News Notes of Town and Country Happenings
Gathered by Graphic Reporters.

The Graphic wishes all its readers a RESTIGOUCHE PRESBYTERIAN CONGREGATION Happy and Prosperous New Year.

FOR NEW YEARS.
We sure you have visiting cards for New Year calls. If you require any order at once. Fifty for $1.50 post paid.

CHRISTMAS.
Christmas was quietly spent in Campbellton. The weather was cold, but many citizens attended service in the churches and made friendly calls.

RIVER BRIDGES.
The cold weather of Christmas and following days severely bridged the river. On Christmas day the river was open, but closed Christmas night. On Monday there was crossing on foot and auto day horses were safely across.

MEETING OF S. M. HOSP. AID.
The regular monthly meeting of the Soldiers' Memorial Hospital Aid will be held in the Oddfellows' Hall on Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 4th at 3 o'clock. As the election of officers is to be held, a full attendance is requested.

A BUSY PLACE.
The Post Office last week was one of the busiest places in town. The telephones were filled to their capacity by people sending or receiving mail. The staff will not be sorry that the rush is over.

INDUCTION.
Rev. J. F. McQuay formerly of Redbank and Whiteville will be inducted into the pastoral charge of New Campbellton, P. Q., Wednesday evening, Dec. 31st, at 8 o'clock. The ceremony will be held in the Presbyterian church at New Campbellton, P. Q. The Rev. J. F. McQuay of New Campbellton, P. Q. who presided, inducted and gave the charge to the newly inducted minister, J. H. McLean of Dalhousie, and L. J. King, who addressed the people upon their duties and responsibilities.

SLIGHT FIRE.
Spontaneous combustion caused a slight fire in the Opera House block basement Friday morning. A fresh barrel of coal had been put in and with this a quantity of snow which caused spontaneous combustion. A large wooden post was charred and smoke penetrated the building awaking one of the inmates who notified Mr. Dinck, who phoned Mr. Christie, manager of the Opera House. By shovelling away the coal from the wood and applying a little water the fire was extinguished. No alarm was rung in.

PRESBYTERY.
The Presbytery of Miramichi will meet in the Presbyterian church at New Mills, January 11th, to inspect Rev. McIntosh McLeod, late of Waveville, N. B., into the pastoral charge of that congregation. Rev. A. D. Archibald of Bathurst will preside and induct. Rev. Alex. McQuay of New Campbellton will preach. Rev. A. D. Archibald of Bathurst will address the minister and Rev. B. C. Salter of Tide Head will address the people. New Mills congregation has been vacant since the removal of Rev. F. L. Jobb to Morewood, Ont., in July last.

To Everyone
we wish
a Happy and Prosperous
New Year.

SUBSTANTIAL MENU.
We have received from Mr. J. F. Gallagher, of the "Casilda" Hotel, Woodstock, a copy of the Christmas menu. It is not only artistic but substantial as well.

NEW FIRM.
Peter E. Firlotte and John E. Hickey of Five Fingers, Restigouche county, have formed a business partnership, according to notice appearing in the last Royal Gazette. They will carry on business as general merchants and lumber dealers, having bought out Mrs. Munroe's general stock.

HUNTINGTON-IRVINE.
A pretty wedding took place at the Baptist Parsonage on Dec. 28th, when Rev. W. Camp united in marriage Mr. Hilman Calvin Huntington of New Carlisle, P. Q., to Miss Lucy Irvine of Mann's Settlement. The bride was becomingly attired in a navy blue travelling suit with hat to match. The happy couple were unattended. After their honeymoon they will reside in New Carlisle.

FRASER PULP MILL IDLE.
R. H. Simonds, formerly secretary of the Fredericton Board of Trade, is spending the Christmas holidays here. The Fraser pulp mill is not operating and it is not expected that operation will be resumed until there is a readjustment of prices and values.—Fredericton Mail.

PLEASANT DANCE.
The dance held last evening at the Rose Room, for the entertainment of the Fredericton Hockeyists was a most enjoyable affair. Excellent music was provided and everything possible done for the pleasure of the guests, who numbered about one hundred and fifty. The chaperones were Mrs. W. R. Milligan, Mrs. D. A. Stewart and Mrs. F. E. Shephard. Mr. Colin McKenzie had charge of the finances.

CAMPBELLTON COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.
New term commences 3rd Jan. 1921. Full particulars from the Principal, MADAME B. K. DU GUAY, Box 3, Campbellton, N. B.

BOARD OF TRADE MEETING.
The regular monthly meeting of the Campbellton Board of Trade will be held in the office of the town clerk on Friday evening, Dec. 31st, at 8 o'clock. Several important matters will be discussed including that of appropriations for the bridge. This being also the annual meeting and the election of officers will be held.

PRESENTATION.
The staff at the Opera House on Christmas Eve presented the Manager Mr. R. Allan Christie, with a handsome wallet. The presentation was made in the office by Mrs. Mitchell, the pianist, in the presence of the entire staff, who feelingly referred to the pleasant relations existing between the employees and the management. Mr. Christie, although taken completely by surprise, made a suitable address, tendering his thanks for the gift and expressing his appreciation of the valuable services the staff were rendering the management in the faithful discharge of their various duties.

OBITUARY.
Clarence Thompson.
Word has been received in town of the very sudden death of Mr. Clarence Thompson which occurred at Upsalquitch on Thursday. The deceased who was in his 32nd year, was son of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Thompson, Glen Levit. He had just returned from the woods and called upon Mr. Thos. Firth, Upsalquitch, and was no sooner in the house when he was suddenly stricken down with a weak spell expiring in a few moments, heart failure being the cause of his death. Much sympathy is expressed for the deceased's family in the death of their beloved son. The funeral which was held on Saturday was largely attended.

BLACK CAPES.
The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed in the Presbyterian Church here on Sunday afternoon. Miss Thomas Young of Oak Bay Mills is visiting her former home in Black Capes. Mrs. Young is accompanied by her children.

BLACK CAPES.
Miss Nellie McLean who is teaching school in the eastern townships is home for the holidays. Mrs. McLean has returned from the North Shore where they have been engaged in lumbering operations. They report quite a quantity.

EDISON PHONOGRAPHS.
WORKS ARE SHUT DOWN
West Orange, N. J., Dec. 25.—The phonograph works of Thomas A. Edison, Inc., will close down and remain closed indefinitely. The record department will not be affected. "General business" conditions throughout the country, were given as the reason. The closing affects 800 employees.
