

growing fat on his own good fare and genial disposition, as great a favorite with the boys in those days as his son the Rev. Father Champagne now is with his parishioners at the Gatineau. After a few years the days of old St. Joseph's were numbered. The first wing of your new buildings had been completed and thither we went but from whatever cause, we never had so much unbridled fun as in the old quarters.

Yours Sincerely,
1859.
