

:.Gage's Fiction Series.:

RAGGED LADY.

BY WILLIAM DEAN HOWELLS — Illustrated
by A. J. Kellar.
Cloth $1.25. Paper 75c. Ready April 20.

"Ragged Lady is a book as fresh and as truly charming as any that Mr. Howells has ever written."—Philadelphia Press.

"A delightful contribution to current fiction."—Albany Evening Journal.

THE MORMON PROPHET.

BY MISS L. DOUGALL, author of "Beggars All." Just Issued. Cloth $1.25, Paper 75c.

First edition exhausted three days after publication. Second edition ready at once.

"Miss Dougall may be congratulated both on her choice of a subject for her new book and on her remarkably able and interesting treatment of it. . . A fascinating story, which is even more remarkable and more fascinating as a psychological study."—Scotsman.

"Miss Dougall's work has separateness and distinction."—The Times, London.

AS A MAN SOWS.

BY WILLIAM WESTALL. 420 pages. Cloth $1.25, paper 75c. Issued in March.

"Mr. Westall has achieved the difficult task of making City business swindles perfectly clear to the most ignorant. I would urge you to read the book, which—as are all Mr. Westall's novels—is very brightly written and well conceived."—Gentlewoman.

"The plot is so well wrought out that the story carries the reader pleasantly on from surprise to surprise. Whoever reads it is sure of good entertainment."—Scotsman.

READY SHORTLY

"BY BERWEN BANKS."

By Allen Raine. Cloth $1. Paper 50c.

"THE MANDARIN."

By Carlton Dawe. Fully Illustrated.
Cloth $1. Paper 50c.

HUGH GWYETH, A Roundhead Cavalier.

BY BEULAH MARIE DIX. Cloth $1.25, paper 75c. Issued in March.

This is a capital stirring novel of war and adventure, during the time of Charles I., in those great years of English history which witnessed the struggle between Cromwellian and Stuart forces. The characters of the story are clear cut, well sustained and with interesting individualities. It is a well constructed plot and the novel is emphatically one of action and incident.

"Better romances are rare."—Troy Times,

THE PRESIDENT OF BORAVIA.

BY GEO. LAMBERT. Cloth $1. Paper 50c.
Just Published.

A tale of a South American revolution and a discovery of Jesuit treasure, with the proper element of love making.

"All these marvellous matters are related with vigor."—Morning Leader.

"Exciting reading."—Academy.

"The story is always buoyantly enough written to be pleasant reading, and it should prove enjoyable."—Scotsman.

TWO MEN O' MENDIP.

BY WALTER RAYMOND. Cloth $1. Paper 50c. Published in March.

"The book is a decided literary success—Toronto Mail and Empire.

"This is a story which undoubtedly merits very high praise. It is by far the best thing Mr. Raymond has yet done."—Glasgow Herald.

"This story is full of the fragrance of Zummerzetshire. There is suffering, and homely philosophy, and gladness, such as country folk know. In its way this tragic idyll is a perfect piece of work."—The Academy, London, Eng.

LIBERAL DISCOUNTS TO THE TRADE.