

timber makes the frame work of the house and the machinery of the well. Of the pearl-fishery on the west, and the famous Trincomalie harbour on the east; of fruit-groves of various kinds, and cinnamon and coffee gardens; of the railway to Kandy; of Buddha's tooth; of apes and peacocks, serpents, cheetahs, elephants, and ivory; of satin-wood, teak, and ebony; of the wonderful remains of ancient cities; of costumes, ceremonies, and countless attractive matters, we have no space to

A ROAD IN CEYLON.