lasting a week. The custom amongst orthodox Jews, it is learned, was to take all meals outside the house, in a sort of shack, with grass-covered roof.

THE LONDON TECHNICAL and High School will be open again all next week for registration in the special night classes, owing to the fact that in many places the opening of night classes has been postponed on account of warm weather.
Classes at the Technical School have been running now, however, for more than a week.

MAYOR CAMERON WILSON can find a leader in the person of Ald.
John Ashton, one of Ward 2's representatives. The latter holds that viewing the situation "by and large" as it were, the present chief magistrate has been the equal at least of any previous mayor that the city has ever had. "They are all about the same as far as general labor is concerned," he says.

THE FIRST COPIES of the civic voters' lists for the municipal election have been completed on schedule time by City Clerk Baker's staff, and a copy now hangs in a convenient place in his office, where it awaits the consideration of the electors.
Directly sufficient copies are at hand they will be placed in the customary places about the city where they may be consulted by the general public and any errors or omissions noted.

PLANS FOR ERECTING a rifle range in the basement of the church and arrangements for the completion of the bowling alley were made at the organization meeting of the Men's Brotherhood of St. James' Anglican Church, South London, held Thursday night. Officers elected for the coming year were the following: E.
Hessel, president; W. Arnold, vice-president; Colin Palmer, treasurer.
Conveners for each month's program were appointed, and an excellent schedule of work for the coming year outlined.

ACT WILL REDUCE CITY ILLITERATES

Principal Beal Declares Adolescent School Attendance Regulation Will Not Increase Professionals.

"Judging by the number of students who have enrolled in our special classes, with only a sixth or seventh grade standing in public school work, the adolescent school attendance act will tend rather to lessen the number of illiterate people, than to the undue increase of professionals," stated Principal Beal of the London Technical and High School, Friday morning, with reference to the formation of special classes for adolescents at the Technical School.

"By the end of next week," the principal said, "we expect to have our arrangements complete to give the students vocational work in addition to regular academic studies."

"Practically all of the 116 adolescents who are in attendance are evinencing a decided interest in the work, particularly in vocational branches, and we are anxious to make arrangements as soon as possible for the girls who wish to take up a commercial course, dressmaking or millinery and boys who want the practical work in the machine shop."

Principal Beal's strong refutation of the argument that the act will make professionals a drug on the market is based on the fact that over 50 per cent of the adolescents who have joined the classes had attained only a seventh grade standing in public school.

BRING OUT YOUR BEADED

FASHIONABLE.

everything in beads are very fashionable again, especially beaded bags sold by John A. Nash, My Jeweler, Believes Street Cars Would Pay

As Night Lunch and Coffee Stalls

George Wenige has a new solution for the local street railway problem that should receive the consideration of Mayor Wilson's special transportation committee, he thinks.

He advances the suggestion that the red flag be hung out at the car burns, indicating an auction sale in progress, and an effort should be made to induce a catering concern with a little money to spare, to invest in the 50 or 60 cars still at the company's disposal.

WILL CAMPAIGN TO BOOST FUND

United Welfare Organization Sets Aside One Week For Work.

Wants $17,000 to Provide 14 Institutions With Needed Money.

As the United Welfare Campaign held last June fell short of the objective of $125,000, the executive have selected the week of Oct. 9 for the completion of the drive, when a last appeal will be made to the citizens for funds to maintain the charitable institutions of the city.

It is estimated by the executive committee that the sum of $17,000 will be necessary to make good their obligations to the fourteen welfare associations and institutions participating in the campaign. No provision was made on this year's budget for building costs, and the objective of $125,000 represented the lowest possible amount with which the various institutions could complete their fiscal year.

Gordon Philip, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, pointed out that the raising of the additional $17,000 was an absolute necessity, declaring that he thought the majority of citizens would agree with the executive that these organizations should not be allowed to struggle through the winter lacking the funds necessary for their actual needs.

The 1922 campaign was held in June, when a number of people had already left town on holiday, and the occurrence of a Wednesday half-holiday during the winter days set for the canvass also badly interfered with the work of the campaign personnel.
As a result a number of people were not approached by the teams, and any who were overlooked will be given an opportunity to subscribe next week.

Examination of the subscriptions received has convinced the executive committee that quite a number of subscribers casually donated a $5 or $10 bill or whatever they happened to have in their pocket at the time, apparently not realizing that their subscription was supposed to represent their contribution to fourteen different campaigns.

The executive claim that these subscribers were in effect buying immunity from fourteen canvasses with an inadequate sum. Others again have given generously, but not up to the general standard, and it is proposed to make a further appeal to them, and to all those generous citizens who recognize the importance of the work done by the city's welfare organizations, and the absolute necessity of providing them with the necessary funds.

JUVENILE SENT TO INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

Companion in Theft Is On Week's Remand at Children's Shelter.

George, one of the two juveniles who escaped from the children's shelter a few days ago, and committed a series of thefts when he appeared in juvenile court before Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon this morning. His companion, John, who is on week's remand at the shelter, originally the kids who are years old, were arrested for stealing a horse and buggy, and were sent to the shelter for a trial.

From there they escaped at noon on Wednesday, stole a horse and buggy, abandoned the outfit the corner of Bedford and Trafalgar streets, and then took three bicycles and an overcoat.
They left the bicycles at the L. and P.
S. R. station, but met their Waterloo brother, who was suspicious, and so was an officer standing near by. He arrested them late on Wednesday night, and recovered the coat.

According to the story told the detectives by the boys, they took the overcoat from a motor car. Police are searching for the owner of the coat, which is plum-colored, with six pockets, and which bears the name of a Toronto clothing house.

VISIT OF MAYOR SURPRISES
PUBLIC UTILITIES BOARD

Wilson Drops in Unannounced to Help in "Making Quorum."

Public utilities looked and looked and then looked again Thursday afternoon when their numbers were unexpectedly strengthened by the arrival of Mayor Wilson.

The latter dropped in unannounced just as the session was well underway, remaining pleasantly that "they might have need of a quorum." Commissioner Jared Vining, director of ceremonies, welcomed his worship, and recovering from their seeming surprise, the other members resumed their consideration of the proposal to place another floor on the utility building.

As near as any person present could recall, it was the mayor's first visit for months. The commissioners expressed pleasure with his company.

Then the wheels could be removed, he points out, and the remainder of the structures placed at strategic corners throughout the city for midnight lunch-rooms of the "Owl" type, to be encountered in the great profusion in other communities.

"Then you will be able to declare dividends," asserted Mr. Wenige Friday, "on hot coffee and hot dogs, if the cars wouldn't stay fixed, you could tie them down."

I SPIED TODAY

PRIZE FOR BEST ITEM DAILY.

YOU must see something going on every day. Perhaps not a big thing, but interesting. The Advertiser wants you to send it for use in the "I Spied" column. Every reader a reporter is the idea behind the plan. The items must not be written to "take a stab" at any person. If so, they will not be published.

In order to create interest in the column, the GRAND OPERA HOUSE has donated two seats each night as a prize for the best item of the day. Your name and address must accompany the item, and it can run with only your initial attached if you desire. The contest is on. WHO WANTS TO GO TO THE GRAND?

If "A. E. R." in Thursday's "I Spied" column will call at The Advertiser office today or Saturday, he will be given two tickets to the Grand Theatre, Saturday. Names, although they will not be published, must accompany items. Matter must be original.

REFUSE TO HALT TESTS OF HERDS

Health Officials Not Perturbed by Mass Meeting of Milk Dealers.

Board of health officials are not in the least perturbed by the announcement that certain of the local dealers have called a general mass meeting to air their protest in connection with the provincial tubercular test of cattle now in progress.

Dr. C. S. Tamin, inspector of herds and dairies, gave assurance Friday that the testing would proceed as scheduled, and that all dealers who then declined to accept the inevitable, must abide by the consequences.

Dr. Tamin, chief medical officer of health, expresses the opinion that there is certain misunderstanding prevailing among the milkmen in respect to the sum allowed for each animal destroyed after tubercular germs have been noted.

"It is a provincial ruling," he explains, "that they receive $40 for each animal, as well as whatever is considered a just amount for the sale of the carcass as beef."

HOLD FIRE DRILLS IN CITY SCHOOLS

Fire Prevention Week Finds London Systems Working Splendidly.

As this is "fire prevention week" in the city, fire drills are being conducted with unexcelled results in the various schools of the city.

Chairman Edwin Smith of the board of education reports that during a brief inspection of certain of the institutions he was impressed by the remarkable showing of the pupils, who, under the direction of their teachers and pupils, reached the outer air in record time.

"I was at the Colborne Street South School," relates Trustee Smith, "where the pupils are mostly little ones, and although the school consists of two floors, they cleared the place in 55 seconds."

The chairman states that he visited other schools where he noted the same satisfactory results. Pupils in the Ealing School were outside in 45 seconds.

MEN'S BROTHERHOODS HOLD UNION MEETINGS

Plan Great Activities for Coming Year Hoping to Achieve Much.

The Men's Brotherhoods in the city are busy planning for the coming year, and are now busy arranging programs for their Sunday meetings and for their week-day activities. It is noticeable that there is a steadily growing tendency for the brother-hoods to associate their efforts for the ends that they are seeking to achieve.

Union meetings of a number of the brotherhoods are a feature of this year's work. Two weeks ago there was a big rally at Hyatt Avenue Methodist church, and a week from next Sunday, Oct. 15, there is to be a similar rally at Askin Street Methodist Church, to which the brother-hoods from all parts of the city are being invited. Mr. J. F. Maine is to be the chief speaker, and Mr. A. E.
Silverhood, of St. Andrew's Brotherhood, has been asked to be chairman of the meeting.

SEE SACRIFICE IN WATKINSON

Labor Representatives Believe Alderman To Be Used as Vote Splitter.

Think Plan to Insure Wilson Another Term Being Hatched.

Is Alderman Fred R. Watkinson to be offered up as a sacrifice at the next municipal election?

Representative labor leaders believe that in this solution they have "hit the nail on the head" respecting the campaign still in progress, with Alderman Watkinson in the next mayorality race, as the ultimate objective.

It is still quite possible, the labor chiefs believe, that Mayor Cameron Wilson will seek re-election, but they discern, they add, a certain motive behind sudden and determined efforts by members of the city council, as well as certain elements exclusive of that body, to bring Alderman Watkinson to the fore as a mayoralty candidate.

Should the latter allow his name to stand after nomination day, he will serve a purpose, they say, by splitting the vote and thereby insure the return of the present incumbent of the mayor's chair, should he also remain in the field.

As anticipated, the definite announcement that it is proposed in certain quarters that Alderman Watkinson be at the barrier when the race opens, meets with not a little suspicion at the Labor Temple.

Whether Alderman Watkinson, despite his quarrel last spring with the Labor party, will receive their indorsement is a question yet to be considered by the central group.

Civic affairs will receive the consideration of No. 1 branch of the headquarters Friday night.

DESTROY 7 DOGS OF FINE BREEDING

Humane Society Receives Orders to Put Away Vicious Animals.

Within the last three days seven dogs of excellent breed have been, on account of viciousness, destroyed at the London Humane Society Kennels, either by order of court or at the owner's request.

Friday morning a collie dog, which Inspector Tustin claims to be one of the finest animals in the city, was destroyed at its owner's request and the inspector is at a loss to account for the state of the dogs.

At present in the kennels there are four fine dogs, for which the inspector is anxious to find homes in the country, refusing them, however, to residents of the city.

"I cannot speak too highly of the improvement in the condition of horses," Inspector Tustin said, comparing fall this year with the same season last year. "This year, since the end of the summer, I have only had to issue one warning for a light cruelty to a horse while at work."

CONTRACT IS LET FOR UNIVERSITY

P. H. Secord & Sons, Brantford, Will Erect Arts
Building.

At a meeting of the Western University building committee, held Thursday afternoon in John M. Moore's office, tenders for the construction of the new arts building, and the chimney of the new boiler house were opened.

The new main arts building will be erected by P. H. Secord & Sons, Brantford, at an estimated cost of $150,000, while the Weber-Chalmers Company, Chicago, will construct the new boiler house chimney, to cost $6,000.

Construction on both buildings, Col.
Brown pointed out, will be well advanced by the time the new year begins, so as to be ready, if possible, for the 1923 fall opening.

FORWARDS $250 TO FIRE DISTRICT

Salvation Army Acts at Once to Help Northern Ontario Refugees.

In response to a request from the Toronto headquarters, the local division of the Salvation Army will forward $250 as its share of the Army relief fund for the sufferers in the Northern Ontario fire.

A wire received at the local headquarters Friday morning stated that an amount well into the thousands had already been raised by the Salvation Army and that $250 had been fixed as the local quota, the amount to be raised either by special emergency appeal or from whatever funds were available.

LOCAL ENGINEERS
TO HOLD SESSION

London members of the Engineering Institute of Canada will participate Saturday in an inspection trip to eight municipal points of engineering interest.

This is the first fall session of the organization. The members will assemble at 2:30 p.m. at City Engineer Brazier's office, where automobiles will be had and the journey commence.
Supper will be served at 6:30 p.m. at the De Luxe Cafe.

Collect $37,056 in Fines As Crime Increases During Year

POLICE court returns for the year ending Sept. 30 show that 214 summary trials of prisoners charged with indictable offenses, compared to 185 for the year previous, were held. The trials of persons charged with non-indictable offenses totalled 3,012.

A total of $37,056.55 in fines was collected in the police court clerk's office during the year.
Other fines imposed, but not paid, totalled half of this amount. The persons on whom these latter fines were levied preferred terms in jail to paying.
A copy of the returns, which is composed of 86 sheets, and which entailed a great deal of work was forwarded to the Dominion minister of agriculture by Police Court Clerk John Moule.

W. MISSION CIRCLE ELECTS OFFICERS

Mrs. D. McDermid Chosen as Head of Society at Talbot Street Church.

Receipts for the year, totaling $747.50, were reported at the annual meeting, held on Thursday afternoon, of the Women's Mission Circle of Talbot Street Baptist Church, this morning. Miss C. Jeffries, of the department from the home department, which has 145 members, $24 from the foreign department, with a membership of 141; $148.50 for the Laura Allen fund and $100, the gift of an unknown friend for life membership.

Proceeds of the thank-offering meeting, held Monday evening, addressed by Rev. H. E. Stilwell of Toronto, foreign missions secretary of the Canadian Baptist Church, amounted to $146. Mrs. Minihnick gave a most encouraging report of the foreign department. Miss C. Jeffries, of the home, and Mrs. J. W. Jones, of the Laura Allen fund, to aid with the work of the circle's own missionary in India.

Mrs. F. W. Wilson told of the activities of the "Little Jewels" Band.
Mrs. Bowley Green, wife of the new pastor, has consented to assist Mrs.
Wilson in supervising the Little Jewels during the coming year.

A most pleasing feature of the meeting was the announcement that an unknown friend had given $100 to provide for four life memberships, for Mrs. B. Bryant, Mrs. McGill, Miss Laird and Miss Cathro.

Mrs. D. H. McDermid, president; J. N. Jones, and R. G. Wilson were appointed delegates to the Women's Mission Circle convention of the Baptist Church in Ontario and Quebec to be held in Peterboro, November 8 and 9.

The report presented by the convener of the nominating committee, Mrs. A. J. Clarke, was unanimously accepted as follows:

Honorary presidents, Mrs. Griffith and Mrs. Bowley Green; presi-

LORNE AVENUE MOTHERS' CLUB HAS FIRST MEETING

Entertains Mrs. John A. Rose, Union President—Plans for Rummage Sale.

Like other Mother's Clubs of the city, which have held their first meetings of the autumn season this month, the Lorne Avenue Mother's Club on Thursday evening welcomed a number of new members. Mrs.
John A. Rose, president of the London Union Mother's Club, was guest of honor of the occasion, giving a lucid explanation of the constitution. Arrangements were made for a rummage sale the last Saturday in October, and also to entertain the staff of the school during November.
Miss Edna Brown, delighted with solos, and Miss Doris Horland with piano numbers.

A large share of the evening was devoted to getting acquainted with the newcomers over tempting refreshments, served by the social committee, consisting of Mrs. Luck, convener, and Mesdames C. Beaumont, Eggett, Vining, Gohly and T. Clift.
