The Crop Outlook.

From advices received from nearly every part of the county we are safe in saying that the hay crop is fully up to the average of previous years, and though there may be a slight shrinkage on old upland, the deficiency is more than made up by the additional acreage under cultivation and the splendid yield on most of the marshes.

Up to the present time all other crops in the county promise a bountiful harvest. Oats never looked finer, and barley, rye and flax are more than up to the average; and if there is any falling off in the cereals it will be in corn, owing to the dry weather, has been affected to a slight degree.

Root crops of every variety are looking well, potatoes in particular giving an immense yield, while mangels, beets, parsnips, turnips, peas, beans, etc., promise more than an average yield at the present time.

Any of our militia officers who are anxious for fame, with the additional inducement of a good fat salary, can get just what they want by applying to the leaders of the Cuban rebellion.

There are some few thrilling drawbacks connected with the affair which perhaps ought to be mentioned. The yellow fever is prevalent in the disturbed district, and this is quite likely to prove fatal in the case of one going from the north to the island.

The suspension of one of the French banks of Montreal last week caused intense excitement in financial circles in the other provinces. The institution in difficulties, the Banque de Peuple, was supposed to be one of the staunchest in the dominion, having assets of over nine million dollars.

The question of woman's suffrage is being so pushed to the front in the State of New York, and there seems so great a probability that it will soon be submitted to the people of the State as an amendment to the constitution that the newspapers there are calling upon the women who do not wish the ballot to speak out at once, and make their wishes known.

The Jewish residents of the slum district of Boston have been holding an indignation meeting against the Christian missions of the neighborhood. They protest that their children are rapidly being won to Christianity, and that, while the mission workers have been unable to reach the poor people of this district, yet by means of their schools, gymnastics, reading rooms, boys' clubs, etc., they are able to win many of the little ones to the Gospel of the Nazarene.

Visiting the Creameries.

Mr. Hopkins, chairman of the Dominion Branch Experimental Station at Nappan, is visiting and inspecting the dairy stations through the province. He was at the Grand Mills Dairy Station on Wednesday and Thursday last, and at the Bridgetown factory on Thursday afternoon and Friday.

Mr. H. thinks that if the price of dairy products advances that a good business can be done by our factories, but with the low prices at which butter and cheese are now selling patrons cannot expect a high price for their milk.

There will be racing on the Kentville Driving Park on August 1st. It is said that there is another trotting wonder in Kings and its sire was the sire of the famous trotter, the next fortnight the crop will be about all in. We regret to learn that such, however, is not the condition of affairs in the eastern portion of the province, notably in the island of Cape Breton.

Summer School of Science.

This school, started a few years ago by some of our leading educationalists to fill a real want, caused by the introduction of more of the sciences in our common school course, has just completed a very successful session.

It has become inter-provincial, the different lecturers being selected from the three Maritime Provinces, and the students coming from these same provinces, although the larger number are Nova Scotians.

Besides the usual sciences there have been added subjects which are quite as important, music, civics and kindergarten work. The session just closed was held in the County Academy, Amherst, a building magnificent in proportions and elaborate in furnishing, the pride of Cumberland county.

The season of the year prevents many teachers from attending, but of those who do attend, while indifference and a preconceived idea that anything out of the usual routine is "fad" draws a greater number.

In order to adapt the school to all, it was decided to locate it permanently at Paradise, as it was the most central for the province and is beautiful for situation, and more of the sciences in our common school course, has just completed a very successful session.

The proposal to form a joint stock company with a capital of $4000, erect a building or buildings, suitable for lodgings and classrooms, board the teachers at a reasonable price, and rent the rooms during the remainder of the year.

Should this project prove successful, a large number of teachers will attend, for the benefit of the students, and the novelty and charm of a community of this kind will certainly attract even those of limited means.

The principle upon which the school is conducted, is to give recreation and study to prove the theory of books, by actual observation and experiment; to analyze and then construct theories and rules.

It has been the means of giving an impulse to scientific teaching in proper channels, which is having the most legitimate results in the leading schools of the Province.

It has been a success in the previous years, and should it take the form as proposed, it will still be a greater success in the years to come.

A Canadian Anniversary. On the twenty-fourth day of June, 1897, four hundred years will have elapsed since the barque of John Cabot first sighted the coast of North America.

On the twenty-fourth day of June, 1897, four hundred years will have elapsed since the barque of John Cabot first sighted the coast of North America. The day of the discovery has been a grand success.

That the crop prospects of Manitoba and the North West are excellent is amply demonstrated by reports from the agents of the Canadian Pacific Railway. They were telegraphed to the other day by Mr. Whyte, superintendent in charge of the Western Division, of an encouraging nature, and give promise of a successful season.

The C. P. R. agents throughout the maritime provinces have received actual applications for two thousand harvest hands. The company is anxious to run harvest excursions next year. Three thousand harvest hands from east Canada are being sought to get ready employment, highest wages.

A brick building, to be used as a Roman Catholic high school, was recently completed at Halifax, at a cost of $40,000, exclusive of the site. The teachers are coming from France. There will not be more than four teachers this year, but the staff will be increased as circumstances warrant. Twelve students are expected from France this month. The teachers will be of the order of Jesus and Mary, as it is called in France. They have already one college (St. Ann's), at Church Point, Digby. The seminary will accommodate forty students.
