We have 10,000 Booklets and Christmas Cards, that cost in a lot of 100,000 from 5c to 20c each. They cover all new designs and we have divided them into 2 lots, your choice for 5c and your choice for 10c. These have usually been sold from 10c to 50c each. A good time to get a fine thing for a little money. We have 200 bird cages, and we have reduced the price, 39c up to 98c for painted and 89c up to $1.99 for best, usually sold for $2 up to $5. Give your bird a Merry Christmas.

Our supply of fine baskets, work boxes, manicure sets, comb, mirror and brush sets, in leather and plush, was never as good before, and we offer them at half regular prices. In toys you must come and see—our windows tell you something in this line—and in dolls' values, we have sold for many days an average of 100 to 200, but we have a great supply; see them, certainly, not half what dealers usually think they must get for them. To-day will be a Bargain Day with us to be remembered. Lamps 14c, usually 25c. We have made a special purchase of vases, filled with the finest of teas. The vases are of rare beauty and could not be imported for less than $1.50. We shall close out two cases of them at 89c each. To-day, in goods wanted all the year round, we will sell two splendid brooms of choicest corn for 25c, or 13c each. Do not forget we sell a $45 to $60 sewing machine for two weeks for $17 each, and if you are ever to want buy now. Space is up; come and see.

WOMEN!

The Woman's Publishing Co. is an enterprise especially suitable for women; one in which every woman may become an active participant and profit sharer. We have a large and profitable business, but we want the active co-operation of women in all parts of the country to aid in extending it. In order to carry out this plan successfully, we organized a stock company and offered 5,000 shares of our full-paid, non-assessable capital stock for sale, to women only. The unexpected demand for this stock has induced us to offer another 5,000 shares, and thus gain to give the large number of applicants each a few shares, and thus gain a still larger and wider circle of co-workers in our work for woman. We own "The Housekeeper," one of the most successful domestic magazines. It has been published regularly for 16 years. Every reader of this announcement is probably familiar with it. (If you happen to be an exception, send your address for a specimen copy.) We also have "Buckeye Cookery," and "Practical Housekeeping," two of the most reliable and popular books on cooking and housekeeping—nearly 1,000,000 copies have been sold; "Home Decorative Work," the latest authority on all branches of fancy-work; "The Home," by Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher; etc., together with the immense and perfectly equipped Printing, Binding, and Electrotyping Plants required to do our own work and to carry on our large Job Printing and Binding Business. Present earnings warrant ten per cent. yearly dividends. Five per cent. will be declared and paid in January, 1893, as the first semi-annual dividend of our company. As shown, we have an established and profitable business; but its possibilities of expansion are practically unlimited. It is to secure the most hearty co-operation of such women as have a desire to take part, that we offer this additional opportunity, not only to become identified with us in this great work for our sex, but also to share the profits which through the union and co-operation of the larger number will be so increased as to give stockholders larger dividends or "interest," than it is possible to obtain from any other safe, well-secured investment. The stock of the Woman's Publishing Co. is Absolutely Safe and non-assessable, and is sold to Women Only. Price, $10.00 per share. If you are not in a position to make full payment now, let us know how many shares you wish reserved, send us $1.00 as first payment on each share, and we will arrange together for settlement of balance. The careful attention of all women having a little money which they would like to invest safely, and where it will bring the largest earnings, is invited to this offer.
