THAT'S THE WAY THE MONEY GOES!

CANADIAN MANUFACTURER :—It's too bad, JONATHAN, that you should swamp us with your surplus stock this way. It kills manufacturing and trade up here. You should have more regard.

BROTHER JONATHAN :—Waal, I'm on the make, you know, and I particularly like British money; so, as long as you keep your Revenue Tariff, I'm on hand!

CANADIAN MANUFACTURER :—Just wait till T. W. gets into Parliament; he's pledged to be even with you on that score, and he'll do it.

BROTHER JONATHAN :—Reckon he can't do it alone. I've got good friends in there that'll stand by me.
