

in regular organization, with day-schools and Sunday-schools; an hospital, under the charge of a skilful Christian physician; a large industrial school for girls, with forty pupils, and a similar institution for boys, where instruction is given in useful arts. There are eight ordained ministers, seven lay missionaries and eight native assistants. The churches are self-supporting, and are in a most thriving condition. Looking back on the results of his thirty years of labour, Mr. Crosby thanks God that he was led to take up this pioneer work, and for the success with which God has rewarded him.

MISSION STEAM YACHT "GLAD TIDINGS."