SAMBO AND DINAH.

These lively "colored people" are exceedingly popular wherever introduced both with young and old. They are each eleven inches high, and are dressed in Southern costumes of the old plantation style. They will dance to music, bow, fall down, rise up, etc., without the manager being any where near them, and the secret of their movements can only be discovered by the closest examination. SAMBO and DINAH are intensely funny creatures, their comical antics and queer motions making them jolly company for a winter's evening, especially to those who enjoy a hearty laugh. By mail, 10c; 3 pairs, 25c. J. LEE & CO., Montreal, P. Q.
