

SENTENCE SUSPENDED ON KLAN ORGANIZER

British Battalion Ordered To Proceed At Once To Egypt

ASSASSIN OF SIRDAR ARRESTED

British Battalion at Malta Is Ordered to Proceed to Egypt.
ACTION DEMANDED
British Press Demands Grant of Independence to Egypt Be Revoked.

Associated Press Despatch, London, Nov. 22.—A special despatch from Cairo says one of the alleged assassins of Sir Lee Stack has been arrested after a confession by the taxicab driver, who was held following the shooting of the sirdar.

BATTALION ORDERED.
Associated Press Despatch, Valetta, Malta, Nov. 22.—The first battalion of the East Lancashire regiment has been suddenly ordered to Egypt and will sail next Wednesday.

ACTION DEMANDED.
Associated Press Despatch, London, Nov. 22.—The British public is expecting and the majority of the London press is demanding that the government take firm action toward Egypt in connection with the assassination in Cairo of Major-General Sir Lee Stack, governor-general of the Sudan and sirdar of the Egyptian army. The opinion is widely expressed that notwithstanding the Egyptian officials' compliance with the customary formalities and their expressions of regret the murder was actually a political crime originating in a desire to oust the British from the Sudan.

The Daily Mail editorially demands that Great Britain revoke its grant of independence to Egypt, which it maintains has shown a lack of political capacity. The other commentators are less drastic, but contend that Egypt must be roundly told that Great Britain will stand for no more outrages and that the Cairo government must punish the criminals and pay an indemnity. At the same time these writers hope that the London government will not act hot-headedly or in a panic.

Bad Impression Created.
A bad impression has been caused here by news from Cairo that Colonel M. T. Russell, commandant of the Cairo police, and a member of the Egyptian ministry of the interior, have requested Lord Allenby that he investigate the sensation, believing that such investigation could be more satisfactorily made through other channels at the disposal of the Egyptian government. Special despatches from Cairo say the action of the two officials was inspired by their experience in previous inquiries into the murders of British officers in Egypt and the belief that their attempts to fix responsibility were likely to be balked by interested persons. Moreover, it is believed that the Egyptian government ought to be responsible for bringing the criminals to justice.

Cabinet Held Ready.
The British government has given no indication of its proposed action, but the political writers concur in stating that the ministers take a very serious view of the situation. Those members of the cabinet who

WHY NOT WENIGE?

The Advertiser believes that George Wenige should no longer be mayor of London, and here are its reasons—an energy that means only quarrelling—not sincerity but vote catching.

The Advertiser, after two years of observation, believes that George Wenige should no longer be mayor of London. The Advertiser also believes that John Anderson has the ability and qualities necessary for a good mayor and that the voters of London should elect him.

This double belief creates two questions. The first question is: WHY SHOULD WENIGE NO LONGER BE MAYOR?

Wenige should no longer be mayor because he has not been a good mayor. He is not the man London believed him to be two years ago.

It is therefore only gradually and with reluctance that the Advertiser has been compelled to change its opinion and to accept the conclusion which it has frequently expressed during the last few months, that Wenige as a mayor will not do.

ENERGY MISDIRECTED.
Wenige has energy. But Wenige has devoted that energy to stirring up strife where he should have created unity; he has devoted it to tooting his own horn where he should have worked quietly at the city's business. His energy has been misdirected and damaging.

Energy with Wenige means quarrelling and attacking and probing and abuse and getting his own way whether right or wrong. Wenige's energy has merely given London two city councils which have done little but quarrel, and a lot of city officials who are forced to spend half their time defending their jobs.

THERE IS NO SINCERITY.
And Wenige's energy has not been accompanied by sincerity. There can be no other conclusion after watching him for two years.

HE IS A POLITICIAN.
Wenige is not a sincere man. He is a schemer and a politician first, last and all the time. To give him his due, he is the most adroit politician London has had for a long time, but London does not want a schemer and a politician for mayor. Such a man is unsafe.

Wenige is a politician. He will take any stand, support any cause which will suit the need of the moment. HE HAS NO CONVICTION BEYOND A VOTE FOR WENIGE.
He has done it for two years and here are three examples:

- 1 The communist candidate for alderman, Lawrence Menzies, hails Wenige as a "red" and an enemy of the "capitalistic" chamber of commerce, and Wenige, believing that meeting to be unfriendly toward the chamber of commerce, smiles and bows and says "hurrah."
But Wenige at the same time is a member of the chamber of commerce, and at their meetings talks loudly of "co-operation and boosting London industries."
- 2 At the recent liquor plebiscite Wenige by use of his name gave the impression that he was a member of the Moderation League and an advocate of government sale.
But at the same time Wenige told a mothers' club meeting addressed by Mrs. Gordon Calder that he believed in prohibition and its benefits.
- 3 Wenige goes to both Conservative and Liberal rallies; he claps them both on the back; he hints that he might be a candidate for both; he then states that he will be a candidate for neither.

The fact is that Wenige is neither a "red" nor a businessman; neither wet nor dry; neither Conservative nor Liberal. He has no convictions. He is that most unfortunate of creatures—the man who sits on the fence.

WENIGE IS NOTHING AT HEART EXCEPT A VOTE CATCHER. The Advertiser can form no other conclusion after a fairly intimate observation of him for two years, and it is time that the voters of London awakened to the same unpleasant truth.

TWO YEARS OF WENIGE ARE ENOUGH; THE VOTERS SHOULD CHOOSE JOHN ANDERSON.
That conclusion leads to the second question: WHAT CLAIM HAS ANDERSON?
The Advertiser will deal with that question on the front page of Monday evening's edition.

THAMESFORD HIGHWAY OPENS NEXT FRIDAY

Rapid Construction Work Leaves Strip Completed to Ingersoll.

The provincial highway from Thamesford to Ingersoll will be officially opened by Hon. G. S. Henry, provincial minister of public works, on Friday of next week, according to the secretary of the London Motor club. This is the latest information which he has received from the department of highways.

This stretch of the provincial highway has been constructed rapidly this summer, at one time being staked that the contractors were making a mile a week of pavement. It is a solid concrete-topped road, and is not built on the lines of the Sprybank road or the Sarnia gravel road, with two strips of concrete and a gravel center strip for teams.

BALDWIN'S MOVE IS COMMENDED

Conference With Dominion's Representatives Considered Move in Right Direction.

Associated Press Despatch, London, Nov. 22.—Dominion circles here warmly welcome Premier Baldwin's departure in having a private conference with the high commissioners this week, and they regard this step as being in the right direction and probably the first of many such consultations, purely private in their nature, and enabling the high commissioners and the British premier to engage in the freest exchange of opinion on a number of subjects of mutual interest to Great Britain and the dominions.

While no information has been forthcoming as to the matters discussed on Tuesday, there is no doubt that the chief topic of discussion was the Geneva peace and arbitration protocol. In this connection it is believed that Justice Chamberlain, foreign secretary, outlined the imperial government's intentions to the representatives of the dominions, and that the latter were satisfied therewith.

EDUCATION IS CALLED LABOR'S URGENT NEED
Bayley Urges Workers to Place Candidates in Municipal Fields.

Canadian Press Despatch, Ottawa, Nov. 22.—Labor's chance lies through proper and true education, and labor workers should see that labor is represented on school and educational boards, so that teachers and labor workers together may have someone to back them, said W. D. Bayley, M.L.A., of Assiniboia, Man., in speaking on labor education before the allied trades and labor council here.

Mr. Bayley urged members of the council to work for labor victories in politics, especially in educational politics. Industrial organization had gone as far as it could go, he said, and it was only by either education or revolution that labor could advance still further.

CHIEF FINDS HIMSELF IN BAD WAY

Sturgeon Falls Law Officer Wonders What Course to Pursue.

COUNCIL BACKED
People of Wet Town Satisfied With Action Taken by Council.

Special to The Advertiser, by a Staff Correspondent.
Sturgeon Falls, Nov. 22.—Sprawled in the angle of the Sturgeon River and Lake Nipissing lies the town, which has given Ontario its newest sensation.

Chief of Police A. Cusson finds himself in a difficult position in consequence of the council's action. He must discharge his duty as he sees it, he declares, and he must, presumably obey the orders of his superior officers and employers, the town council, nor can he because of his position, express any opinions he may hold as to the validity of the council's action. For the present, he is charged to enforce to the exact policy which he will pursue.

Sturgeon Falls was once, presumably, renowned for its strength of character. It has had two principal claims to fame—its French and English model school, and its one and only Zoltine Maceau, M. P. But today both the model school and Zoltine are eclipsed. By the action of its council, Sturgeon Falls is today in the spotlight as the town which has refused to enforce the most part of weather-beaten lumber, with here and there a brick addition.

Sturgeon Falls, for the most part, stands firm behind its council in all that it does, but with one voice dissenting. It is now a week ago that the resolution in question was passed, and since that time nothing has been done under the O. T. A. But that may be a coincidence.

PORT STANLEY COTTAGES MOVED BACK FROM CLIFF
Despite the efforts on the part of the owners to halt the water washing away their land, two cottages at Port Stanley have been moved back from the shore recently.

The large summer residence of J. H. Chapman of this city, which is situated at East Orchard beach, had to be moved back 500 feet to avoid the cottage falling into the lake. It was on the verge of the 100-foot cliff when moved.

Another cottage has also been moved back and it is thought with the present alarming disappearance of the land, more cottages will be moved in the spring.

This is a yearly occurrence at Port Stanley, the cottagers buying enough land behind their cottages to assure safety for three or four years.

INSTINCT SAVES LIFE AS MOOSE CHARGES
Veteran Trapper Shoots Giant Bull When a Second Means Death.

Associated Press Despatch, Port Arthur, Nov. 21.—Angus Meyer, veteran trapper and settler, had a thrilling adventure in Dorion township when going over his trapline. A giant bull moose appeared suddenly in the narrow trail and charged on Meyer, who refused the challenge and attempted to escape into the bush.

In the excitement he tripped and a moment later the gigantic animal towered over him ready to stamp the human obstruction into the ground or tear it to shreds with his sharp hoofs.

Meyer, who with a huntsman's instinct had managed to cling to his rifle and his wits, fired upward, killing the big animal instantly.

He states that thrills of these short seconds will last him a lifetime.

OUTLOOK GIVES PRAISE TO ABILITY OF AMERY
Associated Press Despatch, London, Nov. 22.—Lieut. Colonel L. C. Amery, the new colonial secretary, has a better knowledge of the empire than all the other officials in the colonial office put together, the Outlook says.

With reference to suggested reforms in the colonial office, so far as the relations between the dominions and the mother country are concerned, the Outlook says: "The ultimate obstacle to reform is that some of the dominions, especially Canada, are not prepared for any closer association with British policy. The best friend the colonial office ever had was Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who came to regard its conservatism as a bulwark against centrists, of whom he seemed to live in terror."

"RADIUM SEEDS" OPERATION MAY CURE DEADLY CANCER

Medical Men Witness Latest Experiment to Combat Dreaded Disease. PREVENT SPREAD

Philadelphia, Nov. 20.—An experimental operation which, it is confidently believed, will show the way for surgeons to conquer malignant interior cancers was performed for the first time in medical history today at the Bellevue-Stratford, where the Eastern Homoeopathic Medical Association is holding its annual convention.

Dr. Eushrod James, a hospital surgeon, performed the operation in a clinic attended by many of the most eminent men of the profession.

Tiny agents, known as "radium seeds," were placed in a cancerous growth in the abdomen of a woman patient. These "seeds" are glass tubes, about one-sixteenth of an inch long, and about as large around as a small pencil lead. In each tube is glass, the emanations of the Beta ray, or radium.

Four of them were put in the center of the growth, and a ring of them placed to fence it off from adjacent organs. For 21 days, according to Dr. James, the tubes will send forth curative influences, changing the diseased tissue into healthy tissue.

The confidence in the experiment is based largely by the fact that similar treatment has proved successful with surface cancers. Never before has the method been tried on an interior growth.

One feature of the operation, according to the prophecy of the surgeon, will take care of a condition which has hindered the treatment of interior cancers most. Methods hitherto used have usually cured the growth in one place, but it has moved to another. The wall of "radium seeds," it is believed, will prevent this spread.

DOMINION GOVERNMENT NOT AGREEABLE TO PLAN
Associated Press Despatch, London, Nov. 22.—Strong objection is taken by Rev. F. E. Powell, chairman of the Toronto board of education, to a meeting billed for the Central Technical school next Monday evening, at which Agnes McPhail, M.P., is scheduled to speak on "The School and Peace."

A circular advertising the meeting is headed "Mothers, Do You Want Your Boys Trained to Be Soldiers?" and goes on to advise all those who are opposed to military training in the schools to attend the meeting. The permit for the use of the school was granted on the recommendation of Dr. McKay, its principal, and Rev. Mr. Powell is endeavoring to have it cancelled.

MONTEITH TO APPEAR IN 2 WEEKS

Ku Klux Klan Organizer Is Allowed To Go on Suspended Sentence.

WEST LORNE MAN
Several Hamilton Women Are Believed To Be Enlisted in Secret Order.

Special to The Advertiser, Hamilton, Nov. 22.—Charles A. I. Mand Monteith, West Lorne, self-styled Ku Klux Klan organizer here, was today in police court allowed to go on suspended sentence on a charge of carrying a loaded revolver. He must appear in court two weeks from today for sentence.

Monteith was arrested recently in the Orange hall here. On searching him at the police station, Detectives Gillespie and Blankley, who made the arrest found considerable K. K. K. literature in his possession and also several Klan application cards which had been filed in by local women.

On three occasions Hamilton residents were alarmed by the blazing of fiery crosses high in the gloom of the mountains. Then followed whistles of threats to certain citizens and then came the arrest of Monteith.

Police, however, do not believe that he had any connection with the warnings sent out, but believe he is merely in Hamilton in an endeavor to secure a footing for the Klan in Ontario.

SMITH IS INSTALLED AS MAYOR OF DETROIT
Bowles Abandons Fight For Office, But Still Claims Majority.

Associated Press Despatch, Detroit, Mich., Nov. 22.—John W. Smith became mayor of Detroit yesterday afternoon, after a brief induction ceremony, terminating a bitterly contested city election struggle.

A writ of prohibition preventing the election commission from issuing a certificate of election was not dissolved until late this afternoon in the circuit court.

Charles Bowles, "sticker" candidate for mayor, who had entered mandamus proceedings including an order restraining the commission from certifying the election of Smith, today abandoned his fight for the office. His supporters had claimed that votes cast out by canvassers because of errors, Bowles had received sufficient numbers to assure his election, despite a 14,173 plurality credited to Smith.
