P. MCPEAKE, Chairman.
M. MCDADE, Sec'y to Com. of Arrangements.

Sir Thomas replied as follows:—

ST. JOHN, Jan. 14,

Thanks for kind message. Regret extremely cannot visit you now.

ESMONDE.

The FARMER regrets to learn of the death of Miss Ethel Estabrooks daughter of Mr. Leverett Estabrooks of Prince William, which occurred at her home Saturday. The deceased was a young lady held in high esteem by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. She was a graduate of the Baptist Seminary in St. John, held a first class license from the Normal school and was a teacher in the public school in the district in which her father resided, when she was taken down a few months ago, with consumption which resulted in her untimely death. Her funeral was held Monday afternoon and was very largely attended, the services being conducted by the Rev. B. N. Hughes.

The Sunbury County Court, Judge Steadman presiding, opened yesterday. The grand jury found a true bill against Ashley Nevers for placing obstructions on the N. B. Railway track, but the prisoner having left the country, the trial could not proceed. There were two civil causes entered, (1) Verner vs. Campbell, Black & Hazen for plaintiff. (2) Verner vs. Gallagher, Black & Hazen for plaintiff; Blair & Barry for defendant. The former was undefended and resulted in a verdict of $225.23 for plaintiff, the full amount claimed. The second case was withdrawn. The charge of assault against Kelly next came before the court and resulted in acquittal. C. E. Duffy for the crown and D. Jordan for the prisoner.

The York Circuit court, Mr. Justice Wetmore presiding, opened at 11 A. M. yesterday. There was a very small attendance of visitors. The Chief Justice occupied a seat on the bench beside Judge Wetmore, who, in his address to the Grand Jury, warmly complimented the municipal authorities on the important improvements in the interior of the Court House, which is now one of the most comfortable buildings of the kind in the province. The Grand Jury were sworn in as follows:—Harry Beckwith, foreman; Joseph C. Risteen, Z. R. Everett, Alexander Calder, John Owens, Martin Lemont, Thos. A. Sharkey, Robert Colwell, Daniel Lenihan, Geo. C. Hunt, Thomas Stanger, Loran C. Macnutt, William H. Vanwart, Alexander Thompson, Richard A. Estey, Peter McFarlane, Alonzo Staples, James D. Fowler, Fred. Quartermain, John Adams. There was only one criminal charge to present to the Grand Jury, namely, the indictment against Donald Brown of Stanley for grievously wounding Alexander Brown. The Jury found a true bill on all the counts of the indictment, and were discharged. The trial of Brown occupied yesterday afternoon, Hon. A. G. Blair prosecuting, and Mayor Hazen defending. The prisoner was found guilty and sentenced this morning to 2 years in the penitentiary.

Mr. Bebbington's Candidature.

(To the Editor of the Farmer)

SIR,—Will you kindly allow me space in your paper to just state my position as a candidate for Alderman.

Some two weeks ago, I was presented with the following requisition:—"The undersigned being ratepayers of Kings Ward, respectfully request you to allow yourself to be put in nomination for Alderman to represent the said Ward at the coming Board during the ensuing year, and hereby offer our support."

Here I count some fifty or more names of the most influential citizens of the Ward. Previous to this I had no desire for such a civic honor, but under the circumstances I will submit to their request, and if I should be put in by an entire voluntary vote, for I have no time or desire to ask favors, I will do my duty as far as my judgment goes. I will also state that I am brought out by no party, either temperance or otherwise, neither will I be responsible to any party for anything I should do if I should be elected.

Respectfully yours,
JOHN BEBBINGTON.

Fredericton, Jan. 17, 1888.

THE BAND CONCERT.

(To the Editor of the Farmer)

SIR,—Does the Capital suppose that its words of praise of Mrs. Black's singing, at the Band concert, are any more acceptable to that lady on account of their being accompanied by a most ungenerous attack on Miss Coholan? I might say for the Capital's information, that Miss Coholan was taught "The Last Rose of Summer" by the best master in the United States; that it was in that piece that she made her first great hit in St. John some years ago; that her rendition of it at that time and since has called forth words of the highest praise from the best judges of music in St. John, including Mrs. Lawton and Mrs. Perley, who in their day were most gifted and cultured artists. Who are the great celebrities of the lyric stage, of whom the Capital speaks, who sing the "Last Rose of Summer, with fewer trills, grace notes, turns and the like," than Miss Coholan? It has been my fortune to have heard Emma Abbott and Minnie Hawk in the "Last Rose of Summer, and they sang with quite as much expression and "style" as does the St. John singer. Perhaps it is their misfortune that they were not favored with an opinion from Mr. Cropley, as to how they should sing the piece. One would think by his apology for his criticism that Miss Coholan had never sang before a cultured audience before coming to Fredericton. If Mr. Cropley would go away from home a little, he might discover that it is just possible for an artist to be correct and yet differ in execution from the few singers he may have heard here.

Youre,
A LADY READER.

Fredericton, Jan. 17, 1888.

CHAMPION CURLERS.

The Fredericton Boys defeat all comers at St. John,

And win the Inter-Provincial Trophies.

Fredericton generally gets there when the boys really mean business. They quietly went down to St. John yesterday morning determined to capture the proud distinction or champion curlers of the Maritime Provinces, and the appended trophies, and they did it. Of last year's bonspiel which was interrupted by bad weather at Moncton, there remained to be played two matches to decide the championship. Truro and Pictou had defeated all Nova Scotia clubs, while Fredericton and Chatham had vanquished all their rivals in New Brunswick. These matches were played in St. John yesterday. In the morning Truro defeated Pictou by 23 points, and Fredericton got away with their old antagonists of Chatham after a very exciting struggle, by two points. In the afternoon Truro and Fredericton played the final match for the championship, and the home boys won handsomely, skip Allen defeating skip Gunn by 22 to 7, and skip Loggie beating the finest curler in Nova Scotia, skip Blair, by 19 to 14. Fredericton thus won the series by 20 points, capturing the McSweeney and McLellan cups. Glory enough for one day, and here are the boys who did it:—

| | |
|---|---|
| Jas. H. Hawthorn, | F. S. Hilyard, |
| J. B. Grieves, | A. F. Street, |
| H. C. Rutter, | W. K. Allen, |
| T. G. Loggie, skip. | E. H. Allen, skip. |

On the whole the concert given by the Fredericton Brass Band in the City Hall last Thursday evening, was the most successful musical entertainment given for years in this city. The Hall was crowded, and the receipts amounted to $150. Ample evidence of the popularity of the individual members of the Band and of the high appreciation in which their musical abilities are held by the general public. The selections by the Band were brilliantly executed, and Mrs. Black's singing still further enhanced her fame as Fredericton's leading vocalist. Miss Coholan showed herself to be possessed of an excellent voice, and may rely on receiving a warm welcome in Fredericton whenever she sings here. Mr. Lantalum acquitted himself well, and Mr. Adams character songs as usual, pteduced liberal encores. The Band will give another concert during the legislation session.

The bonspiel for this year is in progress today, and we hope the Fredericton boys may achieve still further success. To-morrow two more rinks join them from here to play the annual matches Friday with the Thistles and St. Andrews of St. John. The skips are Mayor HAZEN, W. K. Allen, J. H. Hawthorn and F. S. Hilyard.

STANLEY'S EARLY HISTORY.

As contributed to the "Farmer" by an Old Resident.

When people get old and are thereby rendered incapable of engaging in active occupation, their minds naturally turn backward to the early and stirring events of their life. They live over again many times the days when they were young, the days when they were the principal actors in many stirring scenes. The attention of your correspondent was particularly directed to this fact when engaged one day in conversation with one of Stanley's oldest residents. This gentleman was one of the first to visit Stanley, and has lived there ever since. Thinking that it might be of interest to some of your readers I will briefly relate some of the facts he told me. As lately as 1832 Stanley consisted of only one small hut, built wigwam fashion, owned by Mr. Walter Britt. Captain Kendall, agent for the N. B. Land Company came to Stanley at the above date, or thereabouts, to found a town. He had plenty of money and spent it freely. As a consequence, some men accumulated considerable of it. The captain was beloved by his employees, who saw his departure with deep regret. At this time Stanley presented a busy scene. Contracts for building houses and clearing land were let and sub-let. The company erected a large log building serving as a tavern and hotel. This was a well built house, and is now standing. It is now owned by Mr. Malone, and was until recently occupied. The first mill was built by order of the Agent, Captain Kendell. It occupied the site of the mill now owned by Mr. J. Sanson, but the stream was not nearly so wide then as now. What was then intervale land is now covered by the stream.

Provisions were high in price and difficult to obtain. They were brought in wagons to a point about two mile above the "Covered Bridge," and thence were transported on sleds through the woods. Afterwards by way of improvement skiffs were used for carrying the provisions instead of the sleds. These skiffs capable of holding about 5 bbls. were towed up the Nashwaak with one horse.

The first sowing of grain, about 30 acres was put in entirely by men. The men used hoes to cover the grain.

During the time of Captain Kendall considerable improvement were made. About 30 buildings were built, consisting of houses, barns and mills, of which there were 3 and an oat kiln. The Captain's successor, Col. Haines, made many changes. He discharged all the employees. The people then had to depend upon themselves. Some few took farms and settled upon them. The majority, however, left the place. Stanley now had a period of depression. The settlers found it as difficult to live as any new settlers do. After a few years other settlers came in slowly at first, but as its reputation for good land spread they came in larger numbers. Since that time Stanley has steadily progressed. It is now an important village, with large and wealthy outlying settlements. Stanley's present condition is well known to many of your readers, and does not call for any remarks from me at this time.

Mr. John B. Sutherland leaves on Saturday to reside permanently in California.

YORK MUNICIPAL COUNCIL.

Opening of the January Session.

Coun. Rowley elected Warden.

(By our own Reporter.)

The York Municipal Council met in the County Court building yesterday morning. The following Councillors were present:—

Bright—Frank Bird, Henry Sloat.
Canterbury—George F. A. Jamieson, Luke Lawson.
Douglas—Benj. R. Burtt, Thomas H. Colter.
Dumfries—John Scott, G. W. Ebbett.
Kingsclear—Benj. Everett, John C. Murray.
Manners-Sutton—Robt. Little, John Mowatt.
New Maryland—David M. Fisher, Absalom A. Nason.
North Lake—Robt. McElroy, David Cropley.
Prince William—Alex. Rosborough, Wm. Fraser.
Queensbury—Alanson McNally, John H. Murch.
St. Marys—Luther Goodspeed, Alfred Rowley.
Southampton—Geo. W. Brown, James K. Pinder.
Stanley—John Hinchey, Wm. T. Howe.

On motion of Coun. Colter, seconded by Coun. Nason, Coun. Howe and others, Coun. Rowley was unanimously appointed Warden.

The new Warden said he hardly knew how to thank the Council for the honor done him. Whether or not he would make a good Warden remained to be seen. One thing he would say that he would not be found lacking in zeal. A good deacon had once said: "we are all poor weak critters." He (Rowley) did not claim to be an exception to that rule. He counted on the assistance of the Council, and would endeavor to faithfully and impartially discharge his duties. (Applause.)

Sec'y-Treasurer Wilson read the minutes of the last meeting. Adopted.

Committee were appointed as follows:

Sec'y-Treasurers accounts.—Lawson, Colter, Howe, Murch, Nason.

Public accounts.—Murch, Lawson, Burtt, Hinchey, Nason, Murray, Little, Scott, Sloat, Cropley, Rosborough and Brown.

Assessment—Howe, Colter, Fisher, Bird, Everett, Mowatt, Elliott, Pinder, Jamieson, McElroy, Fraser, Goodspeed, McNally.

A petition was read from D. Lucy protesting against the election of Councillor Pinder on the ground that he was not qualified. Coun. Lawson moved, seconded by Coun. Murray, that the matter stand over till the July meeting. Carried.

Adjourned till 2 P. M.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

Coun. Lawson submitted the report of the committee appointed to examine the Sec'y-Treasurer's accounts. They found the accounts and vouchers correct, with the exception of several amounts paid on account of persons belonging to the city of Fredericton, who have been sent to the Lunatic Asylum, which amounts should be paid by the city, and recommended that the Sec'y-Treasurer render an account to the city of all moneys so paid. The committee find that the balance to the credit of the County on the 16th instant, was $2,175.14, made up as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| Amount in Bank as per certificate of Cashier | $2,036 92 |
| Cash in Sec'y-Treas. hands | 138.22 |
| | $2,175.14 |

Respectfully submitted,
LUKE LAWSON,
Chairman.

On motion of Coun. Jamieson, seconded by Coun. Burtt, the report was adopted.

On motion of Coun. Pinder, an old account from McFarlane, Thompson & Anderson, was referred to the committee on accounts.

Committees were appointed as follows:—

Audit and Loans — Goodspeed, Mowatt, Bird.

Buildings—Colter, Goodspeed and Little.

Printing—McNally, Sloat and Fisher.

On motion of Coun. Goodspeed, seconded by Coun. Burtt, Council adjourned till this morning, so that committees might get to work.

Robert Clayden a workman in Coun. Pinder's grist mill at Temperance Vale, died suddenly last Thursday, supposed from the it is effects of an injury received on his head while working on the railway bridge here last Autumn. The remains of the deceased were interred at Prince William Saturday, Rev. Mr. Neales conducting the services.

42 YEARS.

Steadfastly for forty-two years the WEEKLY WITNESS has held to principles which have stood the tests of time, ridicule, and of opposition, fair and unfair, and the WITNESS to-day speaks to sixty where in 1846 it spoke to one. Its growth has been both rapid and steady. Its publishers, desirous of still further increasing its circulation, have this year gone to large expense to secure a reproduction of the LATEST MASTERPIECE of Davidson Knowles (who was selected by Queen Victoria to paint the scene at Princess Beatrice's wedding) entitled Suffer the Little Children to Come Unto Me.

It depicts the memorable scene with startling realism, reproducing in oils all the richness of ORIENTAL COLORING. The picture, executed by the greatest art firm in England, would bring $1.50 if sold, but is reserved EXCLUSIVELY FOR SUBSCRIBERS to the WITNESS.

The price of the WEEKLY WITNESS and picture is $1.25; the paper alone, $1.00.

In 1887 the DAILY WITNESS was launched, and like the WEEKLY, to advocate the same principles regardless of cost. The picture "Suffer Little Children to Come Unto Me," and the DAILY WITNESS, $3.25 a year; the paper alone, $2.00.

The MESSENGER still continues to be the favorite in the home circle and Sabbath School, and commencing with January first with new type, finer paper and other improvements, will be more attractive than ever. Prizes of books are given to friends who canvass for it. Annual subscription, 30c. with reductions to clubs.

Sample copies of the different publications mailed on application. Agents wanted in every town and village.
